Jerry D. McMorris

Chairman, President & Chief Executive Officer

When seeking a focal point for the success of the Colorado Rockies franchise, one needs to look no further than the top, where Jerry McMorris and his partners have turned the Rockies into one of the premier franchises in professional sports. In just three seasons of existence, his guidance and winning attitude has cascaded throughout the organization, and in 1995 extended to the field of play, as the Rockies became the first expansion club to participate in post-season activity in fewer than eight seasons. Under the leadership of McMorris and front-line owners, Charlie Monfort and Oren Benton, the Rockies have accrued accomplishments of staggering proportions, both on and off the field.

Post-season qualification aside, the Rockies have had over 11.1 million fans pass through the gates in under three full seasons of play, a per game average of 53,888 over 207 dates, figures which are unprecedented in baseball history. The immediate success of the franchise at the gate has equated to the success on the field, as McMorris and his partners have given the go ahead to trades and free agent signings that have positively impacted the club in a short period of time. His foresight during the embryonic stages of Coors Field brought the suggestion and financial commitment to raise the originally planned capacity by 7,000 seats to its present 50,200 total.

Over a year ago, Jerry was called upon to lend his collective bargaining expertise to assist with baseball's labor negotiations. It was far from strange territory for the Rockies' owner, who had spent the majority of his life in a union environment in the trucking business. In 1959, at the age of 19, Jerry McMorris assumed the Presidency of Westway Motor Freight, Inc., a company that his family purchased, and at the time was operating three trucks between Denver and Golden, CO. Today NW Transport has more than 12,000 equipment units and employs over 2,500 people in Colorado, with a total 6,500 employees throughout the U.S. and Canada.

McMorris' involvement in baseball began as a minority owner of the upstart franchise awarded to Denver on July 5, 1991, but it escalated to full-time duty on January 26, 1993.

During the course of his leadership with the Rockies, McMorris has maintained the same calm demeanor on a daily basis regardless of the situation that arises. A "people" person by nature, Jerry and his wife, Mary, can be found on a daily basis in their seats behind the Rockies dugout, often interacting with the thousands of fans who made the trek to the ballpark. A firm believer in doing what is right, he has ingrained that quality into every member of the Rockies' organization.

The baseball world did not take long to respect his abilities, aside from placing him prominently on the negotiating committee, he has also dealt with Congressional and Federal Legislation in regards to baseball.

A 1962 graduate of the University of Colorado School of Business, he is a former member of the Young Presidents' Organization, and is a board member of the American Trucking Association. McMorris is a former Chairman of the Colorado State University Foundation, and currently serves on the CU Foundation Board of Directors. He is also on the Executive Committee of the Board of Directors of the very successful National Western Stock Show. He was named the 1993 Colorado Business Leader of the Year, and was the 1992 Master Entrepreneur of the Year. He is also a member of the Institute of American Entrepreneurs. As if his activities and responsibilities are not enough, Jerry is also one of the most sought after public speakers in the region.

Jerry owns Timnath Farms and the Red Mountain and Belvoir Ranches, with his agricultural interests based in Northern Colorado and Wyoming. He and wife, Mary, have three children, Mike, Scott and Kelly. Jerry and Mary reside at Timnath Farms in Timnath, Colorado, and are the grandparents of Madeline born October 4, 1994, to Kelly and her husband Michael Dorvillier.

Bob Gebhard

Executive Vice President - General Manager

When Bob Gebhard accepted the role of assembling the first baseball team in Colorado major league history, his goal was to build a competitive club as quickly as possible. Even by his standards, the results of the 1995 season had to have exceeded his wildest dreams. Dreams or not, the '95 Rockies made it to post-season play five years faster than any previous major league baseball expansion franchise. And though the final phase of the dream has yet to be realized, the Rockies and Bob Gebhard's labors have already impacted the standings in the National League.

Respect has to be earned, it is not just handed out, and Gebhard began to earn that respect on a national scope following the '95 campaign. He led all National League general managers in the Executive-of-the-Year Award balloting conducted by The Sporting News, finishing third overall to winner John Hart of Cleveland and Boston's Dan Duquette. His efforts were rewarded in-house with a contract extension through the 1998 season, which included a title upgrade to Executive Vice President.

The Colorado era of the Bob Gebhard story began in the fall of 1991, when he was coaxed away from Minnesota, where he played a vital role in a front office staff that had assembled a pair of World Series champions in a five-year span. His arrival here was a fantasy leaguer's dream, but it was real life for Gebhard, who had to build a major league team, a minor league organization, and a scouting system from scratch. The task at hand was to be prepared to compete in the National League a mere 18 months after accepting the job. Sleep has never been a major factor of Geb's life, which is fortunate, because he spent many a night waking up and writing notes to himself in preparation for the expansion draft.

Risktaking falls under the umbrella of a general manager's responsibilities, and it's no different for an expansion franchise. The first in an array of chances that paid off for Gebhard was the hiring of Don Baylor, who had never managed a team at any level. Geb's foresight in the unproven entity paid off with Baylor's securing of the National League Manager-of-the-Year award in 1995.

The next step was the expansion draft, with all of the homework paying off in the long run. The day before the draft, the Rockies inked a veteran free agent first baseman in Andres Galarraga, who immediately paid dividends by hitting .370 to win the league batting title in 1993. Gebhard also took a shot at a trade upon completion of the expansion draft, with the acquisition of Dante Bichette from Milwaukee in exchange for Kevin Reimer.

All totaled, when the Rockies took the field for the first game of the 1995 Division Series Playoffs, six members of the starting lineup were a part of the Rockies' organization by the end of business on November 17, 1992, the date of the expansion draft. Joining Bichette and Galarraga on the field for the historical post-season event were Vinny Castilla, Joe Girardi, Eric Young and Kevin Ritz.

Thanks to the support of the fans of the region and the commitment to winning by ownership, Gebhard has been able to upgrade the product annually, most recently adding the likes of Larry Walker and Bill Swift. He has also locked up integral parts of the lineup to multi-year deals, including the most-recent off-season signings of Bichette (three years), Walt Weiss (two years) and Vinny Castilla (two years).

Gebhard's playing career spanned 11 years as a pitcher, including three stints in the big leagues. His leadership abilities were obvious to those in Montreal, who named him a player/coach in their chain for 1974-75, then promoted him to Minor League Field Director and pitching coach for the next six years. He spent the 1982 season on the big league coaching staff, then served as Director of Minor League clubs through 1986 before joining the Minnesota Twins' front office, the same organization that had originally made Gebhard a 15th round draft choice in the first-ever June draft in 1965.

It was with the Twins that he experienced the ultimate in success, winning the World Series title in both the 1987 and 1991 seasons. Gebhard started with the Twins in '87 as the Director of Major League Personnel, then assumed the role of Vice President, Player Personnel the following year.

A native of Lamberton, MN, he earned 16 letters while playing four sports in high school, then took his athletic career on the road to the University of Iowa, where he co-captained the baseball team and also played basketball.

Gebhard and wife, Nancy, have three children, daughters, Angie and Jenny, and son, Casey, and reside in Littleton, CO.

Dick Balderson

Vice President/Player Personnel

Since joining the Rockies in August, 1992, Dick Balderson has begun to see the fruits of his labor take place. An influx of youth that developed in the Rockies' chain reached the major league level during the season of '95, with several of the players groomed by Balderson and his staff making contributions to the post-season drive. Prospects who went through the minor league grind to assist with the Rockies advance to the post-season included the likes of Jason Bates, Jayhawk Owens, Lance Painter, Mark Thompson and Bryan Rekar, just to name a few.

Originally on board as the Director of Player Development, Balderson was promoted to his present status prior to the start of the '95 season. Dick has organized and staffed the minor league outlets, while also procuring players for the system via minor league fee agency. In addition to those duties, he has also assumed a variety of major league responsibilities, giving him an opportunity to watch the youth rise to the top.

The '96 season is Dick's 21st in major league baseball, starting as Assistant Farm Director for Kansas City. After a series of promotions that took him to Director of Scouting and Player Development in 1981, Balderson traveled to Seattle, serving the Mariners as Vice President of Baseball Operations from October, 1985-88. His career then headed to Chicago, starting in 1988 as the Cubs' Director of Scouting, then two years later he was named Vice President of Scouting and Player Development.

A former minor league pitcher, the 50-year old Balderson played college baseball for the Richmond Spiders. He was inducted into Richmond's Hall-of-Fame prior to the '95 baseball season with St. Louis outfielder Brian Jordan.

Dick and wife, Marcia, have two children, son, Brett (16), and daughter, Melissa (11) and make their home in Aurora.

Tony Siegle

Assistant General Manager

Tony joined Bob Gebhard's staff upon completion of the '94 season, and with him brought over 30 years of major league baseball experience. Prior to joining the Rockies, Siegle spent four seasons with San Francisco, serving the Giants as Vice President, Baseball Administration and Operations. His role with the Rockies centers around contracts and keeping the Baseball Department abreast of all rules and regulations involved in the day-to-day regimen.

The 55-year old Siegle began his long ride in baseball in 1965 with the Houston Astros in scoreboard operations, then following a stint as an officer in the United States Navy, he joined the Phillies in 1969 as Director of Stadium Operations. He followed that a year later by joining Milwaukee in the minor league and scouting departments, then was named Farm Director for the Brewers for 1975-79.

His career has been filled with return appearances, rejoining the Astros' organization as Assistant to the General Manager from 1979-82, then returning to the Phillies in 1982 as Executive Assistant in Baseball Operations, and was promoted to Vice President of Baseball Administration in 1983. Siegle spent the majority of the 1989 season as Vice President of Player Personnel for San Diego. He followed that by joining the California Angels as a special assignment scout before going to work for the Giants.

Tony is a graduate of the University of Miami (FL). He and wife, Cynthia, have four children.

Pat Daugherty

Director of Scouting

Pat was one of the initial hires when Colorado was awarded a major league franchise, as his world of air travel and suitcases is in its fifth season as Rockies' Scouting Director. Daugherty's main focus of responsibility is scouting both North and South America in search of baseball talent, which included a wintertime tour of Australia to evaluate the athletes down under. His initial responsibility when joining the Rockies was to assemble and organize a scouting staff to cover the U.S. and Latin America. While supervising his staff, he evaluates amateur talent for the June and Rule V drafts.

The Rockies were the only club in the majors to ink their first 25 selections in the 1995 June draft, duplicating their figure from the initial draft in 1992. Daugherty's staff was able to sign their first 21 selections in 1994, and had 28 of the first 29 chosen in the '93 draft come to terms. The effort expended in the early going is beginning to payoff, as 7 members of the original draft have seen big league duty, while Bryan Rekar, the 2nd choice in the 1993 draft has already logged innings in the majors.

Daugherty joined the Rockies after six seasons as the Scouting Supervisor for the Montreal Expos. In 1990, he also served as manager of the Jamestown club in the New York-Penn League. It was not unusual for him to work two jobs at a time, because while coaching at Indian Hills Community College in Centerville, IA, for 17 years, he spent the last 10 of those seasons also working as a manager or coach in the Expos' chain. His professional baseball career began in 1972 as manager at Cocoa Beach in the Gulf Coast League. He remained on the field for both the Expos and Indian Hills C.C. until '81, when he was named Field Director of Player Development for Montreal.

His collegiate coaching career at Indian Hills began in 1965 after eight seasons as a high school coach in Iowa. He has a distinguished list of amateur baseball honors, including his induction into the Simpson College Hall of Fame, Iowa Coaches Hall of Fame and the National Junior College Hall of Fame.

Daugherty has a B.A. from Simpson College and earned his M.A. at Drake University. He and wife, JoAnn, have four children, daughters, Mary Beth, Ann and Peggy, and son, Mike. The Daugherty's make their home in Aurora.

PLAYER DEVELOPMENT MAN OF THE YEAR

This award is presented to the individual who is involved in player development and exhibits hard work, dedication and complete loyalty to the Rockies organization.

The winners:

1992 Gene Glynn	1993 Paul Zuvella
1994 Billy Champion	1995 Brad Mills

SCOUT OF THE YEAR

The award goes to the scout who displays knowledge of territory, organizational skills, timely reports and dedication to the job and ballclub.

The winners:

1994 Pat Jones	1995 Mike Garlatti

Assistant Director of Player Personnel

Another original member of the Rockies' front office, Paul has already worn a variety of hats on the baseball side, but has now settled in as the Assistant Director of Player Personnel, teaming with Dick Balderson. The 32-year old Georgia native is involved in the procurement of minor league players, administering the minor league affiliates, which includes a club in the Dominican Summer League, and keeping all members of the baseball operations department informed on the progress of every affiliate on a daily basis.

Paul joined the Rockies in 1992 after a stint with the Atlanta Braves, most recently serving as the Assistant Director of Player Development. While with the Braves, he was involved with consecutive National League Championship clubs (1991-92), while assisting the man simply known as "The Hammer." Egins first joined Atlanta's front office as the Assistant to the Director of Player Development and Scouting, working directly under home run king Hank Aaron.

Prior to joining the Braves staff in Atlanta, Egins spent two seasons as the team trainer for the Burlington Braves in the Midwest League. It was not his first experience as a trainer, also working in that role at the University of Georgia and Florida A&M University.

Egins received a B.S. from the University of Georgia in 1986, majoring in Biology. His graduate work at Florida A&M was in Sports Administration. He is single and resides in Denver.

Jay Darnell

Assistant Director of Scouting

Jay's duties have consistently expanded as Pat Daugherty's assistant since assuming the role in the fall of 1993. His responsibilities include the organization of the June Free Agent Draft, assisting with the supervision of all scouting personnel, and scouting free agent prospects in the Rocky Mountain region. He also spends endless hours on the computer, devising new ways to rank the talent pool in professional and amateur baseball.

Prior to his current role, the 30-year old Darnell had been with the organization long before the first game was ever played in club history, joining the club in '92 as the administrator of spring training operations for the original spring camp in Tucson. His responsibilities were of a supervisory capacity over the renovation of Hi Corbett Field and the surrounding practice fields, and the daily operation of the Tucson facility. Upon completion of the exhibition season, he returned to Denver with the team and worked as the video coordinator during the regular season. His responsibilities in his current role also include the supervision of the video work done on the major league level, in addition to video scouting.

This is his ninth season in pro baseball, starting with the '88 season as administrative assistant with the first-year Colorado Springs Sky Sox. From there he joined the Montreal organization, serving as the Assistant General Manager of their West Palm Beach club in the Florida State League. He was also the coordinator of the Winter Instructional League in West Palm that included clubs from the Expos, Braves, Twins and Mets.

A 1983 graduate of Fairview High School in Boulder, he then played junior college baseball at Johnson County Community College in Overland Park, KS. He then returned to his native Boulder and completed his college education with a B.S. in Marketing from the University of Colorado in 1988. He and his wife, Jill, make their home in Littleton.

Peter Durso

Director of Team Travel

Another original, Peter is in his fourth season with the Rockies, and third decade of big league service. The 21-year veteran is in his 17th campaign of assembling the travel plans for a ballclub. It's not as simple as just taking care of the travel, his responsibilities vary from the securing of all airline commitments, arranging the ground transportation in each league city, ensuring that hotel rooms are ready upon arrival, with keys waiting, and the dispensing of meal money to each player and staff member. He is also responsible for the players and staff ticket allotments both at home and on the road.

He also has the task of organizing travel plans and housing needs for players and staff during the six-week stay in Tucson for spring training.

The 45-year old baseball veteran started with the Montreal Expos in 1976, then changed provinces for three years to work for the Toronto Blue Jays, before returning to the Expos in 1980. He joined the Chicago Cubs as their Director of Travel in 1986, remaining there until making the move to Colorado after the 1992 season.

Raised in a sports environment, Peter's father, Joe Durso, is a longtime writer for the New York Times, and during last off-season was named to the National Baseball Hall-of-Fame for his dedicated years of service in the coverage of major league baseball. Peter and his wife, Barbara, reside in Lakewood.

Mike Swanson

Director of Public Relations

Mike Swanson is in his 22nd season of professional sports, joining the Rockies as Public Relations Director during the start-up period in March, 1992. Prior to moving to Colorado, Swanson was the researcher for ESPN's Major League Baseball coverage in 1991, working on the Sunday Night Baseball crew, and assisting on weekday telecasts. From 1984-90, he was on the Media Relations staff of the San Diego Padres, serving as the Director in '90. His baseball front office career began at age 19, when he worked for the Kansas City Royals from 1973-78.

A "number cruncher" in his early years, Swanson has had the good fortune to work virtually every major sporting event in the nation as a television statistician. He spent four seasons with the NFL team of Pat Summerall and John Madden, in addition to working NCAA and NBA basketball. His statistical career started in 1977, when he was offered a position as the booth statistician for Keith Jackson on ABC's College Football telecasts. He served ABC for five years, including several stints with the Monday Night Football crew, before heading to CBS, when they secured the NCAA Basketball package in 1981. All totaled, Swanson has had the best seat in the house at six Final Fours, five Super Bowls, four NFC Championship Games, six Cotton Bowls and three NBA Championships. He has also done basketball and football work for Turner Sports.

Despite the experiences in the TV booth, baseball has been a first love for Swanson since his days at Municipal Stadium in the early '60's, when his mother worked for the old Kansas City A's. The 41-year old attended Longview Community College and the University of Kansas. He and the former Renee Strauch were married prior to the opening of spring training and make their home in Littleton with their yellow lab, Rocky.

Business Officers

Keli McGregor

Senior Vice President - Business Operations

A former football star from the region, Keli returned home and joined the Rockies' front office in October, 1993, as Senior Director of Operations. A quick study, he has made great strides and last winter was promoted to Senior Vice President/Business Operations. He returned to the area after a four-year stint as the Assistant Athletic Director at the University of Arkansas.

A 1984 graduate of Colorado State University in Fort Collins, McGregor was twice an All-American tight end for the Rams, then embarked on a NFL career that spanned three seasons with the Denver Broncos, Indianapolis Colts and Seattle Seahawks.

While at the University of Arkansas he assisted legendary Athletic Director and former football coach, Frank Broyles, who had Keli behind the development of the Bud Walton Arena in Fayetteville, which was the home of the NCAA Basketball Champions during its first-year of operation in 1993-94.

His responsibilities cover the entire business operation of the Rockies, including vendors' contracts and Coors Field issues. He has also become an accomplished speaker on behalf of the ball club, making numerous appearances throughout the region.

Keli and his wife, Lori, added a third daughter to the family last October 7, with the birth of Landri Nicole, to join, Jordan and Taylor. The McGregor's reside in Golden.

Hal Roth

Senior Vice President - Chief Financial Officer

Hal, who joined the Rockies in August, 1993, serves as the Chief Financial Officer and is responsible for overseeing the financial reporting, accounting, tax and treasury functions of the Rockies Baseball Club. He's kept quite busy, also working for Jerry McMorris as the Senior Vice President-Finance & Treasurer for NationsWay Transport Service, Inc.

Prior to joining the Rockies and NationsWay, Hal was a partner with the public accounting firm of Coopers & Lybrand, where he specialized in taxation. Roth holds a B.A. degree from Albion College, an M.B.A. and J.D. from the University of Denver, and LL.M (in Taxation) from New York University. He is also a C.P.A.

Hal and his wife, Connie, and sons, Reilly and Rory, reside in Englewood.

Clark Weaver

Senior Vice President - Corporate Counsel

Clark joined the Rockies in October, 1992, after working for the Hamilton Oil Corporation, when he then handled all of the legal affairs for a publicly-held energy company with its principal assets located in the United Kingdom sector of the North Sea.

A former quarterback at Stanford University, Weaver's responsibilities with the Rockies include supervision of community relations, and club involvement in its many charitable endeavors, in addition to providing ownership with his legal expertise.

A 1969 graduate of the Colorado School of Law, and '64 graduate from Stanford in Political Science, Clark and his wife, Martha, have two daughters and reside in Denver.

Greg Feasel

Vice President - Sales & Marketing

Greg is the newest arrival to the Rockies' front office, joining the organization last December 20, after a seven-year stint with Coca-Cola Enterprises. His most recent duties with Coca-Cola were as Division Director of Sales and Marketing. He is no stranger with the Rockies, working directly with the ball club on their account with Coca-Cola.

A 1981 graduate of Abilene Christian University, Greg joins Keli McGregor as the second V.P. of the club to have a history as a professional football player. Feasel played for three seasons for the Denver Gold in the USFL, then took his career to the NFL for a pair of seasons, playing for the Green Bay Packers and San Diego Chargers.

Realizing there was life after football, Greg began his business career before his playing career ended, working in the off-season as a real estate broker/agent for Coldwell Banker in Denver. He joined Coca-Cola upon completing his playing career in 1988, beginning as a driver and working his way up the corporate ladder. Realizing the value of education, Greg also worked as a high school teacher during his days in Abilene.

Greg and wife, Maylene, make their home in Arvada.

Michael Kent

Vice President - Finance

Michael has been with the Rockies since January, 1992, moving to Colorado after serving as the Controller for the Philadelphia Phillies. He joined the Phils in 1982, after providing accounting services to small businesses for the firm of Deloitte Haskins and Sells.

With the Rockies, Kent is responsible for developing and implementing all controls for accounting, budgeting and operations. The 37-year old earned a B.S. degree in Accounting from Villanova (PA) University in Philadelphia, home of the highly ranked basketball Wildcats.

Michael and his wife, Mary, and son, Jonathan, and daughter, Laura, reside in Highlands Ranch.

Sue Ann McClaren

Vice President - Ticket Operations & Sales

Sue Ann received her second promotion in as many off-seasons, being named to her current title on November 28, 1995. Previously the Assistant V.P./Ticket Operations, McClaren is the first female officer in club history. She came to Colorado in October, 1992, after a 15-year career in varying roles with the St. Louis Cardinals.

A 1977 graduate of William Woods College in Fulton, MO, McClaren then joined the Redbirds in the sales department. She gradually ascended at Busch Stadium, holding roles from secretary to Director of Season Ticket Sales to the Director of Sales.

Her experience includes handling virtually every ticket need, as the Cardinals won three National League pennants, thus participating in the World Series in 1982, 1985 and 1987. She was also on board during the Redbirds' 100th anniversary.

Since joining the Rockies, her responsibilities encompass all phases of the ticket operations, including the original seat placement program in Mile High Stadium and the seat relocation process in Coor Field, and implementation of the post-season policies that came into play for the '95 season.

COLORADO ROCKIES

Ht: 6-1 Wt: 225

Age: 46 (Turns 47 on June 28)

Born: June 28, 1949 in Austin, TX

Residence: LaQuinta, CA

MANAGERIAL CAREER — 1995: An award winning campaign for the third year skipper, raking in the honors for leading the Rockies to post-season action…he was named the National League Manager-of-the-Year by both the BBWAA and The Sporting News…he was also honored by the Washington Touchdown Club at the Timmie Awards, winning their annual baseball award, and he was honored locally by the Colorado Sports Hall-of-Fame at a February banquet…a dream season almost turned nightmare on the final weekend, but the resiliency that had been instilled by his leadership came to the forefront in the season finale, as the Rockies rallied from an 8-2 deficit in the 3rd inning against the Giants to post a 10-9 victory and clinch the first-ever wild card spot in league history…Baylor's squad finished at 77-67, a .535 winning pct., entering post-season play 5 years faster than any other expansion club in history…the Rockies led the N.L. West for 109 of the 144 playing dates, with the lead peaking at 5 games on 10 occasions, while they were never more than 2 games removed from the top spot…the Rockies survived 2 key periods which vaulted them into the post-season…the first test was a 6-game stretch at home in September vs. the other 2 division leaders, and Colorado responded by taking 5 of the contests, sweeping a 3-game set from Cincinnati, then taking 2 of 3 from Atlanta…the Rox then faced a 10-game west coast swing through San Diego, San Francisco and Los Angeles… though the club departed with a 1-game edge in the division, they alternated wins and losses throughout the excursion and returned home 1/2-game behind Los Angeles… that set up the final weekend vs. S.F., and after dropping the first 2, the Rox bounced back to avoid a playoff by taking the remaining pair from the Giants…as for Baylor's maneuvering, his starting staff provided only one complete game all season, thus he went to the bullpen a major league leading 456 times, encompassing nearly 3.2 innings per game…he entered the 1996 season with a lifetime record of 197-226 (.466).

1994: A strike shortened season, the Rockies were 1/2-game off the pace after play on July 28, which coincided with the day that Andres Galarraga had his hand broken…the club didn't recover from the Big Cat's injury, losing 10 of the final 13 games prior to the abrupt end of the season…all totaled, the Rox went 53-64, finishing 6 1/2 games back…during the '94 season, the Rockies became the fastest expansion team to reach the 100-win plateau in baseball history, hitting the century mark on June 22 with a 14-5 victory at home over Houston. 1993: Named October 27, 1992, Don's first-ever managerial test witnessed a ball club that won more games than any previous N.L. expansion team and fell just 3 wins shy of the all-time record, winding up at 67-95…the true test of patience showed in late-July, when the club lost 13 straight…the streak was snapped on August 8 in San Diego, which started a 6-game win skein, including a record setting 4-game sweep of Los Angeles in Dodger Stadium, marking the first time in history that an expansion team took 4 in a row in an established club's park…after August 7, Baylor's bunch posted the 3rd best record in the league, going 31-21, trailing only Atlanta and Montreal in winning pct…in September, the Rockies won 17 games, the most in that month by any expansion team, and matched the most wins ever recorded in any month by a first-year expansion club…the year started with 63 players in uniform in camp and he wound up using 136 different lineups.

COACHING CAREER: Don had served as a hitting coach for 3 years, beginning in 1990, when he served for 2 seasons with the Milwaukee Brewers, then joined St. Louis for 1992…he spent the 1989 campaign as a special assistant to the general manager for the Brewers, his first year after retiring as a player.

PLAYING CAREER: Baylor had a distinguished 19-year major league career, that concluded with 3 consecutive trips to the World Series from 1986-88, and included 7 division titles with 5 clubs...he was a mainstay in Earl Weaver's lineup from 1972-75 in Baltimore...prior to the start of the '76 season, Baylor was involved in one of the blockbuster trades of the '70s, going to the Oakland A's with Mike Torrez and Paul Mitchell in exchange for Reggie Jackson, Ken Holtzman and Bill Van Bommel...Baylor chose free agency after one season with the A's, remaining on the West coast, signing with the California Angels...his best overall campaign was 1979, when he earned the A.L. Most Valuable Player award, while the Angels won their first of 2 Western Division titles...he also garnered The Sporting News A.L. Player-of-the-Year award...he finished '79 hitting .296, with 36 homers, and league leading totals in runs (120) and RBI (139)...he remained with the Angels until signing as a free agent with the N.Y. Yankees prior to the '83 season... he was dealt to Boston in the spring of '86, helping the BoSox to the World Series that fall, though losing in 7 games to the Mets...on August 31, 1987, Baylor was traded to Minnesota, where he won the World Series with the Twins...it was there that Bob Gebhard, who was an executive with the Twins at the time, had his first experience with Don Baylor, recognizing his leadership qualities...prior to '88, he was signed by the Oakland A's, and to continue a trend, he went to the World Series, though losing in 6 games to the Dodgers...he has the distinction of being hit by more pitches in major league baseball history, taking it on the chin, shoulder, knee, ribs, etc., 267 times, shattering the A.L. record of 189, which was held by Minnie Minoso, and the N.L. mark of 243, originally held by Ron Hunt...Baylor had double figures in hit by pitches in 14 different seasons, including the A.L. record of 35 in 1986.

PERSONAL: Don Edward Baylor...he and wife, Becky, make their off-season home in LaQuinta, CA...he has a son, Don, Jr., who was a 1994 graduate of Georgetown University, and is currently pursuing his Master's at the University of Wisconsin...a native of Austin, TX, Baylor was a standout high school baseball and football player at Stephen F. Austin H.S., but then-University of Texas football coach, Darrell Royal, made Baylor's athletic choice for him...the veteran coach would not let the young athlete play both sports at U.T., so Baylor decided to sign a professional contract with the Baltimore Orioles in 1967, which turned into a prosperous move for the sport of baseball...he attended Miami-Dade Junior College (FL), and Blinn Junior College (TX)...when not in uniform, Baylor is one of the more active community representatives of baseball...while playing for the Angels, he established the "65 Roses Club," a charitable organization to assist the Cystic Fibrosis Foundation...for the last 17 years, he has hosted an annual golf tournament in Southern California to raise money for the foundation, putting nearly a quarter of a million dollars in the coffers over the last 2 years and raising the all time total to well over $6 million...he also co-hosted a similar tournament with Dante Bichette last summer in Denver, raising over $80,000 for C.F...Baylor was the 1985 recipient of the Roberto Clemente Award, symbolic of the player who best exemplified the qualities of the late Pittsburgh outfielder, both on and off the field...he also works with the Ronald McDonald House.

Pitching Coach

COLORADO ROCKIES

Ht: 6-0 Wt: 190

Age: 60 (Turns 61 on August 30)

Born: August 30, 1935 in Washington, D.C.

Residence: Tempe, AZ

COACHING CAREER: Frank joins the big league staff with the Rockies after three seasons as pitching coach for the AAA affiliate in Colorado Springs...he will not be a stranger to the majority of the staff, either tutoring them during his time with the Sky Sox or in spring training the last three years...this season is Funk's 42nd year in professional baseball, playing for 14 years followed by 28 as a manager/coach...his tenure at Colorado Springs saw many a hurler come through the clubhouse, starting with the '93 campaign, when the organization sent 29 different pitchers to work on the AAA level...he has also been instrumental in working with major leaguers who have been sent to AAA over the first three seasons, either to work on mechanics or to rehab a disabling injury...prior to joining this organization, Funk spent two seasons in the Cincy chain, working as pitching coach in 1992 at Nashville (AAA), and managing Cedar Rapids (A) in 1991...from 1988-90, Frank was the big league pitching tutor for Kansas City, working with Bret Saberhagen when he won the Cy Young Award (1989) and Kevin Appier when he was named the A.L. Rookie Pitcher-of-the-Year (1990)... Funk joined the K.C. organization in 1985, managing the Eugene club to a division title and earning Northwest League Manager-of-the-Year honors...he was then the pitching coach for two years at Omaha (AAA), also managing 73 games in 1986 and 8 more in '87 when the hired manager had been promoted to the big leagues...Frank was a member of the Seattle's big league coaching staff from 1980-81 and 1983-84, and got his first taste of big league coaching in 1976 with San Francisco...in the interim, he was an organizational pitching coach for the Giants in 1974...he began his non-playing role in baseball in 1969, managing Decatur for 3 seasons.

PLAYING CAREER: Frank had a 14-year career on the hill, spending 2 full seasons in the majors and portions of 2 others...his career began in 1954 with Mayfield, and 7 years and 7 other minor league stops later, he earned his first big league action with Cleveland in 1960...Funk sparkled as a reliever that year, going 4-2 with a save and 1.97 ERA in 9 outings...he was impressive enough to stick with the major league club the entire '61 season, going 11-11 with a 3.33 ERA in 56 games, while posting 11 saves...Frank rescued 6 more games in 47 appearances in 1962, going 2-1 with a 3.22 ERA...his last big league duty took place in '63 with the Milwaukee Braves, going 3-3 with a 2.66 ERA in 25 games...he spent half of the 1964 campaign pitching for the Denver Bears, as his playing career wound down with 4 seasons of minor league duty.

PERSONAL: Franklin Ray (Frank) Funk...he and wife, Susan, make their off-season home in Tempe, AZ...they have three children, daughter, Roberta, and sons, David and James...Frank was a participant in the Rockies' Winter Caravan this January, visiting Denver, Grand Junction, Billings, MT, Albuquerque, and Steamboat Springs.

Ht: 5-9 Wt: 165

Age: 39 (Turns 40 on September 22)

Born: September 22, 1956 in Waseca, MN

Residence: Littleton, CO

COACHING CAREER: One of the original uniformed hires for the Rockies, Gene returns for what amounts to his third season as part of the big league coaching staff...while working at third base on Don Baylor's staff this year, he will also be coaching baserunning and infielders...he was the Rockies first base coach in the strike-shortened '94 season, then returned to his role as minor league coordinator at the outset of 1995, but with the resignation of Don Zimmer, Glynn was summoned back to the big leagues to resume his role at first base...though he has no big league experience in the third base coaching box, he has plenty of experience on that side of the field...he worked there during a minor league managerial career that included a year in the Rockies' chain...Gene was the first manager in organizational history, taking the Bend (OR) Rockies to the Northwest League playoffs in their first year of existence in 1992...a team made up of the original draft in Rockies' history, they went 43-33 in winning the Southern Division title...prior to the opening of the Bend season, Glynn was the supervisor of the first mini-camp in organizational history, as the initial group of draftees and signees got together at Denver University before receiving their mid-summer assignments...the Northwest League was not unchartered territory for Gene, who managed at Spokane for 2 seasons while working in the San Diego organization...prior to going to the Padres, he had spent his entire professional career with the Montreal chain, starting as a player, then climbing the ladder as a coach and minor league manager...as a player, Glynn was a non-drafted free agent, signing with the Expos in 1979 and playing for 7 seasons in the minors, including 3 stops at the AAA level...he was a player/coach in 1985, working and playing for current Expos' manager Felipe Alou at Indianapolis...Gene then managed for 2 seasons at Jamestown (A), and served for a season as a coach at Jacksonville (AA).

PERSONAL: Eugene Patrick (Gene) Glynn...he and wife, Julie, have two sons, Gino (10/27/86), and Christopher (3/21/90) and have made the move to Colorado, making their off-season home in Littleton...Gene graduated from Mankato State University in his hometown, where he hit .384 during his senior campaign, swiping 32 bases...an outstanding instructor, Gene has been used extensively in organizing camps, including various clinics around the Denver area, and clinics involving the Rockies' Winter Caravan...he spent the '94 off-season managing the Maui Stingrays of the Hawaii Winter League.

Residence: West Chester, OH

COACHING CAREER: Ken joined the Rockies as both the batting and outfielder coach, in addition to being assigned to the first base coaching box during the games...he came over from the Seattle chain, where he coached on both the major and minor league levels...after retiring as an active player following the '91 season, he worked as a part-time television analyst and special assistant for player development for the Mariners...he spent the 1993 season as the major league batting coach, then served as roving hitting and outfield instructor in their minor league chain in '94...last year, Griffey was the hitting coach at Tacoma, the Mariners' AAA affiliate in the P.C.L.

PLAYING CAREER: He may be the father of one of the current active superstars in the game, Ken, Jr., but Ken, Sr., posted some impressive numbers and credentials during his 19 years of major league action...after 4 years of minor league ball that began in 1969, Griffey was called to Cincinnati for the tail end of the 1973 season, impressing all involved with a .384 mark in 25 games, earning a spot on the Reds' postseason roster and participating in 3 games of the NLCS vs. the Mets...he split the '74 season between the Reds and AAA, then became the everyday rightfielder for Cincinnati in 1975...he tied an NLCS record with 3 stolen bases in the 2nd game of the series against Pittsburgh, on the way to the Reds' 3-0 sweep of the Pirates...he was part of all 7 games in Cincinnati's wild World Series victory over the Red Sox, hitting .269 with 4 RBI...he followed that with an eventful 1976, battling Bill Madlock for the N.L. batting title, and finishing 2nd with a .336 mark, a mere 3 points behind the winner...he was named to his first of 3 trips to the All-Star Game, then picked up a 2nd straight World Series ring playing in all 4 games of the sweep of the Yankees...the 1980 season witnessed a career-high 85 RBI in earning Cincy's team MVP honors...he was also tabbed "Most Valuable" in the All-Star Game in San Diego, going 2-for-3 with a homer...he picked up his 1,000th career hit on July 19, 1980 vs. the Mets...Ken was traded to the Yankees following the '81 season, and teamed with Rockies' manager Don Baylor from 1983-85...he made all of the highlight reels on August 19, 1985, robbing Boston's Marty Barrett of what would have been a game-tying home run by reaching over the Yankee Stadium wall in leftfield to pull one back...Griffey hammered his 100th career home run on September 22, 1985 in Baltimore...he was traded from the Yankees to Atlanta on June 29, 1986, in exchange for Claudell Washington and current coach-mate, Paul Zuvella...Ken was in the midst of a 9-game streak at the time of the deal, then hit safely in his first 10 games with the Braves for a 19-game streak...his good impression with Atlanta continued on July 22, homering 3 times in a game vs. the Phillies...Ken was the best pinch-hitter in the National League in 1987, going 11-for-18 (.611) with 8 RBI...he also set a club record for fielding pct. by a leftfielder with a .995 mark...he reached the 2,000th career hit mark on July 14, 1988 vs. New York...he was released by the Braves just 2 weeks later, but signed by Cincinnati 5 days after leaving Atlanta...he appeared in 177 games over 3 seasons upon his return to the Reds, but was released on August 18, 1990, then signed with Seattle 11 days later...he started his first game with the Mariners in leftfield, alongside his son in centerfield, on August 31 vs. Kansas City...he singled in his first at bat off Storm Davis, which was followed immediately by a single from Ken Jr....Ken Sr. was named the A.L. Player-of-the-Week for September 3-9 by hitting .362 (12-for-19) with 7 RBI, the only time he earned weekly league honors in his playing career...September 14, 1990 was a red-letter day in the Griffey family, as he and his son hit back-to-back homers at California off Kirk McCaskill...Ken Sr., missed the majority of the 1991 season with a herniated disk in his back, beginning the year on the D.L. due to a neck injury that was incurred in a car accident in spring training...he was activated on April 16, hitting his final major league homer on May 6 off the Yankees' Tim Leary...recurring pain forced him back to the disabled list a month later, then eventually underwent surgery on September 11 to repair a bulging disk...Ken retired as an active player on November 4, ending a 19-year playing career that included a home run against every major league club except Cleveland.

PERSONAL: George Kenneth (Ken) Griffey...he and wife, Alberta, have 3 children, sons, Ken Jr. (11/21/69), and Craig (6/3/71), and daughter, Lathesia (6/18/72)...when Junior appeared with the Mariners in 1989, they became the first father-son combination to play in the majors at the same time, then on August 31, 1990, the appeared in the same lineup for the first time...Ken Sr. was a 1969 graduate of Donora (PA) High School, lettering in baseball, basketball, football and track...his other son, Craig, was a defensive back at Ohio State University before signing a baseball contract with Seattle.

COLORADO ROCKIES

Ht: 6-0 Wt: 180

Age: 57

Born: February 19, 1939 in Jay, FL

Residence: Arlington, TX

MANAGING/COACHING CAREER: Jackie serves the Rockies as the bench coach, returning to big league duty after a year away from the game...in '95, he supervised the free agent spring camp in Homestead, FL, getting unsigned players ready for action...he was most recently part of the Texas Rangers coaching staff, working as their dugout coach in 1993-94, his 3rd stint with the Rangers...he was also on their staff as a 1st and 3rd base coach from 1973-76, and returned as 3rd base coach in 1980...his time with the Rangers included coaching stints under Whitey Herzog and Billy Martin...his big league coaching career commenced in 1970 with Milwaukee for 3 seasons before joining Texas...he then went to the Toronto Blue Jays when they became an existing franchise in 1977, working for 3 years...after a season back in Texas, Jackie was hired by the Oakland A's as a coach (1981-84), followed by a stint as their manager...he was at the helm of the Athletics over the course of 3 seasons, taking over with 118 games to go in 1984, then working the entire '85 campaign, followed by a 73-game stint in 1986...his 1985 A's finished 77-85, good for 4th in the A.L. West, and wound up his first big league managerial stint with a 163-190 ledger...Moore returned to coaching in 1987, serving as the 3rd base coach in Montreal through the '89 campaign...that was followed by a trip to Cincinnati, where he worked as the dugout coach from 1990-92, a stop that included a World Series title in his first year with the Reds...he had a minor league managing career that began in 1968, his first year removed from playing, going 31-44 with Jamestown in the NY-Penn League...he also worked there in '69, then made the coaching jump to the majors...his mid-70's coaching stint in Texas was briefly interrupted with a managing position at Pittsfield in 1975, but he was summoned back to the Rangers on July 22, when Frank Lucchesi was named manager.

PLAYING CAREER: A former catcher and outfielder, Jackie's playing career began in 1957 and spanned 11 seasons in the Detroit and Boston chains...he had one stint in the big leagues, spending the majority of the '65 season with the Tigers, including an opening day start, but finished with just 21 games played...his playing career started with Montgomery in '57 and included a pair of stops in Denver, playing for the Bears for parts of the 1961-62 seasons...his lone year in the Red Sox chain was 1967 with Toronto, topping the International League catchers with a .994 fielding pct.

PERSONAL: Jackie Spencer Moore...he and wife, JoAnn, have two sons, Spencer (7/9/85) and Johnathon (3/24/88), and make their off-season home in Arlington, TX...a Texan at heart, Jackie played baseball and football at St. Thomas High School in Houston from 1955-56, then played at Bellaire High in 1957, where he graduated...he earned All-State honors for his baseball efforts...he was the "player-to-be-named" to complete a deal on October 13, 1966, going from Detroit to Boston to complete a deal that made Bill Monboquette a Tiger.

Paul Zuvella
Bullpen Coach

Ht: 6-0 Wt: 178

Age: 37 (Turns 38 on October 31)

Born: October 31, 1958 in San Mateo, CA

Residence: San Ramon, CA

MANAGING/COACHING CAREER: The 1996 season is Paul's first stint as a coach at any level, but he has managed, in fact, upon completion of his playing career after the 1991 season, he joined the Rockies' organization as a minor league manager, working for 4 years...he has spent the last 2 seasons at the helm of the New Haven Ravens in the Eastern League, leading them to the playoffs in each season, making it to the league finals last year...his club finished second in the Southern Division with an overall mark of 79-63, then eliminated Portland, the top team in the league during the regular season, 3 games to 2, thus reaching the championship round against Reading...the Ravens succumbed to Reading in the finals, losing the series 3 games to 1...his initial year at New Haven in 1994 was the first season the Rockies possessed a AA club, as he led the Ravens to a 77-63 mark before being eliminated in the first round of the post-season...Paul was named the Rockies' Player Development Man-of-the-Year in 1993, for his managerial effort at Central Valley (A) in Visalia, CA of the California League...his first managing test after 12-year playing career was with the Rockies' short-season club in Mesa of the Arizona Rookie League in 1992, where he managed a group of young players made up from both the Colorado and Chicago Cubs' organizations.

PLAYING CAREER: For years he was the last name in the Baseball Register, and continues to hold the next-to-last spot in the Baseball Encyclopedia, spending 12 years as a player, including major league stops in Atlanta, New York (AL) and Cleveland...Zuvella was drafted in the 11th round as a junior out of Stanford University by the Milwaukee Brewers in 1979, but chose to remain in school for his senior season...he was then selected in '80 by the Atlanta Braves, signing as a 15th round pick...a shortstop for the majority of his playing career, he got his first cup of coffee with Atlanta in 1982, appearing in 2 games...Paul found his way into 3 big league games the following year, then 11 contests in 1984, before playing in half of the Braves' contests in 1985, working at 3 different infield positions...this year is Zuvella's first in the same uniform with fellow coach Ken Griffey, but they were traded for each other on June 30, 1986, sending Zuvella and Claudell Washington to the Yanks... while receiving just part-time work in the majors, Paul made the most of his minor league time, earning spots in 5 different All-Star Games, including 3 times in the International League, and once each in the PCL and American Association...he was Atlanta's Minor League Player-of-the-Year for his 1984 campaign, hitting .303 in 127 games for Richmond while leading all International League shortstops in defensive stats...he is no stranger to this region, playing for 2 years at Colorado Springs (1988-89) when the Sky Sox were the AAA affiliate of the Cleveland Indians.

PERSONAL: Paul Zuvella...he and wife, Laurie, have two sons Shane (1/28/87) and Kyle (4/4/89), and make their off-season home in San Ramon, CA...Paul is a native of San Mateo, CA, graduating from Samuel Ayer High School in Milpitas, CA, in 1976...from there he went to The Farm, graduating in 1980 with a degree in communications from Stanford University...he has shown an interest in working on the radio and television side of baseball, including a game during the 1993 season, when he served as a color analyst on a Rockies' telecast.

Behind The Seams

Dave Cilladi

Head Athletic Trainer

Dave is in his fourth year as the Rockies head man in the training room, and with assistant Tom Probst, they have been exceptional at getting the "walking wounded" back on the playing field. His strong suit is his ability to rehabilitate injuries in hopes of preventing surgery. A major project last year was the process on Bruce Ruffin's elbow injury, working the injured area sufficiently to allow his return for the pennant race portion of the schedule. Dave entered the spring of '96 rehabing the right shoulder of Bret Saberhagen in hopes of avoiding season-ending surgery.

The move into Coors Field has enhanced Cilladi's training regimen, with a spacious facility, which includes an underwater rehab pool, whirlpool and a spa. Cilladi's knowledge of underwater rehabilitation expedited Andres Galarraga's return to the lineup on a couple of occasions in 1993, as he won the N.L. batting title despite a hamstring tear and knee ligament damage. The facility has also given the staff an opportunity to work with injured players during the off-season.

Dave joined the Rockies from the Chicago Cubs, where he had worked on the major league level since 1986. He began in their chain in 1985 at Peoria, the Class A affiliate. He was a 1984 graduate of Penn State University, serving as trainer for the Nittany Lions' football, basketball and gymnastics teams.

Twice his work has taken him overseas, traveling to Holland and the Czech Republic with Major League Baseball International to assist with a series of clinics involving current major league managers and coaches prior to the '94 season, 10 years after touring Europe as athletic trainer for the Athletes in Action basketball team.

Cilladi is a member of the National Athletic Trainers Association, the Illinois Athletic Trainers Association and the Pennsylvania Athletic Trainers Association. He was married during the recent off-season, and he and Jamie and son, Stephen reside in Arvada.

Tom Probst

Assistant Athletic Trainer

Tom was one of the original hires when the organization began competing on a minor league level in 1992. His duties began with the June mini-camp, as he prepped and served as trainer for the first group of draftees in team history. He followed the majority of that group to Bend (OR), where Gene Glynn managed them to a post-season appearance. Since that Rockies' debut in the Northwest League, Tom has been the assistant in the major league training room since the club's inception.

He assists Dave Cilladi in the day-to-day training regimen with the major league club, which now features a handful of players from that original group in Bend, OR, in 1992. That year marked a return to professional baseball training for T.P., who originally spent five seasons in the Montreal organization dating back to 1981. He left baseball for a period, working for three years as Chief Physical Therapist of the Sports Medicine department at Bethesda Memorial Hospital in Boynton Beach, FL.

A native of Minnesota, he attended Brainerd High School, then earned a degree in Physical Education from Mankato State University in 1981. In '88, he received a B.S. in Physical Therapy from Florida International University in Miami.

Tom and wife, Gina, welcomed their newest family member with the birth of Daniel Warren just prior to the opening of spring training last year. T.P. is also a horse owner, and can often be found at the stable during his time away from the ballpark. The Probst family make their home in Littleton.

Dan McGinn

Equipment Manager

The 1996 season might be the closest thing to routine that Dan "Chico" McGinn faces in his four-year stint with the Rockies. Upon joining the organization from the Minnesota Twins prior to the '93 campaign, Chico had to start from scratch, ordering everything associated with dressing and getting equipment for the 63 hopefuls who came to Tucson for the initial spring training camp. His first two seasons were a storage nightmare, with the Rockies spending the regular season at Mile High Stadium, but not having a place to house equipment during the off-season. Then came the '95 season, when all of the minor leaguers were present for the opening of spring training, then upon the return to Denver, it was time for the Rockies to move into Coors Field, thus time to familiarize himself and staff with the new facility.

His responsibilities include ordering every piece of equipment, contacting all players regarding individual needs in shoes, bats and uniform sizes. McGinn is also in charge of making sure all equipment and luggage is packed and transported properly to spring training, as well as to every N.L. city during the regular season. He also assembles an equipment room staff that includes an assistant and the bat boys who work every home game, in addition to providing clean uniforms every time the club takes the field, and making sure the players are properly fed after each contest.

A 29-year old Minnesota native, Dan was a 2-year basketball letterman at Minnetonka High School. He and wife, Jane, reside in Englewood, CO.

Mark Wilbert

Strength & Conditioning Coordinator

Mark is in his second full season, after assisting the training staff on a part-time basis in 1994. He also attends the majority of spring training and travels with the club in season. The 33-year old Wilbert also spent the majority of the off-season at Coors Field, supervising the conditioning regimen of players who make the winter homes in the Denver area.

Mark spent seven years with the Air Force as a strength and conditioning program director, primarily serving the Lowry and Buckley AFB populations. He graduated from the University of Kentucky in 1985 with a B.S. in Biology, then earned an M.S. in Exercise Physiology from Chapman University in 1992. Mark and wife, Marta, make their home in Aurora.

Dr. Wayne Gersoff

Orthopedic Surgeon

Dr. Wayne Gersoff has been with the Rockies since the beginning as one of the two specific physicians who tend to the ballclub, his role including that of orthopedic surgery. No stranger to athletic medicine, he and Dr. Andy Motz operate the Colorado Orthopedic and Sports Clinic at Rose Medical Center.

An avid sports fan, Dr. Gersoff worked with the International League champion Denver Grizzlies Hockey Club during the winter of 1994-95. It was not his first work with pucks, also working with the U.S. Olympic Ice Hockey and Ski Jumping teams, as well as being the medical director for the Colorado Winter Games. He has also worked with the University of Colorado athletic program in recent years.

Dr. Gersoff is a graduate of State University of New York and Yale's New Haven Hospital. He and wife, Mimi, have a daughter, Anya (3/15/94).

Dr. Allen Schreiber

Internist

Dr. Schreiber is an original member of the Rockies' medical team, splitting time with Dr. Gersoff between spring training and all home games. He has a wealth of internal medicine knowledge, currently the Assistant Clinical Professor of the Department of Medicine, Division of Gastroenterology at the University of Colorado Medical School.

When not assisting the Rockies, Dr. Schreiber can be found at "Big Mac" tending to the Denver Nuggets' medical needs as their team physician, and has also extended into hockey, working with the NHL's Colorado Avalanche.

He graduated Cum Laude in 1973 from Johns Hopkins University in Baltimore, MD, then graduated from New York Medical College in 1976, earning the Sam Spiegal Award as Valedictorian, and the David Spiro Award for excellence in Pathology.

Dr. Schreiber and wife, Lisa, have a son, David, and daughters, Jillian and Arielle.

Todd Maulding

Bullpen Catcher

To fans who have followed the National League, the name Todd Maulding might actually ring a bell, though he has never taken a swing or caught a pitch in a major league game. He is in his second season with the Rockies, but the '96 campaign is his 14th assisting in a major league bullpen. Prior to joining the Rockies, he spent the 1983-94 seasons with the Los Angeles Dodgers. Responsibilities are many for the 31-year old Maulding, who not only catches in the bullpen, but also throws batting practice on a daily basis and is responsible for having the baseballs counted and ready to go for daily work.

A 1983 graduate of Lakewood (CA) High School, he was hired immediately as a 17-year old by the Dodgers, and has been in the bullpen with some of the best hurlers in baseball over the years. He was fortunate enough to be in the pen with a trio of N.L. West division winning clubs, including the World Champion Dodgers of 1988.

Todd and wife, Misty, make the year-round home in Parker, CO.

Garvin Alston
Righthanded Pitcher

Ht: 6-1 Wt: 185 B/T: R/R
Age: 24 (Turns 25 on December 8)
Born: December 8, 1971 in Mt. Vernon, NY
Residence: Mt. Vernon, NY
M.L. Service: 12 days

HOW OBTAINED: Selected in the 10th round of the 1992 June Free Agent Draft.

1995 HIGHLIGHTS: Garvin kind of got his first taste of the big leagues, but then, kind of didn't...he made the expanded major league roster after the shortened spring, but was not employed in a regular season game...when Lance Painter was deemed healthy from an ankle sprain, Alston was optioned to AA on May 6, and made his first appearance for New Haven on May 8...his role was mainly that as set-up for closer Jacob Viano, but Garvin was also given his opportunities to wrap-up games...he was not scored upon through his first 6 outings, recording a save while giving up only 4 hits and no walks with 8 strikeouts covering 7.1 innings of relief...wildness contributed to a loss in his next outing, walking 4 in 2.2 innings, as a run scored without the luxury of a hit...May was his best overall month, working in 11 games, allowing just 6 hits and 2 earned runs in 15.1 innings for a 1.17 ERA...from June 5-10, he went win-save-win in consecutive appearances, giving up 2 hits in a total of 4.0 innings...originally a starter when drafted in 1992, this was the first season he did not have a starting assignment appearing in 47 games...he finished the year with 6 saves, with half of those coming in July...Garvin excelled at keeping the ball in the yard, surrendering only one homer in 66.2 innings of work, that coming on the road on June 24 at Canton-Akron in his 21st appearance, then did not allow a bomb in his last 37.2 innings of action...he gave up 47 hits on the year, keeping opposing hitters below the "Mendoza Line" with an overall .199 mark...he appeared in 4 games during the postseason for the Ravens, working a scoreless inning in the series vs. Portland, but getting roughed up for 5 earned runs in 2.2 innings, covering 3 games vs. Reading.

CAREER HIGHLIGHTS: 1994—Drafted and signed as a starter, Garvin made a mid-season switch to the bullpen which proved beneficial...he was 3-8 through 13 starts and in a 7-game losing streak, when he was moved to the pen at Central Valley, and improved his numbers...after 5 uneventful relief appearances, Garvin went through a 14-game stretch in which he recorded 2 wins and 8 saves (June 29-July 27), posting a 1.13 ERA in that span (2 ER in 16.0 IP)...Alston was promoted to AA for the conclusion of the season, making 4 relief appearances at New Haven. 1993—Garvin's first taste of the California League resulted in a 5-9 ledger in 25 outings (24 starts) with Central Valley...he topped the staff in starts, while ranking 3rd in innings pitched (117.0). 1992—His first season as a pro, Alston was a member of the Rockies' charter club in Bend (OR), posting a 5-4 mark and 3.95 ERA in 14 games (12 starts) for the Northwest League Rockies...he had a 9.0 strikeout to 9-inning ratio, fanning exactly 73 men in as many innings of work.

PERSONAL: Garvin James Alston...he is single and resides in his native Mt. Vernon, NY...he was a 1989 graduate of Mt. Vernon High School, lettering in baseball...he then headed south, earning a Criminal Justice degree at Florida International University in Miami, FL...has spent the last two winters pitching, working most recently in the Arizona Fall League, working in 7 games for the Scottsdale Scorpions last fall...he spent the winter of '94 hurling for the Maui Stingrays...Garvin's cousin, Dell Alston, logged some major league time in the late-70's with the Yankees, Oakland and Cleveland Indians.

Ivan Arteaga
Righthanded Pitcher

COLORADO ROCKIES

Ht: 6-2 Wt: 227 B/T: L/R
Age: 23 (Turns 24 on July 20)
Born: July 20, 1972 in Puerto Cabello, VZ
Residence: Puerto Cabello, VZ
M.L. Service: None

HOW OBTAINED: Acquired with pitcher Rod Pedraza from the Montreal Expos in exchange for infielder Freddie Benavides, January 7, 1994.

1995 HIGHLIGHTS: A frustrating season as Ivan made just 14 appearances for New Haven, including 11 starts...periodic stiffness in his right shoulder plagued him throughout the season, and delayed his first regular season game until May 23 when he started vs. Binghamton, allowing 5 runs on 4 hits in an inning of work...Ivan was on a strict pitch-count in the early going never working past 3.2 innings in any of his first 6 outings...on July 18, Arteaga finally made it far enough into a game that he was able to post a win, and it was an impressive performance at that, working 5.1 hitless innings at home against Harrisburg, walking 3 and fanning 2...after a setback in his next appearance, Ivan bounced back with 5.1 frames at home vs. Binghamton, giving up only 3 hits to gain his final victory of the year...he shut it down after an August 20 loss at Reading, and had his shoulder scoped to clean out the affected area.

CAREER HIGHLIGHTS: 1994—His first year in the Rockies' organization was also his first of two seasons in New Haven (AA)...he pitched into the 7th inning in 17 of his 24 starts, including a streak of 11 in a row (May 11-July 3)...on 9 occasions, he made it into the 8th frame...he had back-to-back outings in mid-June, blanking the opposition each time out, working 7.0 innings of 3-hit ball vs. Reading, followed by an 8.0 inning stint at Trenton, surrendering just 2 hits...the opposition had just a .223 batting average vs. Ivan which ranked 6th lowest among all AA & AAA starters. 1993—Started season at Burlington, where he started slowly not posting a win until his 4th start when he tossed a 7-inning complete game at South Bend on May 5, while fanning 9...in his remaining starts, he fanned 7 or more hitters on 9 occasions, including a season-best 10 K's on June 15...he finished the year with 4 starts at West Palm Beach. 1992—Did not play in the U.S., but worked out with the Expos' Venezuelan Baseball Academy, because his eligibility in the Dominican League expired...he did participate in the Florida Instructional League, where he was impressive enough to earn a spot on the Expos' 40-man roster...pitched at Magallanes of the Venezuelan Winter League, splitting time between starting and relief. 1991—1st year as a pitcher after originally signing as a 1st baseman, and led the Dominican League in ERA (1.91) and was tied for 1st in complete games (3). 1990—Final year as a position player, he matched his .241 average of the previous season, leading the Dominican League in walks (52). 1989—Signed with the Expos as a 1st baseman, hitting .241 in 25 games in the Dominican League.

PERSONAL: Ivan Jose Arteaga...he and wife, Berlis, make their off-season home in Puerto Cabello, VZ...he was raised a fan of his current teammate and former Expo, Andres Galarraga...Arteaga was signed as a non-drafted free agent on May 11, 1989.

38 Roger Bailey

Righthanded Pitcher

COLORADO ROCKIES

Ht: 6-1 Wt: 180 B/T: R/R
Age: 25 (Turns 26 on October 3)
Born: October 3, 1970 in Chattahoochee, FL
Residence: Englewood, CO
M.L. Service: 130 days

HOW OBTAINED: Selected in the 3rd round of the 1992 June Free Agent Draft.

1995 HIGHLIGHTS: Roger bypassed AAA ball at the outset of the '95 season, opening the campaign on the Rockies big league staff...he was touched for a pair of runs in 0.1 of an inning in his major league debut on April 27 vs. the Mets, then 5 days later on May 2, he posted career win #1, retiring all 7 men he faced in a 2.1 inning stint vs. San Diego in Coors Field, taking a 6-5 win in 11 innings...it didn't take long to collect big league win #2, as Roger worked 1.1 frames of 1-hit relief the next afternoon to post a 12-7 victory...he established a career-best and a relief standard for '95 with 5 strikeouts in a 4.0 inning performance in Pittsburgh on May 27...a 4-game losing streak haunted Bailey over a 16-outing stretch from May 20-July 1, snapping the dry spell with an inning of work at home on July 3 to take a 15-10 decision over Houston... after being roughed up in a 1.2 inning outing vs. Montreal on July 7 (5 runs, 4 earned), he was optioned to Colorado Springs, the first taste of AAA action in his career...after making just 3 starts for the Sky Sox, Bailey was recalled to the majors a month to the day, rejoining the Rockies on August 7...it was at that point that he began working as a starter, winning each of his first 4 starting assignments, beginning with a 12-5 win at home over Chicago on August 17...he went 8.0 innings in that affair, allowing 5 runs on 9 hits...all totaled as a starter, Roger was 4-1 with a 4.91 ERA in 6 outings...he wound up with a 5-2 ledger in Coors Field, but a bit inflated 6.65 ERA, while going just 2-4 on the road, with a more reasonable 2.80 ERA...at the plate, Bailey picked up a pair of hits, with his first big league knock coming on August 23 at home off the Pirates' Denny Neagle...Roger was eligible but did not perform in the post-season series against Atlanta.

CAREER HIGHLIGHTS: 1994—Roger's first stint on the AA level going 9-9 in 25 games (24 starts) for New Haven...the year began with a 2-5 ledger through 9 starts, but he leveled that out with a 5-2 stretch over the next 9 trips to the hill...included in his 5-2 streak was a 3-game winning streak in which he posted a 0.73 ERA, (2 ER in 24.2 IP)...that included a 1-hit performance at home, a 5-0 win over Reading on July 13...his final win came in his only relief work prior to '95, going an inning on September 4 in a win over Albany...his 159.0 innings ranked 2nd on the club to Juan Acevedo...he fanned at least 8 hitters in a game 4 times, including consecutive starts on July 6 & 13...Roger surrendered 8 home runs in his first 15 mound appearances, covering 90.1 IP for a homer allowed every 6.0 innings, but he was not taken deep in his last 10 appearances, a span of 68.2 innings. 1993—Roger was a late-starter in '93, spraining his right elbow in spring training with the big league club as an invitee, and not working in Central Valley until May 6...once he was able to work, he made 22 starts, going 4-7 with a 4.84 ERA. 1992—Another of the class of '92 draftees who's professional career kicked off in Bend (OR), Roger posted a 5-2 mark in 11 starts...he lost his first 2 pro decisions, covering 4 starts, but ended the year on a 5-game winning streak that lowered his final ERA to 2.20, 4th best in the Northwest League...his season ended with 3 consecutive 8-inning performances, giving up just 12 hits and 2 earned runs for a 0.75 ERA.

PERSONAL: Charles Roger (Roger) Bailey...a native of Chattahoochee, FL, he and wife, Andrea, made their off-season home in the Denver area last winter, with each working in a variety of charity roles for the ballclub, including Roger's participation in the Winter Caravan...he was a 3-sport letterman at Chattahoochee High School, lettering in baseball, basketball and football...on the diamond, he was 11-2 with a 1.09 ERA, fanning 170 in 80.0 innings as a senior...Roger then went to Florida State, going 35-8 in 3 seasons, including a freshman record of 9-1...he was named a 2nd team All-American for his junior season, going 15-5.

6 Jason Bates

Infielder

Ht: 5-10 Wt: 185 B/T: S/R

Age: 25

Born: January 5, 1971 in Downey, CA

Residence: Englewood, CO

M.L. Service: 160 days

HOW OBTAINED: Selected in the 7th round of the 1992 June Free Agent Draft.

1995 HIGHLIGHTS: Jason made the most of his first season as a major leaguer, going from start to finish with the Rockies, including an extended period as the starting 2nd baseman…he went to spring training with a shot at sharing the 3rd base role with Vinny Castilla, but lost out on that role…Bates' big league debut came in the season opener on April 26 at home against the Mets, entering as a defensive replacement in the 9th inning of the 14-inning marathon, and going 0-for-2 with a walk…his first big league hit came the next afternoon, an infield single off Josias Manzanillo, that also brought in Jason's first major league RBI…he made his first start as the Rockies' 2nd baseman on April 28 in the opener of a 3-game series in Houston, and contributed in the 2-1 win with his first major league homer, a shot into the plastic flowers in right-field in the Astrodome off Darryl Kile…2 days later off Greg Swindell, Bates hit his first homer from the right side of the dish…all totaled, Jason hit safely in 15 of his first 17 games as a big leaguer, batting .333 (19-for-57), which included a career-best 9-game hitting streak from May 5-14, batting at a .382 clip (13-for-34)…he would later match that skein with another 9-gamer from May 29-June 8…twice he had 3 hits in a game, doing so first on May 22 vs. Chicago, which included a homer off Jaime Navarro…his other 3-hit effort occurred just 4 days later on May 27 at Pittsburgh…he enjoyed starting status until late June, when a left wrist injury sidelined Bates, opening a window of opportunity for Eric Young, who went on a tear to regain his starting 2nd base position lost in 1993...though playing time was limited to late-inning defensive work and pinch hitting, Jason made a spot start on July 24 in Philly and set a personal best with 4 RBI, keyed by a 3-run homer off Tyler Green...he displayed the versatility that earned him a roster spot, making 55 starts at 2nd base, 11 at 3rd base and 9 at shortstop...he was one of the top clutch hitters on the roster, batting .370 (27-for-73) with runners in scoring position, which included a .432 mark (16-for-37) when there were 2-out in the inning.

CAREER HIGHLIGHTS: 1994—Jason upped his average 19 points from his initial AAA season, and was named to the mid-season All-Star Game in Nashville, replacing Trenidad Hubbard on the roster, who had moved to the majors...only once did Bates go more than 2 consecutive games without a hit...his best production came after his All-Star appearance, hitting safely in 13 straight at a .510 clip (July 17-29) to up his season mark from .270 to .305...he wound up hitting .394 in July (37-for-94)... Jason had more opportunities and was more successful from the left side of the plate, hitting .295 (103-for-349), while batting .257 (28-for-109) as a righty. 1993—Originally slated to report to minor league camp and prepare for a season at Central Valley (A), Bates was a late-invitee to major league spring training due to a variety of injuries and made the opportunity pay off...he parlayed that invitation into a .304 exhibition average, with an on-base pct. of .467 in 10 games, prompting a AAA assignment in lieu of the original plan...for Colorado Springs, he closed the year by batting .330 in August, with 14 RBI...Bates led the PCL in being hit by pitches with 10. 1992—Signed from the Rockies original June draft group, Bates had a solid year at Bend, OR, hitting .286 in 70 games, while working as the everyday shortstop...he led all Northwest League shortstops in fielding and earned a spot on the All-Star squad.

PERSONAL: Jason Charles Bates...he was a 1989 graduate of Esperanza H.S. in Anaheim, CA, then played collegiately at the University of Arizona in Tucson, just a couple of miles from the spring training site of the Rockies...Jason took advantage of living in Denver over the winter, working out at Coors Field and representing the club at a variety of charitable events, including participation in the '96 Winter Caravan.

Dante Bichette
Outfielder

Ht: 6-3 Wt: 235 B/T: R/R
Age: 32 (Turns 33 on November 18)
Born: November 18, 1963 in West Palm Beach, FL
Residence: Palm Beach Gardens, FL
M.L. Service: 6 years, 80 days

HOW OBTAINED: Acquired from the Milwaukee Brewers in exchange for Kevin Reimer, November 17, 1992.

1995 HIGHLIGHTS: Dante's heroics to open Coors Field on April 26 vs. the Mets turned out to be just a small indicator of a season full of dramatic and explosive moments for the outfielder...he ended the season lid lifter with a 3-run homer off NY's Mike Remlinger in the 14th inning to give the Rox an 11-9 initiation of their new ballpark...by the end of the year, Bichette came remarkably close to becoming the first N.L. Most Valuable Player in the club's brief history, leading the N.L. in home runs (40) and RBI (128), while also topping the chart in total bases (359), extra-base hits (80) and slugging pct. (.620), all establishing club records...he also tied perennial leader Tony Gwynn in hits (197) and Bichette's .340 mark was good for 3rd best in the league...he wound up 2nd in the MVP voting, losing out to Cincy's Barry Larkin...Dante was the N.L. Player-of-the-Month twice, and earned Rockie-of-the-Month honors for 4 of the 5 months played during the campaign...he was first honored by the N.L. for his effort in July, batting .296 while establishing club monthly records with 11 homers and 35 RBI...the monthly homer mark lasted only until August, when he clubbed 12 bombs...he opened by winning the N.L. Player-of-the-Week honors, hitting .433 (13-for-30) with 10 runs scored, 6 homers and 14 RBI, establishing a team record with home runs in 5 consecutive games...he closed the year by winning the N.L. monthly award again, batting .370 in crunch time (44-for-119) with 24 runs 8 homers and 29 RBI in 28 games...as witnessed by his 2 monthly honors, Dante was most impressive in the 2nd half of the campaign, hammering 27 homers and driving in 80 after the All-Star break...he was the first of the foursome to reach the 30-homer plateau, hammering his milestone bomb on August 19 at home off Chicago's Frank Castillo...he had the 2 longest hitting streaks of his career during the '95 campaign, including a 23-gamer (May 22-June 18) that tied California's Jim Edmonds for longest in the majors...Bichette also had a 19-game skein (July 19-August 8), matching the 3rd best in the N.L. with teammate Eric Young...on 4 occasions, Dante matched a single game personal best with 4 hits, bringing his career 4-hit game total to 16...he also tied a club record with 3 doubles vs. Atlanta on Sept. 13, and twice had 2-homer games, the 8th & 9th multi-bomb games of his career...speaking of home runs, he had an odd year in that category, becoming the first major leaguer ever to hit as many as his first 17 at home, then to finally go deep on the road...his streak of 17 in a row at Coors Field matched Cliff Lee's total for 1922 with Philly, and fell short of Mel Ott (18 in 1943-N.Y. Giants) and Gabby Cravath (19 in 1914-Phillies), but neither Lee, Ott nor Cravath hit a road home run during those seasons...as for Bichette, his string of "home only" bombs ended on July 25 at Philadelphia with a blast off Jim Deshaies...Dante's September performance carried into the post-season vs. the Braves, going 10-for-17 (.588) in the 4 games, with 6 runs scored, 3 doubles, a homer and 3 RBI...he also attained All-Star status for the 2nd straight year, fanning in his lone plate appearance...Bichette and Chicago's Frank Thomas are the only major league players to hit 20 homers, drive in 80 runs and bat over .300 in each of the last 3 seasons.

CAREER HIGHLIGHTS: 1994—Bichette finished in the N.L. Top Ten in 9 categories, including then career bests in homers (27) and RBI (95)...hit .632 (12-for-19) in 4 games after the All-Star break to earn league Player-of-the-Week honors, driving in a dozen during the hot streak...oddly enough, the hot streak came on the heels of his worst slump in a Rockies' uniform, going into the break in an 0-for-17 slide...he was Colorado's lone representative in the Midsummer Classic, and picked up a single in his only at bat...he set a career best on July 17 with 6 RBI, keyed by a grand slam off Rick Sutcliffe...Bichette was named the Rockie-of-the-Month for June, compiling a

.359 mark with 7 homers and 26 RBI...that month concluded with a 10-game hitting streak in which he hit .457...after an 0'fer on Opening Day, he posted a 16-game streak...defensively, Dante tied for 3rd in the N.L. with 10 outfield assists, the 4th time he has totaled double-digits in his career. 1993—His first N.L. season, he set career bests that still stand in doubles (43) and triples (5)...a fractured hand on Sept. 15 (hit by Houston's Doug Jones) kept him out of the lineup for the final 21 games of the year, but he still finished 3rd in the league in doubles, 4th in extra-base hits (69) and 6th in slugging pct. (.526)...his run total established an expansion team record...he was voted Rookie-of-the-Month for July, hitting .324, with 7 homers, 28 runs and 21 RBI in 26 games...he had back-to-back 4-hit games on June 12 & 13 in Mile High vs. Houston, including 7 consecutive hits...with one swing of the bat Bichette achieved a trio of "firsts" for the Rockies, driving in and scoring the first run, while hitting the first homer in club history, a 7th inning solo shot off then Met, Bret Saberhagen on April 7 in Shea Stadium...just 2 days earlier in the first game in club history, he was the first Rockie to get hit with a pitch, when he was nailed by Doc Gooden in the 3rd inning...defensively, he finished 3rd in the N.L. with 14 outfield assists. 1992—His final year in the A.L. with Milwaukee, Dante was hitting as high as .326 on August 2 before a late-season tailspin dropped his average...hit over .300 in each of the first 4 months of the season, his best being June, batting at a .338 clip (26-for-77)...tied a Milwaukee club record, scoring 4 runs in a game on June 28 at Baltimore...hit .346 with 2 outs and a runner on 3rd. 1991—With the Angels in spring training, but was traded to Milwaukee on March 14 for D.H. Dave Parker and was the Brewers' Opening Day rightfielder in Texas...hit 15 home runs for the 2nd straight season...earned the A.L. Player-of-the-Week honors for the final week of the regular season, finishing the year with a career-best 12-game hitting streak...had a career-high 5 RBI on June 6 vs. Oakland, the same day of his 1st career grand slam...went 5-for-10 (.500) with 11 RBI when batting with the bases loaded...defensively, led the Brewers with 14 outfield assists. 1990—Played in 109 games for the Angels, and despite part-time play, ranked 5th in the A.L. in outfield assists with 12...had a 2-homer game on July 14 at Toronto...established career-best with 4 hits on Sept. 6 at NY. 1989—Hit .388 in spring training with 4 homers and 17 RBI to earn spot in the Opening Day line-up...received the Angels' Fred Haney Memorial Award for outstanding rookie in spring training...hit first big league homer on April 9 off Seattle's Steve Trout...optioned to Edmonton (AAA) on June 19 after 39 games. 1988—Led the PCL with 22 outfield assists while playing for Edmonton...he was recalled to the Angels on Sept. 5...first major league hit came Sept. 7 off Kansas City's Floyd Bannister. 1987—Spent season at Edmonton, but missed 2 months with fractured finger on right hand. 1986—Split the season between Palm Springs (A) and Midland (AA)...was named to the mid-season California League All-Star team, then was promoted to Midland on June 23...named co-winner, with pitcher Willie Fraser, of the Kenny Myers Award, given annually to the best minor league player in the Angels' chain.

PERSONAL: Alphonse Dante Bichette...he and wife, Marianna, have a son, Dante, Jr., and spent the winter moving into their new home in Palm Beach Gardens, FL...Dante was an '82 grad of Jupiter (FL) H.S., then played baseball at Palm Beach Junior College, leading his club to the state tournament...a 17th round pick in the 1984 June draft, he began his pro career as a third baseman...last summer, Dante and Marianna joined the Rockies program to donate earnings to have a youth baseball field refurbished and renamed in Dante's honor...for his performance in '95, Bichette was honored this February by the Colorado Sports Hall-of-Fame as the Colorado Professional Athlete-of-the-Year, and earned Silver Slugger honors from Louisville Slugger, representative of one of the top 3 hitting outfielders in the National League, as voted by managers and coaches.

Ht: 6-1 Wt: 190 B/T: R/R
Age: 29 (Turns 30 on June 22)
Born: June 22, 1966 in Moncion, DR
Residence: Athens, AL
M.L. Service: 86 days

HOW OBTAINED: Re-signed as a minor league free agent, November 5, 1994.

1995 HIGHLIGHTS: Made the big league club out of spring training, his first taste of major league action in 10 years of pro ball...he had a rough big league debut, going 0-for-3 with 3 K's at Houston on April 30, but bounced back with a 2-for-4 performance on May 6 at home vs. L.A., his 2nd start...Jorge's first big league hit was a bases loaded double, that drove in 3 runs off of Tom Candiotti...Brito later singled and scored in the contest...he was with the big league club until July 19, making 13 starts to spell regular Joe Girardi...Jorge managed just 3 hits in his last 22 at bats before being optioned to AAA, where he closed out the year as the Sky Sox won the PCL title...he appeared in 33 games for Colorado Springs, and showed a better offensive proficiency at home, batting .279 (17-for-61), but struggled on the road, compiling a .143 mark (5-for-35)...Brito's best individual performance was in the regular season finale at home vs. Salt Lake City, going 3-for-4 with a homer and 3 RBI...he was behind the plate in 8 of the 9 games the Sky Sox played in the post-season, picking up 5 hits, including 3 doubles.

CAREER HIGHLIGHTS: 1994—A non-roster invitee to spring training then assigned to New Haven (AA)...after opening year with .275 mark, he fell victim to a .165 tailspin that dropped his season average below the .200 mark...he earned a AAA promotion at mid-season to replace Jayhawk Owens, who was summoned to majors...Brito went 10-for-27 (.370) during a 2-week stay with the Sky Sox, then was returned to New Haven, where the bat remained hot...in 12 games with the Ravens, Jorge hit .342 and made a 2nd trip to Colorado Springs to finish the season, this time due to an injury to Owens...Brito had a 9-game hitting streak during this tour with the Sky Sox, batting .462 (12-for-26) during the skein, with 2 homers and 10 RBI. 1993—Jorge had a very brief stint with Huntsville (AA) in the Oakland chain in '93, missing the majority of the year with a broken hand...the injury occurred prior to the start of the season, and he did not see his first action until June 23...he was used primarily as a designated hitter, getting behind the plate late in one game...he wound up batting .278 (10-for-36) in 18 games CAREER—Brito had a 9-year minor league playing career that encompassed virtually every stop in the Athletics' organization, except Oakland, until joining the Rockies' chain.

PERSONAL: Jorge Manuel Brito...he and wife, Wendy, have a daughter, Ana (6/3/91) and their newest arrival, Jorge Jr., (1/11/96) and reside in Athens, AL...a native of the Dominican Republic, he was an '85 graduate of Academia La Trimitaria in Santo Domingo...he played winter ball for Azucareros (Dominican), hitting .250.

Ht: 6-4 Wt: 215 B/T: S/R
Age: 26
Born: February 9, 1970 in Durango, CO
Residence: Highlands Ranch, CO
M.L. Service: None

HOW OBTAINED: Selected in the 1st round of the 1992 June Free Agent Draft.

1995 HIGHLIGHTS: A breakthrough year for the first draft choice in club history, posting a 7-1 ledger in 19 games (17 starts) for Colorado Springs, his first full year at the AAA level...after a pair of no decisions to start the year, J.B. posted his first win on May 5 at home over Vancouver, a triumph that began a 6-game winning streak (7 starts)...he was at his best from May 16-28, winning 3 consecutive starts, while allowing only 3 earned runs in 16.0 innings for a 1.69 ERA, while fanning 16 in that span...all 3 of those runs scored in a start on May 21 at Phoenix, with that outing surrounded by a 5-inning and 6-inning stint with no runs scoring...the final victory in the winning streak was at home on June 7, giving up just a run on 3 hits over 7.0 innings, knocking off Tucson...John made 14 straight starts, accumulating all 8 of his decisions, but wound up on the disabled list for the majority of July with a tender right shoulder...he went to the bullpen for a pair of outings upon his return, including a 3.0 inning stint on August 5 vs. Tacoma, earning his only pro save...he closed the year with 3 starts, working 3.0, 4.0 and 5.0 innings in succession, with no decisions, then went back on the D.L. for the duration with an inflamed right shoulder.

CAREER HIGHLIGHTS: 1994—Control trouble and right shoulder tendinitis kept John in Arizona with extended spring, and did not join the active roster at Colorado Springs until June 22...after struggling through 8 relief appearance, he was sent to Asheville (A) in mid-August and dominated appearing in 4 games, totaling 17.0 innings, allowing only 2 earned runs on 5 hits and 5 walks while fanning 16 men for a 1.06 ERA...he then had a brief stint with Sun Cities in the Arizona Fall League, appearing 3 times. 1993—Started the year in Central Valley (A), going a deceptive 7-8...despite the sub-.500 record, he tied for 2nd in the California League in ERA (3.18) and ranked 3rd in K's (114), then went to AAA for the final month...his work in Central Valley was not unnoticed, earning a spot on the league All-Star team, and was named by Baseball America as the top prospect in the California League... he fanned 23 men in back-to-back starts vs. Bakersfield...his AAA debut at Vancouver on July 30, resulted in a win over the Canadians, as Burke went 6.0 scoreless innings allowing just 2 hits and a walk with 8 K's...he followed that with 7.0 innings of 4-hit, 1-run work at Colorado Springs vs. Tucson. 1992—A storybook beginning for John, drafted by his hometown major league club in the first round of the 1992 June draft, though he was sidelined for the first few weeks of his pro career with a sore pitching arm, but managed 10 starts at Bend (OR), going 2-0 with a 2.41 ERA...a homer in his pro debut on July 3 was the only run he surrendered in his first 18.0 innings of work.

PERSONAL: John C. Burke...he and wife, Elizabeth, reside in Highlands Ranch, CO... the Rockies' first-ever choice in the June draft, Burke played collegiately at the University of Florida, where he left as the all-time strikeout leader with 305 in 260.1 innings...after a 9-5 season in 1991, fanning 135 in 104.0 innings, John was first team All-American and was drafted in the first round by Houston in June, but declined to sign and returned to the Gators...an '89 graduate of Cherry Creek High School in Englewood, he was a 34th round pick of the Baltimore Orioles, but chose not to sign.

M.L. Service: 8 years, 105 days

HOW OBTAINED: Signed as a free agent, November 30, 1993.

1995 HIGHLIGHTS: Still slowed by off-season wrist surgery, Ellis' year started with an 8-game rehab stint with Colorado Springs, then he finally returned to action on May 5, 50 weeks after the original injury...he was 9-for-29 (.310) with 2 homers and 6 RBI during his rehab stint...upon returning to the Rox, he went 0-for-9 then showed signs of offensive life on May 9 going 3-for-4 with a double and 2 RBI in a win over the Giants...he had the 2nd game-ending homer of his Colorado career, hitting a 3-run, pinch-hit blast off the Pirates' Dan Miceli at home on June 2, giving the Rox a 7-4 win (he also ended a 10-inning game on April 17, 1994, with a homer off Montreal's Gil Heredia)...Ellis had a pair of 2-homer games in '95, June 19 vs. Florida and July 23 vs. New York, the 8th & 9th multi-homer games of his career...Burks collected the 1,000th hit of his career on July 6 in Coors off of Montreal's Greg Harris...a strained left hamstring slowed Ellis from July 24-August 6, as he went just 2-for-10 in that stretch, primarily as a pinch hitter...after healing, he went 10-for-20 (.500) during a 6-game streak from August 8-13, including 4 homers, 6 runs and 6 RBI...he haunted Pittsburgh again on August 30 in Three Rivers, hitting a 3-run homer in a 6-0 win... appeared in a pair of games in the Division Series Playoffs vs. Atlanta, going 2-for-6 with a double and 2 RBI...his first pro leftfield assignment was on May 14 at Florida.

CAREER HIGHLIGHTS: 1994—A promising start turned disaster, as Ellis' first year in the N.L. was hampered by a severe left wrist sprain...the injury occurred on May 17, as a check swing vs. the Dodgers forced the hand to be immobilized for 2 months...at the time of the injury, he led the league with a .738 slugging pct., and was 3rd in hitting (.354)...he made a great first impression, homering in his first at bat in the season opener at Mile High off the Phils' Curt Schilling...he hit safely in his first 14 N.L. games, batting .453 with 6 homers, 14 RBI, 17 runs and a .925 slugging pct., a game shy of his career-best hitting streak...finished April with a .413 mark, with 9 homers, 17 RBI and 24 RBI, earning N.L. Player-of-the-Month honors...his inside-the-park homer on April 15 off Jeff Fassero was the first in club history...after missing 70 games and playing 2 games in a rehab stint at Colorado Springs, he returned to action as a pinch hitter on July 31 in S.F...the next night in Houston he homered in the 8th inning off Mike Hampton in his first post-D.L. start...Burks' injury never properly healed, and after the cancellation of the '94 season, he had surgery to fuse two bones in his wrist on Sept. 20. 1993—Served as the rightfielder for the A.L. West champion White Sox, finishing 3rd on the club with 74 RBI, while his 17 homers ranked 4th best...was much stronger in the first half, hitting .295 with 11 homers and 45 RBI at the All-Star break...collected career grand slams #7 & #8, taking Kenny Rogers deep in Arlington Stadium on May 16, then hitting one on June 26 off Seattle's Erik Hanson... the homer in Texas on May 16 was the 100th roundtripper of his career and gave him 6 RBI in a game for the 2nd time in his career...he batted .304 in 6 games of the

A.L.C.S., including a homer in Game #5 at Toronto. 1992—Final year with the Red Sox was cut short after a season-ending back injury on June 24 at Detroit...hit his 6th career grand slam on May 20 vs. Seattle, a game-winning blast off Mike Schooler, snapping a 2 1/2 year grand slam dry spell. 1991—Tied his career best with a 15-game hitting streak from May 7-26...missed some playing time in May with a right hamstring injury, then tendinitis in both knees limited his time in July...appeared sparingly in last 23 games after a bulging disc was discovered in his back. 1990—Was ranked among the A.L. Top 10 in 7 different offensive categories...selected to the A.L. All-Star team, but missed the game with a hamstring pull...named the A.L. Player-of-the-Week on Sept. 3...led the BoSox in homers with a career-best 21...tied a major league record by homering twice in the 4th inning on August 27 at Chicago...won his 1st Rawlings Gold Glove for defensive excellence, was named to the Silver Slugger team, and named an outfielder on The Sporting News All-Star team. 1989—Became the 1st Red Sox player to swipe 20 or more bases in 3 straight seasons since Tommy Harper (1972-74)...he did so despite missing 63 games due to injuries to both shoulders...season ended when a collision in Oakland caused a moderate shoulder separation on Sept. 6...at the time of the injury, he had tied his career best with a 15-game hitting streak...hit 5th career grand slam on August 27 vs. Detroit. 1988—Led the Red Sox with 25 stolen bases and posted a career-high 92 RBI...hit a pair of grand slams (June 15 vs. New York and July 27 at Texas)...had a 5-RBI contest on July 17 vs. Kansas City...established his career-best hitting streak at 15 games (May 22-June 7)...season started late (April 12), due to arthroscopic surgery in spring training to remove bone chips in his right ankle...was a member of the Major League All-Star team that toured Japan, homering twice during the visit. 1987—Started the year at Pawtucket (AAA), but after 11 games was recalled on April 29, making major league debut the next day in Seattle...had a "career" game on June 10 at Baltimore, going 3-for-4 with 2 homers, including a grand slam and 7 RBI...swiped a club best 27 bases, the most by a Boston rookie since Tris Speaker stole 35 in 1909...was the first Boston rookie and 3rd Red Sox player overall to hit 20 homers and steal 20 bases in the same season...tied a major league rookie mark with 2 grand slams (May 25 vs. Cleveland and June 10 at Baltimore)...named to the Baseball Digest and Topps All-Rookie teams. 1986—Spent the entire year at New Britain (AA), leading the team in homers, runs, AB's and total bases (194)...swiped 31 bases and was the starting centerfielder in the Eastern League All-Star Game. 1984—Showed ability to hit grand slams, with 2 of his 6 homers coming with the bases loaded while playing for Winter Haven. 1983—Was Boston's 1st pick in the 1st round (20th player overall) of the now-defunct January Free Agent Draft...started pro career in Elmira, scoring 30 runs in 52 games.

PERSONAL: Ellis Rena Burks...he and wife, Dori, have two daughters, Carissa Renee (4/20/89) and Elisha Rae (10/27/91), and a son, Christopher Ellis (6/24/94)...Ellis played for a year at Ranger (Texas) Junior College, earning All-State honors as an outfielder...he attended Everman (Texas) High School, earning All-Region honors as both a shortstop and pitcher during his senior season...Ellis donated a substantial sum of his earnings to the Rockies' field restoration program and in 1996 will have a youth baseball field completed and named in his honor in the Denver-metro area.

Infielder

COLORADO ROCKIES

Ht: 6-1 Wt: 200 B/T: R/R
Age: 28 (Turns 29 on July 4)
Born: July 4, 1967 in Oaxaca, MX
Residence: Littleton, CO
M.L. Service: 2 years, 164 days

HOW OBTAINED: Selected as the seventh pick in the second round of the major league baseball expansion draft from the Atlanta Braves, November 17, 1992.

1995 HIGHLIGHTS: What began as a third straight season of transition, turned into a dream season for Vinny, who showed he was up to the task of being an everyday player in the majors...joining the Rockies in the expansion draft as a shortstop, he platooned the first season, then moved to 2nd base in 1994, made a quick switch to 3rd base for the '95 season and wound up starting in the All-Star Game, handpicked by N.L. manager Felipe Alou due to an injury to Matt Williams...Castilla was the 2nd of the "Blake Street Bombers" to attain the 30-homer mark, hammering his milestone bomb on August 24 off Pittsburgh's Ross Powell...to say he had a "career year" would be understating the case, just follow the numbers below to see the difference:

Vinny led the club with 6 multi-homer games, and was the first Rockie in history to homer twice in back-to-back games, turning the trick on July 7 & 8 vs. Montreal...he earned his first National League Player-of-the-Week award from May 8-14, batting .609 (14-for-23) with 4 homers and 14 RBI...the week was keyed on May 12 with a 4-hit, 2-homer, 6-RBI affair at Florida...Castilla had a tremendous June, hitting safely in all but 3 of the 27 games he played, batting at a .324 clip...the month began with a career-best 13-game hitting streak (June 2-14), in which he hit .451 (23-for-51) with 6 doubles, 5 homers, 12 runs scored and 14 driven in...what used to be a 3-day break turned into a trip to Arlington, TX, in July, as he started at 3rd base in the All-Star Game, going 0-for-2...Vinny's 2-run, 9th inning homer off Turk Wendell at home on August 20 gave the Rockies a 4-2 win over Chicago...Castilla took a liking to Coors Field, hitting .383 at home, while batting .229 on the road...he continued his offensive production into the post-season, batting .467 (7-for-15) in the 4-game series with Atlanta, homering 3 times and driving in 6...his 4th inning, 2-run homer in Game #1 vs. the Braves snapped a 1-1 tie, though the Braves came back...Vinny hit another 2-run blast in Atlanta in Game #3, again breaking a tie, then drove in an insurance run in the 10th inning of the Rockies only post-season win, 7-5.

CAREER HIGHLIGHTS: 1994—Season started slowly, appearing in 9 games for the Rockies before being optioned to AAA, appearing in 22 games for the Sky Sox...he was recalled to the majors on June 4 for the remainder of the season...after going just 1-for-10 in an early stint with the Rox, he hit .350 after recall to finish with .331 mark...he proved his versatility defensively, making 13 starts at shortstop, 12 at second base, 6 at third base and a pair at first base...his first major league appearance at second base took place on April 15 vs. Montreal, and his professional debut at first base occurred on July 29 at San Francisco, the night after Andres Galarraga suffered a broken hand. 1993—His first full year of big league duty he platooned at short with Freddie Benavides...Vinny had a 12-game hitting streak in mid-May, a club record at the time, only to have his playing time halted with an ankle sprain on May 19...prior to the injury, he established a club record with 2 triples vs. Florida on April 25, then 2 nights later hit his first major league homer, a solo shot at home off Chicago's Dan Plesac...after returning from the D.L., Castilla combined with Danny Sheaffer to set a club record, each collecting 5 RBI in a 15-5 win at home over the Reds...Vinny also set a club record with 10 total bases, and tied club marks with 4 runs scored and 2 homers...through July, all 18 of his RBI had come in Mile High, then on August 2, he hit a 2-run homer in Cincy off Tim Pugh, starting a stretch in which 11 of his last 12 RBI for the year came on the road... all totaled, he was a .305 hitter in Denver, compared to a .206 mark on the road. 1992—Spent the year at Richmond, finishing the season strong, hitting safely in 15 of the last 16 games of the year at a .407 clip (24-for-59) with 11 runs...appeared in 9 games in September for Atlanta, hitting .250 (4-for-16) with a double and RBI, his 2nd September recall. 1991—Performed on 3 levels during the year beginning at Greenville (AA)...he hit .270 in 66 games for the AA Braves, with 7 homers and 44 RBI...was then promoted to AAA and hit .225 in 67 games for Richmond, again hitting 7 homers while driving in 36...made major league debut in September, appearing in 12 games, going 1-for-5 with a run scored. 1990—His contract was purchased on March 19 from Saltillo of the Mexican League...made his United States pro debut with Sumter (A), hitting .268 in 93 games and earning a spot in the South Atlantic League All-Star Game...was promoted to Greenville, and hit .235 in 46 games...combining the 2 leagues, he totaled 13 homers and 69 RBI in 140 games.

MEXICAN LEAGUE: Played for 3 seasons in the Mexican League, his best year coming at Saltillo in 1989, hitting .307 in 128 games with 25 doubles, 13 triples, 10 homers and 58 RBI...teamed in 1988-89 with fellow Rockies' mate Armando Reynoso.

PERSONAL: Vinicio Soria (Vinny) Castilla...he and wife, Samantha, make their off-season home in Littleton, CO...he is a 1985 graduate of Carlos Gracida Institute, earning baseball M.V.P. honors...he then attended Benito Suarez University...originally a shortstop when signed by the Braves, Vinny went to the Arizona Fall Instructional League during the 1994 players' strike to get work at third base, earning an All-Star spot at that position in 1995 with the Rockies...he was named to the Silver Slugger team by Louisville Slugger, voted the top hitting 3rd baseman in the National League by managers and coaches.

"BLAKE STREET BOMBERS" TIE BIG LEAGUE MARK

On September 19, 1995, Andres Galarraga homered off of Willie Blair in San Diego, giving the Rockies four players with at least 30 homers on the year, matching the major league record established in 1977 by the Los Angeles Dodgers. The home run marked Galarraga's second straight 30-homer year, while teammates Dante Bichette, Larry Walker and Vinny Castilla, each achieved that plateau for the first time in their careers. Following is a comparison of the two clubs home run production:

Craig Counsell
Infielder

Ht: 6-0 Wt: 170 B/T: L/R
Age: 25 (Turns 26 on August 21)
Born: August 21, 1970 in South Bend, IN Residence: Fort Myers Beach, FL
M.L. Service: 16 days

HOW OBTAINED: Selected in the 11th round of the 1992 June Free Agent Draft.

1995 HIGHLIGHTS: Craig tasted success twice during the '95 season, gaining his first experience of AAA ball, winning the PCL title, then receiving his first call to the big leagues and though used sparingly, was present for the playoff drive for the Rockies...his initial AAA test started slow, going 6-for-31 (.194) out of the gate, but as the season progressed, his average would fluctuate around the .300 mark before finishing at .281...the final numbers were consistent with his last 2 rungs up the organizational ladder, hitting .280 at Central Valley in 1993, then duplicating that mark in '94 at New Haven...serving the Sky Sox as the everyday shortstop, Craig didn't go more than 2 straight games without a hit until the end of the campaign, scuffling through a 4-game 0'fer (Aug. 24-27)...on May 5, Craig's bat staked John Burke to his first win of the year, as he tripled, homered and drove in 5 in a 6-3 win over Vancouver...he had a pair of 4-hit games, including a 4-for-4 contest on June 17 vs. Phoenix, peaking his season average to .313...his longest hitting streak was 8 games (July 29-August 6), when he batted .387 (12-for-31) with 9 runs...he was the starting shortstop in all 9 of Colorado Springs' post-season games, going a combined 9-for-31 (.290), including a .316 mark (6-for-19) in the finals vs. Salt Lake City...Craig appeared in 3 major league games after being recalled on Sept. 15, going 0-for-1...he reached base once, walking as a pinch hitter on Sept. 19 in San Diego.

CAREER HIGHLIGHTS: 1994—First season of AA ball got off on the "wrong foot" as he fractured his right foot with a foul ball in spring training...it was the 2nd time in 3 years for that injury to occur...this time Counsell was out until mid-May, making his '94 debut with New Haven on May 13 and finishing with his 2nd straight season as a .280 hitter...after back-to-back 0'fers to start the year, Craig hit .325 over the next 44 games...included was a season-high 11-game hitting streak in which he batted .429...his regular season average peaked at .325 after play on June 25, after going 4-for-6...Craig again headed to the D.L., suffering a broken nose in a game at home on July 29...he attempted to come back from the injury a week later, getting a hit in his only plate appearance on August 6, but missed most of that month, not returning to the lineup until August 29...the lefthanded hitting infielder spent the majority of time playing at shortstop, but also had a handful of starts at 2nd base after returning from his late-season injury. 1993—Craig spent the entire campaign at Central Valley (A), leading the club with 26 doubles and ranking 2nd in hits (132). 1992—An original from the first draft class of '92 for the Rockies, Craig's season at Bend (OR) came to a halt quickly, suffering a broken right instep 18 games into the year due to a foul ball...drafted as a shortstop out of Notre Dame, Counsell opened the season as the 2nd baseman, a position that was foreign to him prior to turning pro.

PERSONAL: Craig John Counsell...he is single and makes his off-season home in Fort Myers Beach, FL...he was a 1988 graduate of Whitefish Bay (WI) High School, then made the trek to South Bend, IN, where he played collegiately for the Fighting Irish at Notre Dame for 4 seasons...while excelling on the field, he graduated in four years with a degree in Accounting...his father, John, played professionally in the Minnesota chain in the mid-60's, then later worked in the front office of the Milwaukee Brewers...Craig played for Scottsdale in the Arizona Fall League last October, hitting .284 in 41 games, and was tabbed as one of the Top Prospects, voted by the league managers...he played the winter before for the Maui Stingrays in Hawaii

Ht: 6-2 Wt: 205 B/T: R/R
Age: 25 (Turns 26 on September 28)
Born: September 28, 1970 in Baton Rouge, LA
Residence: Great Mills, MD
M.L. Service: None

HOW OBTAINED: Acquired with pitcher Stephen Shoemaker from the New York Yankees in exchange for catcher Joe Girardi, November 20, 1995.

1995 HIGHLIGHTS: A reliever throughout his 4-year pro career, Mike spent the entire '95 season in the Eastern League, working as the closer for Norwich, going 5-5 with 20 saves...he opened the season strong, allowing 4 earned runs in his first 22 appearances, a span of 31.1 innings for a 1.15 ERA, going 4-2 with 4 saves...he hit a tough stretch at mid-season, as his ERA for July climbed to near 7.00, but Mike toughened as the season neared completion, giving up no runs in his last 8 appearances, covering 8.2 innings while recording 7 saves...in those final 8 contests, he gave up 3 hits and a walk with 7 K's...all totaled, 9 of his 20 saves came over a 12-appearance span in August...DeJean was particularly tough in his home park in Norwich, going 1-0 with 12 saves and a 1.83 ERA, covering 30 outings.

CAREER HIGHLIGHTS: 1994—Mike split the year between Tampa (A) and Albany (AA), combining the 2 stops for 50 appearances and 20 saves...he had 16 rescues in A-ball, tying for 5th in the Florida State League, though he did not complete the campaign there... his overall save total ranked 2nd among Yankees' minor leaguers. 1993—Appeared in 20 games for Greensboro, working just 18.0 innings, but recording 9 saves and a pair of wins. 1992—His first year as a pro and first full year as a pitcher, Mike signed as a 24th round pick with the Yankees, then reported to Oneonta (A), allowing 1 earned run in his 20 appearances for a 0.44 ERA...he rescued 16 games, with each save coming in successive appearances from June 18-August 2.

PERSONAL: Michel Dwain (Mike) DeJean...he and wife, Holly, make their home in Lexington Park, MD...a Louisiana native, Mike was a 1988 graduate of Walker High School, where he was an all-state selection in football, while also lettering in baseball and basketball...he was a 3-time All-District shortstop in high school, and put his tall frame to use, winning the Southeast Louisiana Slam Dunk competition...he then attended Mississippi Delta Community College, followed by two years at Livingston University in Livingston, LA, where they won the Gulf South Conference title in 1992...then a shortstop, DeJean pitched only 6.0 innings in college, but by retiring 2 batters in the '92 NCAA Division II World Series, he was scouted and signed as a hurler...at the time of his trade to the Rockies, Mike was pitching in the Arizona Fall League, finishing with a 2-1 mark and 2 saves in 19 games for the Scottsdale Scorpions.

Mike Farmer
Lefthanded Pitcher

Ht: 6-1 Wt: 193 B/T: S/L
Age: 27 (Turns 28 on July 3)
Born: July 3, 1968 in Gary, IN Residence: Gary, IN
M.L. Service: None

HOW OBTAINED: Acquired from the Philadelphia Phillies in the Rule V Draft on December 13, 1993.

1995 HIGHLIGHTS: Mike had a solid campaign at New Haven (AA), opening the year in the bullpen, making intermittent starts, then working out of the starting rotation in 7 of his last 8 outings...the southpaw totaled 40 appearances for the Ravens, with his best work coming in late-June and carrying into July, where he earned the opportunity to assume a starting role...from June 27-July 29, Farmer made 13 appearances (2 starts), working 29.2 innings allowing 4 earned runs for a 1.21 ERA, while going 5-0 in that stretch...his season concluded with a 5-2 mark over his last 8 appearances (7 starts), with the lone relief appearance an 8-inning stint on August 19 at Reading, blanking them on 6 hits in posting the win... his regular season finale was a win in Portland (ME) on August 30, giving up a run on 2 hits over 8.0 frames, fanning a season-high 11 in the 6-1 triumph...he was tabbed the starter in the first playoff game against Portland, picking up the win with 7.0 innings of 6-hit ball, allowing 2 runs (1 earned)...Mike was the starter in the 2nd game of the league title series vs. Reading, again going 7.0 innings, allowing 7 hits and 3 runs, though was not involved in the decision, an 8-3 New Haven loss...he also displayed the hitting skills he possessed earlier in his career as an outfielder, going 2-for-3 with a triple.

CAREER HIGHLIGHTS: 1994—Mike's first year in the Rockies' chain, he split the campaign between Central Valley (A) and New Haven (AA)...the beginning was actually a step down for the southpaw, who had pitched the year before in Reading, but the '94 season was just his 2nd full year as a pitcher after converting during the 1992 season...he was 1-4 with a save in 14 appearances (3 starts) for Central Valley, then at mid-season, made the move to the Ravens, working 10 games in relief, earning a pair of saves. 1993—His first full season on the hill, Farmer performed at Reading, going 5-10 in 22 games, 18 of which were as a starter. 1992—He began the season as the starting centerfielder for Clearwater (A), hitting .235 in 82 games before being converted to pitcher on July 16...at the time of the switch, Mike led his club with 10 stolen bases...formerly a college pitcher, he appeared twice in relief then made the move to starter...he tossed a 2-hitter on August 5 vs. Vero Beach, winning a 1-0 decision. 1991—Farmer led all Phillies minor leaguers with 77 RBI and earned a spot on the South Atlantic League All-Star team. 1990—His first year as a pro, he posted his best minor league batting average, hitting .269 at Martinsville.

PERSONAL: Michael Anthony (Mike) Farmer...he has a son, Mike Jr., (1/12/94) and makes his off-season home in Gary, IN...Mike was a 1986 graduate of Roosevelt High School in his native Gary, then attended Jackson State University, where he was the SWAC Pitcher-of-the-Year and a 1st Team All-American in 1987.

Pitcher

Ht: 6-7 Wt: 222 B/T: R/R
Age: 32 (Turns 33 on April 10)
Born: April 10, 1963 in Chicago, IL
Residence: Country Club Hills, IL
M.L. Service: 6 years, 134 days

HOW OBTAINED: Signed as a free agent, October 29, 1993.

1995 HIGHLIGHTS: Coming off the best season of his career, he was nagged by injuries in '95 that resulted in late-season surgery to clean out his right elbow...his first start was a 2-inning stint in the 2nd game of the year vs. the Mets, giving up 7 hits and 5 runs, but the Rockies rallied for an 8-7 win...after a pair of losses, Marvin notched his first win on May 28 in Pittsburgh, working 6.0 innings allowing 2 runs on 6 hits, while fanning a career-high 8 men...he had totaled 7 K's in a game on 3 occasions previously in his career...he fell back into the "L" column for a 4-game, 4-start stretch from June 12-29, surrendering 15 ER in 23.0 IP for a 5.87...he snapped the spell with 7.0 frames on July 9 in Coors Field vs. Montreal, winning a 4-1 decision, the only game that he was not scored up as a starter in '95...he moved to the bullpen after 17 starts, making his first relief appearance on August 2 vs. the Dodgers, (2.0 IP)...it snapped a streak of 34 straight starts, dating back to April 20, 1994, when he earned a relief win in 4.0 innings vs. Florida...he suffered a left oblique injury on August 12 in Atlanta, working 2.1 innings of a game the Rockies won, 16-4, and was placed on the D.L. the following day...he was reinstated on Sept. 1, making 2 relief appearances before shutting it down...Marvin hit the 2nd home run of his career in '95, taking Kevin Foster the opposite way in Coors Field on May 23...unfortunately, Foster returned the favor in a later at bat for his first big league blast and the Cubs wound up with a 7-6 win.

CAREER HIGHLIGHTS: 1994—Marvin led N.L. in winning percentage with an .833 mark, going 10-2, the 2nd best winning pct. in the majors to Chicago's Jason Bere (.857)...he was slated as a middle to late reliever, but injuries in spring training put him in the starting rotation, after working exclusively in relief for 3 1/2 seasons prior to joining the Rockies...he had a 4-game winning streak over a 6-start stretch in May & June, posting a 3.09 ERA...the final win of the streak took place on June 18 at Dodger Stadium, a 9-3 triumph in which he homered...entering his 2nd at bat in that game, he was 1-for-20 at the plate on the year, and a career 6-for-61 (.098), with no RBI, but changed that with a home run to right-centerfield off Ramon Martinez...he closed the year by winning 3 straight (4 starts), giving up 5 ER in 27.2 IP for a 1.63 ERA...he had outstanding control, walking 23 men in 112.2 innings, a 1.8 per 9-inning ratio...he did not allow a walk in 6 of his 18 starts, and gave up just one free pass in 7 other starts...of the 10 homers surrendered, 8 came with the bases empty. 1993—Working in relief for Atlanta, he made 11 appearances before going on the D.L. on June 4 with a right biceps strain...wound up with a 2-0 road record and 0.00 ERA, pitching in 11 games away from Atlanta covering 13.2 IP, including a win in Denver. 1992—Entered the year with 6 big league wins, but surpassed that going 7-5...after allowing 2 ER in 11.1 IP from April 10-28, a 1.59 ERA in 9-game span, he struggled for 10 games before being diagnosed with tendinitis in right shoulder, forcing stint on D.L...after August 2, was touched for just 3 ER in final 23.1 IP of work for a 1.16 ERA covering 24 outings... appeared in 3 games of the N.L.C.S. vs. Pittsburgh, allowing 6 ER in 3.2 IP...did not appear in World Series. 1991—1st full year of big league duty, posting a 3.00 ERA in 34 games while working in middle relief...best stretch was from May 22-August 3, allowing 5 ER in 33.2 IP for a 1.34 ERA...was placed on D.L. for remainder of year on August 22, suffering from bulging disc in lower back, with surgery 9 days later. 1990—Pitched for 4 clubs during course of season, including the Phillies and Braves in the majors, while getting first taste of full-time relief duty...started the year at Scranton-Wilkes Barre (AAA), before May 16 recall to Philly...earned 1st big league save on May 24 vs. Braves...appeared in 16 games for Phils, then was dealt to Atlanta on July 23 for relief pitcher Joe Boever, and went to Richmond (AAA), then was promoted on Sept. 1. 1989—Appeared in 6 games all year, 5 at Scranton, and 1 for the Phillies... made 2 starts at Scranton in April, then was promoted to Phils...went 3.0 IP in an April 24 start at Houston, then left with inflamed right shoulder and was placed on D.L. for duration of the season the next day, making 3 rehab starts in August for Scranton. 1988—Split the year between Maine (AAA) and Philly...was 5-5 in 18 games (14 starts) at Maine, including a 7.0 inning no-hitter at Richmond on July 28...was out from June 13-July 14 with a strained right shoulder...made 11 starts for Phillies after being recalled on August 8, going 2-3. 1987—Strained right shoulder surfaced, forcing stint on D.L. at Reading (AA) on July 2...prior to being sent to AA, struggled through 0-7 ledger in 10 starts at Maine...after resting shoulder, was 3-3 in 9 starts at Reading. 1986—Earned the Paul Owens Award, given annually to the top minor league pitcher in the Phils' chain...big league debut was on Sept. 16 vs. Pittsburgh, a 3.0 inning stint with no decision...earned 1st M.L. win on the night of the birth of only child (Sept. 21), as Marvin pitched 7.0 innings in New York, allowing just a hit, while his wife, Arnetta, was giving birth to their daughter, Paris. 1984—Signed with the Phils as the 2nd pick in the 2nd round of the June draft, and reported to Bend (OR), going 8-5 in 15 starts.

PERSONAL: Marvin Freeman...he and wife, Arnetta, have a daughter, Paris (9/21/86), who was born on the night of Marvin's first major league win...he was an '81 grad of Chicago Vocational High School...while attending high school, he was employed by the John Norwood Lee violin bow-making company, hand shaping and finishing concert quality violin bows...following his prep career in Chicago, Freeman was selected by Montreal in the 9th round of the June draft, however, chose to attend Jackson (MS) State University...Marvin and Arnetta have donated their time to the Lupus Foundation of Colorado, including the taping of a P.S.A, and last summer, he dedicated "Marvin Freeman Field," a youth baseball diamond refurbished with funds donated by Marvin and enhanced by the Robert R. McCormick Foundation.

Andres Galarraga
First Baseman

Ht: 6-3 Wt: 235 B/T: R/R
Age: 34 (Turns 35 on June 18)
Born: June 18, 1961 in Caracas, VZ
Residence: Caracas, VZ
M.L. Service: 9 years, 165 days

HOW OBTAINED: Signed as a free agent, November 16, 1992.

1995 HIGHLIGHTS: Andres finally broke the century mark in RBI, driving in 106, good for 3rd in the N.L. while also posting his 2nd straight 31-homer season…he was the final piece of the 30-30-30-30 puzzle, hitting his milestone blast on Sept. 19 in San Diego off former Rockie Willie Blair…that bomb made the "Blake Street Bombers" the second foursome in major league history to hit 30 home runs each, matching the 1977 L.A. Dodgers (Steve Garvey, Reggie Smith, Ron Cey and Dusty Baker)…homering in San Diego was a Big Cat specialty in 1995, as he had a career day in Jack Murphy Stadium that placed him in the record book on June 25…he established club records and career bests by homering 3 times and driving in 7 runs in the 11-3 win over the Padres, going deep in consecutive innings (6th, 7th & 8th), only the 4th time in big league history that homers were hit in 3 straight innings, most recently by Larry Parrish (Mtl., 1978)…Galarraga started a big week at home on July 3, going 6-for-6 in a 15-10 win over Houston, homering twice and driving in 5…it marked the 74th 6-hit game in N.L. history, 54th in a 9-inning game…he hit .429 on the week with a .964 slugging pct., earning N.L. Player-of-the-Week for the 2nd time with Colorado and 5th time in his career…Andres was one of 5 players in the league to hit 2 grand slams, giving him 7 career bases loaded bombs…Cat's first slam was July 2 at L.A., staking the Rox to a 10-1 win, then he did it again on Sept. 8 vs. Cincy, a 10-5 triumph…he started the year 3-for-23 (.130) through 5 games, but then hit safely in 17 of his next 18 at a .319 clip, including his first of a pair of 10-game hitting streaks for '95…the other was from August 14-24, when he batted .425…Galarraga's 31st and final home run of the year gave him 200 career…oftentimes used as a target at the plate, Andres was hit by 13 pitches during the season, tied for 3rd in the league…around the bag at first, he led the majors in double plays participating in 129.

CAREER HIGHLIGHTS: 1994—He established a career best with 31 home runs, but his season ended abruptly on July 28 in S.F., when he suffered a fractured right hand when he was hit by a Dave Burba pitch…at the time of the injury, the Rox were 1/2-game behind in the division race, but dropped 10 of the final 13 games leading up to the strike…despite the injury, Andres finished 5th in the N.L. in homers, tied for 5th in multi-hit games (41), ranked 7th in RBI (85), slugging pct. (.592) and TB (247)…his first of 2 grand slams in '94 provided the margin of victory over Montreal on April 16, a 7th inning shot off Mel Rojas to snap a 3-3 tie…his 2nd slam, 5th career, occurred on May 30 at N.Y., a 6th inning blast off Mike Maddux in a 12-2 win…on 4 occasions he had a pair of homers in a game, upping his career total of 2-homer games to 7. 1993—The first expansion player and first Venezuelan to win a batting title, hitting .370 to tie Tony Gwynn's 1987 mark as the highest in the N.L. since 1948, when Stan Musial hit .376 for the Cards…Galarraga's average was the highest by a righthanded hitter in the majors since 1939, when Joe DiMaggio hit .381, and the highest by a righty in the N.L. since Joe "Ducky" Medwick hit .374 in 1937…he led the league in multi-hit games (56), despite missing 41 contests due to a pair of injuries…he finished 2nd in slugging (.602) and 6th in on-base pct. (.403), though he walked just 24 times, with 12 of those intentional…he was named the first All-Star Game representative in club history, hitting .391 at the time of the break…he was twice the N.L. Player-of-the-Month (June & September), the only 2-time winner in the league in 1993…he overcame 2 disabling injuries and still managed to collect enough plate appearances to qualify…he was hitting .395 on May 9, when he suffered a slightly torn right hamstring…after missing 17 games, he batted .494 (42-for-85), raising his season mark to .427 by June 23… during that stretch, he posted back-to-back 4-hit games on June 14-15 vs. Los Angeles, collecting a club record 9 straight hits over 3 games, falling a hit shy of the N.L. record… he also homered in 3 consecutive games from June 12-14…Galarraga was hitting .400 as late as July 5…his second trip to the D.L. was a 2nd degree sprain of his right knee on July 24 and shelved him for 24 games…Galarraga returned to the lineup Aug. 21 and played for the remainder of the year sporting a knee brace…his offensive production picked up again in Sept., batting .361 during the final month to earn his 2nd league monthly honor…he was also a 3-time winner of the Rockie-of-the-Month award…Galarraga had arthroscopic surgery on his right knee on October 6. 1992—After 13 seasons with Montreal, he was traded on November 25, 1991, to St. Louis in exchange for Ken Hill...began the '92 year as the Opening Day first baseman for the Redbirds, however, suffered a broken right wrist when he was hit by a pitch in the 2nd game of the year...after 44 days on the D.L., he had an 11-game rehab assignment in Louisville before returning to regular duty on May 22...upon his return, Andres hit just .189 through July 19, however, from that point the season turned around...closed the season hitting .301 in the final 45 games, with 8 homers and 29 RBI. 1991—Started slowly, then once the bat began to turn around, an injury incapacitated him for June...was hitting .184 through the first 2 weeks of the season, but went on a tear that raised his season average 105 points to .289...batted .342 during the hot streak, but then was sidelined for 36 games with a left knee injury that required being scoped below the kneecap on June 8...defensively, he had a 34-game errorless streak. 1990—Hit at least 20 home runs for the 3rd straight season...hit 2nd career grand slam on August 21 vs. New York...earned his second consecutive Gold Glove with a career-best .993 fielding pct. 1989—Hit first career grand slam on August 27 at S.F (Craig Lefferts)...excelled defensively, earning the first of 2 consecutive Gold Gloves. 1988—Led the N.L. in hits and doubles, while batting a then-career best .305, and earned his first trip to the All-Star Game...named All-Star 1st baseman by both Baseball America and USA Today...finished in the league's Top 10 in 12 different offensive categories...was named N.L. Player-of-the-Week on 3 occasions, including back-to-back weeks (May 23-June 5)...had a 5-hit game on July 2 vs. Atlanta...of his 29 homers, 20 came before the All-Star break...18 of his HR's either tied the game or gave Montreal the lead...became the 2nd Montreal player ever to post consecutive 90-RBI seasons (Rusty Staub, 1970-71). 1987—Started the year hitting in the #3 spot in the batting order, but after being moved to the #5 spot on May 2, hit safely in 16 of 17 games at a .426 clip, including a .672 slugging pct. 1986—Hampered by injuries during his rookie season, still managed a .271 mark in 105 games...pulled muscles in right rib cage kept him on the disabled list from July 10-August 19...hit safely in 18 of 19 games after returning from the injury. 1985—First season on the AAA level, named the American Association Rookie-of-the-Year, hitting .269 with 25 homers and 87 RBI for Indianapolis...he was such a threat at the plate, he even drew a bases-empty intentional walk during the year...was recalled to Montreal on August 23, and collected first major league hit the next day off L.A.'s Rick Honeycutt...hit first big league homer on Sept. 21 at St. Louis. 1984—Earned Southern League M.V.P. honors with .289 average, 27 homers and 87 RBI at Jacksonville. 1983—Batted .289 at West Palm Beach in 104 games, missing 25 games due to beaning. 1982—Connected for double figures in home runs (14) for first time as a pro...finished with .281 mark at West Palm Beach. 1981—Appeared in 47 games at Jamestown (A), hitting .260. 1980—Second year at Calgary (Rookie), hitting .263, 49 points better than previous season there. 1979—Signed as a non-drafted free agent by the Expos' organization on January 19...made pro debut at age 18 with West Palm Beach, playing in 7 games before going to Calgary.

PERSONAL: Andres Jose Galarraga...he and wife, Eneyda, have two daughters, Andria (12/27/85), and Katherine (8/16/91), and reside in Caracas, VZ...he attended Enrique Felmi H.S. in Caracas...Andres was honored by the Denver Athletic Club as Athlete-of-the-Year for his batting title performance during the Rockies' inaugural season...he was the first player to have a field refurbished and named in his honor in club history, when Andres Galarraga Field opened at the Denver Boys & Girls Club, thanks to a large monetary contribution by the first baseman...nicknamed the "Big Cat" during his minor league career for cat-like reflexes and range at first base.

HOW OBTAINED: Selected as the third pick in the first round of the major league baseball expansion draft from the Milwaukee Brewers, November 17, 1992.

1995 HIGHLIGHTS: Darren bounced back from a frustrating '94 to post a team-high 14 saves, winning the club's Rolaids Relief Award for 1995, setting personal bests in wins (6) and appearances (68)...his season started well throwing hitless relief over his first 4 outings, a 6.0 inning stretch...he snapped a save "dry spell" on May 21 at Cincy, earning his first rescue in over a year dating back to April 24, 1994 at Chicago... from May 10-21, Holmes made 6 appearances, throwing 6.0 scoreless innings, earning a pair of wins and the save at Cincy...his best stretch was also the best by a Rockies' reliever in '95, a 15.1 scoreless inning streak (June 5- July 9), giving up 7 hits in that span with 14 K's...his season ERA fell from 4.42 to 2.45 during the stretch, while winning his 5th game of the year to establish the career-high on June 9 at Chicago...all totaled, Darren was scored upon in just 5 of his first 30 relief appearances of the year... when Bruce Ruffin fell to an elbow injury, Holmes picked up the slack in the closer role, recording saves in 10 of 13 outings from July 3-31, allowing only 2 ER in 13.2 IP for a 1.32 ERA...he failed to convert the save only once during that July streak, and finished the year converting 14 of 18...dating back to early-June through the end of July, Darren gave up 2 ER over a 24-outing stretch, covering 24.1 IP for a 0.74 ERA...of 33 inherited runners, 8 scored...on 5 occasions he entered with the bases loaded, holding the opposition off the board 3 times...he was credited with the victory in the Rockies lone post-season triumph, giving up a couple of scratch hits in the 9th inning, one of which tied the game, but the Rox scored twice in the 10th for a 7-5 win.

CAREER HIGHLIGHTS: 1994—An injury plagued campaign due to an inflamed right elbow, making 29 appearances...he opened the year as the closer, but rescued just 3 of his first 7 chances, suffering 3 losses in that stretch and was moved into the set-up role...he recorded his first save on April 11 at Philly, spoiling the Phils home opener by preserving an 8-7 win, earning it in dramatic fashion before a gathering of 58,627 at The Vet, fanning John Kruk and Dave Hollins with the tying run at 2nd base...just 3 nights later he finished off Philly in the 9th inning to preserve the first shutout in club history, 5-0, after David Nied worked 7.0 IP, and Bruce Ruffin pitched the 8th...as the calendar turned to May, so did Darren's luck, as he was tagged for 6 ER in a 4-inning stretch from May 4-9, eventually leading to his option to AAA on May 17...upon returning to the majors on May 28, he went through stretches of inactivity due an inflamed right elbow and eventually landed on the D.L. in late-July that lasted through the end of the abbreviated season. 1993—After a slow start as the closer, he excelled in the 2nd half to finish tied for 9th in the N.L. in saves with 25 (29 chances)...he earned the first save in club history on April 23 in Denver vs. Florida... season began with just 2 saves in 9 outings, and he was optioned to AAA on May 5 with a 17.19 ERA...he was dominant with the Sky Sox, appearing in 3 games, allowing no ER with 9 K's in 8.2 IP...upon returning to the majors, Darren excelled the rest of the way, posting a 2.43 ERA in his last 53 outings, going 3-1 with 23 saves...he earned Rockie-of-the-Month honors for August, with saves in 9 consecutive games... he closed the year by not allowing an ER in his last 11 games, a span of 13.2 straight innings...he combined the final 2 months of '93 for a 2-0 record and 15 saves with a 1.32 ERA (4 ER in 27.1 IP)...after starting the year going 3-for-6 in save situations, Holmes finished by making good on 22 of the last 23 tries. 1992—Jockeyed between Denver (AAA) and Milwaukee until May 29, when he was recalled to big leagues for the remainder of year...during a pair of stints with the Zephyrs, he earned 7 saves in 12 appearances, allowing 2 ER in 13.0 innings for a 1.38 ERA...with the Brewers, he was 4-4, with 6 saves and a 2.55 ERA in 41 outings...he worked in a set-up role for the majority of the season, at times serving as a closer...only 6 of 35 inherited runners crossed the plate when he was on the mound (17%), tops among Milwaukee relievers...3 of his 6 saves came in the final 2 weeks of the season while the Brewers were chasing division leading Toronto...allowed only 1 earned run in the last 2 months, covering 17 outings and 20.2 IP for a 0.44 ERA...his post All-Star break numbers included a 2-1 record in 21 appearances, with all 6 of his saves and a 1.93 ERA. 1991—Made just 1 relief appearance with Denver before being recalled on April 12 due to an injury to Ron Robinson...had an impressive A.L. debut 2 days later, striking out 6 in a 3-inning stint at Toronto...a month later, May 16, he earned his first major league save with 4.0 innings at Minnesota...was disabled in July (hamstring), then roughed up, allowing 17 earned runs in next 11.2 innings (8 games) as his season ERA rose to 5.79 by August 6...he finished strong by allowing 1 earned run in his last 15.2 innings (9 games) for a 0.57 ERA. 1990—Spent the majority of the season in Albuquerque (AAA) of the PCL, making 56 relief appearances...it was the first time since 1985 that he had been used exclusively as a reliever...outstanding minor league season earned a September promotion to the Dodgers, where he made 14 relief appearances...made major league debut on Sept. 1 at Montreal, with 2.0 scoreless innings...was traded on December 20 to the Brewers in exchange for catcher Bert Heffernan. 1989—Splitting the season between San Antonio (AA) and Albuquerque, used mainly as a starter...he was 5-8 with a 3.83 ERA for San Antonio in 17 games (16 starts), earning a save in his lone relief appearance...after moving to AAA, posted a 1-4 mark and 7.45 ERA in 9 games (8 starts). 1988—Spent most of the year with San Luis Potosi (Mexican League), going 9-9 in 23 games (all starts) with a 4.64 ERA...finished the year with one start at Albuquerque. 1984—Selected 16th in the June free agent draft by the Dodgers and assigned to Great Falls, going 2-5 with a 6.65 ERA in 18 games (6 starts).

ROCKIES POSTPONEMENTS

Contrary to the misnomer that unpredictable weather in the Rocky Mountain Region is not conducive to playing baseball, the Rockies have only had two cancellations in Denver, both coming in the inaugural season. The following is a list of home and road postponements in the club's brief history.

1 Trenidad Hubbard

Outfielder

Ht: 5-8 Wt: 183 B/T: R/R

Age: 29 (Turns 30 on May 11)

Born: May 11, 1966 in Chicago, IL

Residence: Houston, TX

M.L. Service: 77 days

HOW OBTAINED: Re-signed as a minor league free agent, November 14, 1994.

1995 HIGHLIGHTS: Trenidad had his contract purchased by the major league club on August 23, and at the time, he was dominating play offensively in the PCL... playing for Colorado Springs, he led the PCL in 5 categories at the time of his move to the majors, topping the charts in batting (.340), runs (102), hits (163), stolen bases (37) and on-base pct. (.416)...despite not finishing the year with the Sky Sox and missing their post-season, he was named the team MVP...he appeared in 24 games for the Rockies, hitting .458 (11-for-24) during a 7-game streak upon joining Colorado...he had a career-best 3 hits on August 25 vs. the Cardinals, including a 1st inning homer off Mike Morgan...while with the Sky Sox, Trenidad did not go more than 2 games without a hit...after a 5-for-5 game at Calgary on July 3, he was hitless on the 4th of July at Salt Lake City, but following the nation's holiday, Hubbard turned in his imitation of a firecracker, starting a 30-game hitting streak on July 5, that ran through August 7...he was a .424 hitter during the streak (56-for-132) with 13 doubles, 2 triples, 3 homers, 20 RBI and 24 runs scored...included were 11 straight games in which he scored at least one run (14 runs)...he was PCL Player-of-the-Week for July 16-22.

CAREER HIGHLIGHTS: 1994—A memorable year for Hubbard, who had toiled in the minors for 8 1/2 seasons before getting his shot at the majors...the '94 season opened in AAA, where he hit .363 in 79 games with Colorado Springs...he was named to the AAA All-Star team, but his appearance in Nashville was shelved when he earned his first-ever promotion to the big leagues on July 6...in 25 games for the Rockies, Trenidad batted .280, serving mostly as a pinch hitter, going 5-for-12 (.417) in that role...Hubbard picked up his first hit on July 15 vs. St. Louis, an infield single off Rich Rodriguez...he clobbered his first big league homer on July 20 in Mile High Stadium off Chicago's Willie Banks. 1993—Went to spring training as an invitee in the first Rockies camp, and wound up on the AAA roster...he was a .412 hitter in part-time play in June (21-for-51), but in July, hit .339 (39-for-115) in regular duty...his season ended with a 15-game hitting streak in which he batted .429. 1992—Started the year in a part-time role, but wound up the everyday 2nd baseman for Tucson, the AAA club for Houston...had only 70 at bats through May, but began playing regularly the next month and took advantage, hitting .336 in a 28-game span. CAREER—From 1986-88, he was the team MVP each year, at Auburn, Asheville and Osceola.

PERSONAL: Trenidad Aviel Hubbard...he and wife, Angela, make their off-season home in Houston, TX...a native of Chicago, IL, he was a graduate of South Shore High School...he then attended Southern University in Baton Rouge, LA, majoring in Business Management, while playing baseball...while playing college baseball, he was in the middle of a dramatic division clinching play against arch-rival Grambling University...with none out in the 9th inning and Southern clinging to a 2-1 lead, Grambling had runners on 1st and 3rd...the next hitter hit a line drive to Hubbard at 3rd base, who caught it, stepped on the bag and fired to 1st to complete a game-ending, division-clinching triple play...Hubbard is a cousin of former Buffalo Bills all-pro running back, Joe Cribbs.

Ht: 6-0 Wt: 175 B/T: R/L
Age: 23 (Turns 24 on April 11)
Born: April 11, 1972 in Orange, NJ
Residence: Rutherford, NJ
M.L. Service: None

HOW OBTAINED: Acquired from the Milwaukee Brewers in the Rule V Draft, December 5, 1994.

1995 HIGHLIGHTS: His year began at AAA, Bobby's first of 3 stints with the Sky Sox…he was roughed up to the tune of a 7.16 ERA during his first AAA effort totaling 6 outings (5 starts), with 22 ER in 27.2 IP, but he had an outstanding strikeout ratio, fanning 29 men for a 9.4 per 9-inning mark…he was sent to New Haven (AA) in early-May, working relief in his first outing, then making 6 straight starts, winning 3 of 4…from May 25-June 4, Bobby allowed 2 runs in 3 consecutive starts, totaling 6 in 21.0 IP for a 2.57 ERA, fanning 22 in that span…this stint at AA was interrupted for a June 19 start at AAA, going to Colorado Springs for an emergency start vs. Vancouver, working 4.0 frames in a no decision…Jones returned to New Haven after that game and split a pair of starts, then earned his first pro save (July 3 @ Portland)…Bobby again made the cross-country trek to join the Sky Sox, appearing 4 times, including a pair of starts, with no decisions…he returned to New Haven for the final time in late-July and upon rejoining the Ravens, he worked full-time in relief…he finished the regular season with 18 straight relief appearances, going 1-0 with 3 saves and a 2.67 ERA…Jones was not scored upon in his last 8 bullpen outings, a span of 10.1 innings…he then went into the post-season, working twice in each series, totaling a run allowed over 6.2 innings for a 1.35 ERA…he picked up the save in Mike Farmer's win over Portland in the first game of the division playoffs, with 2.0 shutout innings.

B. Jones (continued)

CAREER HIGHLIGHTS: 1994—Picked by the Rockies as a Rule V selection on December 5, after 3 years in the Milwaukee chain...a starter throughout his career, Bobby made 26 at Stockton in the California League, going 6-12, posting 147 K's in 147.2 frames. 1993—Led Beloit in starts (25) and innings pitched (144.2) and finished 2nd in strikeouts (115).

PERSONAL: Robert Mitchell (Bobby) Jones...he is single and makes his off-season home in Rutherford, NJ, in the shadows of the Meadowlands Sports Complex...he was a 1990 graduate of Rutherford High School in his native New Jersey, then attended Chipola (FL) Junior College...he was drafted out of JUCO by the Milwaukee Brewers, signing as a 44th round pick in the 1991 June draft...Bobby went 2-2 in 16 games (3 starts) for the Scottsdale Scorpions of the Arizona Fall League last fall.

Age: 27 (Turns 28 on April 2)
Born: April 2, 1968 in Homestand, PA
Residence: Englewood, CO
M.L. Service: 1 year, 118 days

HOW OBTAINED: Selected as the seventh pick in the third round of the major league baseball expansion draft from the Minnesota Twins, November 17, 1992.

1995 HIGHLIGHTS: Curtis accepted a high profile role in his first full season of big league duty, capping it off by retiring then-Giant Jeff Reed with the tying run on base in the season finale to earn the save in the Rockies' Wild Card clinching game... familiar with the road to and from Colorado Springs, he made the most of this opportunity, leading the majors in appearances (76) while finishing the season with 10 saves and working as the closer in the final days of the pennant race...'95 marked the first full season he was used exclusively in relief, but his 107 K's ranked 2nd on the staff... after splitting a pair of decisions in Houston to open the season, Curtis had a career-best 4-game win streak (June 6-August 20), though runs were crossing the plate to the tune of 14 ER over his first 16 outings for a 5.32 ERA (23.2 IP)...a 1-inning stint on May 30 in St. Louis reversed his season, as from that point he allowed 7 ER over his next 29 trips to the hill, covering 39.0 IP for a 1.62 ERA...included was a 2-0 record with 4 saves...the first save of his pro career took place on June 4 in Coors Field, appropriately enough vs. Pittsburgh, his hometown team...Curtis excelled in July, allowing 3 ER in 18.1 innings, over 17 outings for a 1.47 ERA...his most dominating performance occurred in Three Rivers in front of family and friends, fanning 5 of 6 men he faced in saving a 6-3 win...only 6 of 46 inherited runners scored, including 2 of the last 30...he entered the game with the bases loaded 3 times, preventing the opposition from scoring each time...his 9.83 strikeout per 9-inning ratio led the club and his 102 overall K's marked the 4th 100+ strikeout performance in club history...he appeared in 3 post-season games, absorbing the defeat in Game #1 at Coors Field, surrendering a 2-out, solo homer to Chipper Jones in the 9th inning staking the Braves to a 5-4 win.

CAREER HIGHLIGHTS: 1994—Opened the year at AAA, but earned a mid-season promotion (June 29) after a 3.09 ERA in 16 starts...his lone big league win of '94 was in Wrigley Field on July 6, working 5.1 frames in a 7-1 win over the Cubs...his next 5 appearances came in relief, then made his last start on August 5 vs. the Dodgers, losing, 5-4...he was optioned back to AAA on August 9 prior to the MLB strike, completing the year with the Sky Sox...he finished the AAA season with the 3rd lowest ERA in the PCL at 3.31...he started the first game of the playoffs for Colorado Springs, going 5.0 innings against Albuquerque, and though he did not post a decision, it was the only game the Sky Sox won in the series. 1993—Started the season on loan to a AA club in Wichita, but eventually made it to the majors twice...since the Rox did not have a AA club in '93, Curtis made 7 starts for Wichita, then was promoted to the Sky Sox on May 20...a little over a month later, he was with the big league club, making his major league debut on June 27 at S.F., going 7.0 innings allowing 5 runs (4 earned), losing, 5-0, to Bill Swift...Curtis posted his 1st big league win on July 8 vs. Florida in Mile High, going 6.2 innings allowing a hit, and a run with 5 K's in a 3-2 victory...the lone hit was off the bat of opposing starter Pat Rapp...after 6 starts, he went to the bullpen for 7 outings before being optioned back to AAA...he was recalled to the Rockies on Sept. 3 and made 2 starts before shoulder tightness slowed his progress. 1992—Was traded at the end of spring training with Oscar Munoz from the Cleveland organization to Minnesota in exchange for Paul Sorrento...made 23 starts (26 outings) for Orlando (AA), before being promoted to Portland (AAA) to finish the year...while at Orlando, he led the staff in K's (126) and innings pitched (152.2), then finished year at Portland...while at Orlando, he teamed with current battery-mate Jayhawk Owens. 1991—Pitched at Kinston (A) tying for the Carolina League lead in wins (15), the most of any hurler in the Cleveland chain...he was 2nd in starts (28) and 8th in ERA (2.79), fanning 163 batters in 174.1 IP. 1990—Began pro career with Kinston, going 6-5 in 14 starts, including wins in last 4 outings, including 14 K's in season finale.

PERSONAL: Curtis John Leskanic...he and wife, Susan, and son Brandon Joseph (6/18/94) reside in Englewood, CO...a Pittsburgh, PA, area native, Curtis graduated from Steel Valley H.S. in 1986, then pitched at Louisiana State University, earning all SEC honors...while in Pittsburgh last season, Curtis met his childhood idol, Franco Harris, at Three Rivers, then attended Super Bowl XXX...he and Susan are actively involved in the community, including Curtis' participation in the Winter Caravan...he was originally an 8th round selection of Cleveland in the 1989 June draft.

HOW OBTAINED: Selected in the 25th round of the 1992 June Free Agent Draft.

1995 HIGHLIGHTS: An outstanding season for the former 2-sport athlete from Duke University, hitting .357 at New Haven, then upping that to .361 after a mid-season promotion to AAA...he completed the climb up the organizational ladder by spending the final 2 weeks of the playoff drive with the big league club...his overall .359 average was 3rd among all minor leaguers, while posting the top switch-hitter average in baseball...at New Haven, his average "dipped" to .284 on May 13, then "Q" hit safely in 25 of 28 games, including streaks of 9 and 13 games...in the stretch, he hit .433 (42-for-97) with 20 runs scored, 6 doubles and 4 triples...he was promoted to Colorado Springs on June 25...he split time between left & center for the Ravens, then was the everyday leftfielder at AAA until moving to center for the final 11 games...he hit safely in his first 9 games at the Springs at a .500 clip (15-for-30)...after a 1-for-23 drought, "Q" hit in 19 of his next 22, batting .389 (37-for-95) with 25 runs scored and 13 driven in...he had a .396 mark in August (44-for-111), scoring 27 runs in the 27 games, and was the PCL Player-of-the-Week for July 30-August 5...he hit safely in all 9 of the Sky Sox post-season games on the way to the PCL title, including a .391 mark (9-for-23) vs. Salt Lake City in the finals, scoring 8 runs...he then appeared in 3 games for the Rockies, fanning in his lone plate appearance on Sept. 17 vs. Florida.

CAREER HIGHLIGHTS: 1994—Quinton earned an opportunity to attend big league camp by virtue of his organizational Minor League Player-of-the-Year award for 1993...after the spring work in Tucson, he was the everyday centerfielder at New Haven (AA), leading the Ravens in runs (94), hits (151), doubles (27) and thefts (36)... "Q" took off when the calendar turned to June, hitting safely in 21 in a row at a .292 clip...he had a shorter, but more potent streak in mid-July, hitting safely in 10 straight at a .487 clip...from June 1-July 19, Quinton hit safely in 42 of 47 games at a .307 clip (61-for-199)...though his season mark tailed a little, he still had one more streak in him in August, batting .378 in a 9-gamer, while scoring a run in 10 consecutive contests... he was a .287 hitter from the right side of the plate, while batting .273 as a lefty. 1993—Earned the Rockies' Minor League Player-of-the-Year award while making an in-season switch from 2nd base to centerfield...he led the California League in sacrifices (12)...he also swiped 60 bases in 79 attempts, tops in the Rockies' organization in '93... his season average was in the .220's, before a 9-game hitting streak in mid-June, in which he hit .405...he finished the campaign with a 13-game hitting streak, batting .389, with 12 runs scored. 1992—The 711th player taken in the 1992 June draft, he reported to Bend (OR), but received little playing time until an injury to 2nd baseman Craig Counsell, enabled "Q" the chance to play...his season average was at .212, when he started switch-hitting, then went on a 2-week tear, batting .531 and earned back-to-back Northwest League Player-of-the-Week honors.

PERSONAL: Quinton Antoine McCracken...he makes his off-season home in Southport, NC... a 1988 graduate of South Brunswick High School (NC), he lettered in baseball, basketball, football and track, winning a state title in baseball during his senior season..."Q" then took his baseball and football skills down "Tobacco Road" playing both sports at Duke University in Durham, NC, starting as a defensive back during for 4 years and 2nd baseman in the spring,...the '89 Blue Devil gridiron squad won the ACC championship...while playing both sports, he majored in Political Science/History, earning his degree in 4 years..."Q" has been busy in recent "off-seasons" working last fall as a standout in the Arizona Fall League, hitting .324 in 48 games for the Scottsdale Scorpions, leading the club in runs (29), hits (61) and doubles (11), hitting safely in a league-best 16 straight (Oct. 9-27)...he was named one of the top outfield prospects in a vote of league managers...he had spent the previous 2 winters playing for the Maui Stingrays in the Hawaii Winter League.

Mike Muñoz
Lefthanded Pitcher

Ht: 6-2 Wt: 192 B/T: L/L
Age: 30 (Turns 31 on July 12)
Born: July 12, 1965 in Baldwin Park, CA
Residence: South Lake, TX
M.L. Service: 3 years, 138 days

HOW OBTAINED: Signed to a minor league contract, May 14, 1993.

1995 HIGHLIGHTS: A tale of 2 seasons for Mike, providing solid relief in the first half, but struggling during the second stanza...it was obvious from the outset that he would be busy, appearing in 8 of the first 9 games of the year...he appeared in 4 straight games on 5 occasions in '95...Mike was scored upon in 7 of his first 42 outings, but would give up at least one run in 15 of his final 22 trips to the hill...generally called upon to face just a couple of batters, he had a stretch of 18 consecutive appearances without allowing a run, spanning 12.1 IP from May 22-June 24...his first win of the year started that stretch, retiring Mark Grace in the 9th at home, then watching as the Rox scored a 9-8 win...Muñoz had a career-best 4 K's on May 28 in Pittsburgh, and got into the act offensively, picking up his first big league hit, a double off Jim Gott, also recording his first RBI...he notched his first save on June 9 at Chicago, preserving a 2-1 win...it was his 2nd save with Colorado and took place 367 days after his first, a June 7, 1994 rescue in Mile High...he was haunted by the long ball over the final 2 months, allowing only one over the first 47 times he went to the hill (28.2 IP), but was tagged for 8 over his last 17 outings (15.0 IP)...he had 43 inherited runners on the year, with 10 crossing the plate...after entering 8 bases loaded situations in '94, he did not enter under those circumstances in '95...Mike appeared in all 4 games of the post-season against Atlanta, absorbing the loss in the 2nd game of the series, as the tie-breaking run in the 9th inning was his responsibility.

CAREER HIGHLIGHTS: 1994—Mike spent the entire season with the Rockies, tying for 4th in the majors with 57 appearances...he had a 23-game stretch (May 20-June 29), allowing 2 ER in 21.2 IP for a 0.83 ERA...he closed that streak with an 8-game, 8-inning scoreless stretch posting a pair of wins...his lone save was June 7 vs. the Mets...he entered 8 different bases loaded situations and on 5 occasions escaped the jam unscathed...Muñoz gave up 3 home runs on the year, but went through a 32-game stretch in which he did not surrender a roundtripper, spanning 28.0 innings (May 20-July 15). 1993—Opened the year with Detroit, relieving 8 times, then after refusing an outright to the minors, he declared free agency and signed a minor league contract with the Rockies on May 14...in 40 relief appearances for Colorado Springs, he earned 3 saves with a 1.67 ERA...he was purchased by the big league club on August 22, earning a win over the Mets just a couple of hours after his arrival in Denver. 1992—First full season of major league duty, he made 65 appearances for the Tigers, pitching in mostly one-batter scenarios...was outstanding vs. lefthanded hitters, allowing 14 hits in 73 AB's (.192)... surrendered 4 ER after June 22, a span of 23.2 innings in 38 games for a 1.52 ERA...earned 1st major league victory at Toronto on June 18...notched 1st big league save at Texas on August 15. 1991—Started the year at Toledo (AAA), giving up 1 ER in 22.2 IP, in first 12 games...earned recall to majors on June 18, making 6 relief appearances for the Tigers, then returned to Toledo on July 16. 1990—Began the year with Albuquerque, but was purchased by the big league club just 5 days into the season...made 8 relief appearances for Los Angeles, then was returned to AAA on May 11...appeared in 49 games for Albuquerque, then was traded to Detroit on Sept. 30 in exchange for pitcher Mike Wilkins. 1989—Was the top lefthander used in the Albuquerque bullpen, making a club-high 60 appearances...gave up 2 homers during entire AAA season, but oddly enough, the 1st major league batter he faced, Jeff Richardson, homered on September 6 in Cincinnati. 1988—Excelled at San Antonio (AA), appearing in 56 games, going 7-2 with 14 saves and a 1.00 ERA...save total ranked tied for 4th in Texas League...had a stretch of 27.0 consecutive scoreless innings at mid-season, and was named to the T.L. All-Star squad. 1987—Had 1st taste in relief, after opening the year with 12 starts for Bakersfield...gave up 5 earned runs in last 39.2 innings of work (1.13 ERA). 1986—Pro debut was with Great Falls, going 4-4 in 14 starts.

PERSONAL: Michael Anthony Muñoz...he and wife, Lee Ann, have a daughter, Kailey Ann (10/9/91)...Mike is a graduate of L.A.'s Bishop Amat High School, earning All-City honors as a junior and senior...he then attended Cal Poly Pomona, where he was named 1st team NCAA Division II All-America...during his junior season, Muñoz won his last 10 decisions as Cal Poly Pomona finished 2nd in the Division II World Series.

HOW OBTAINED: Selected as the first pick in the first round of the major league expansion draft from the Atlanta Braves, November 17, 1992.

1995 HIGHLIGHTS: A season he would prefer to put behind him, David was sidelined with an elbow injury throughout the majority of the year...making rehab appearances with Portland, New Haven and Colorado Springs...after a July 31 rehab start, a 4-inning stint, David was activated off the D.L., but optioned to AAA...after showing signs of progression with the Sky Sox, giving up 2 runs over 12.1 innings (2 starts), he was recalled to the majors on August 14, making his first big league appearance on the 15th in Cincy, working 3.0 innings allowing 5 hits and 5 runs...his next outing was 3 days later, again surrendering 5 runs, this time to the Cubs, and he was optioned back to AAA on August 20...all totaled at AAA, Nied was 1-1 in 7 starts, with control his biggest detractor, walking 25 in 30.2 innings...he suffered a rib cage injury that delayed his winter progress, but eventually made it to Puerto Rico, where he pitched for Santurce, where he finally had a pain-free experience.

CAREER HIGHLIGHTS: 1994—David won 9 games, managing to do so despite the off-field distraction of he and wife, Malissa, having a baby boy 4 months premature...he was once again part of Rockies' history, working the first 7.0 innings of the first shutout in club history, on April 14 in Philly then gave the ball to Bruce Ruffin and Darren Holmes, snapping Colorado's string of 169 games without a shutout...less than a month later (May 8) in San Diego, David went 8.0 shutout IP, then watched from the dugout in the 9th, as the Rockies scored the lone run in the game on a bases loaded walk...he went the distance on June 21 vs. Houston in Mile High Stadium the first-ever complete-game shutout in club history, and the Rockies' first-ever shutout in Denver, scattering 4 hits and a walk with 4 K's in an 8-0 win over Darryl Kile...that shutout began a career-best 4-game winning streak, covering 5 starts, in which he gave up 11 ER in 35.0 IP for a 2.83 ERA, including 2 complete games...all of this success on the field occurred while Malissa and newly-born son, Tanner David, were residing in New York over a 2-month period while young Tanner was slowly gaining enough weight to make the trek to his Denver home...Tanner was born on June 4 in New York, over 4 months prior to his expected due date, and was finally able to make the move home on October 8. 1993—David's career with the Rockies began as the first player taken in the 1992 expansion draft, just one of many "firsts"...he was the starter in the first regular season game in club history, April 5 against the Mets in Shea, losing 3-0 to Doc Gooden, as David went 5.0 innings allowing 6 hits and 2 runs...his next start was a 9-5 win over the Expos in Mile High, starting a 3-game winning streak...the middle victory in the streak was his first big league complete game on April 15, avenging his Opening Day loss to Gooden, 5-3...the streak concluded with an 11-2 win in St. Louis on April 21, where he carried a shutout into the 8th inning...things went south after that win, as Nied dropped 6 straight decisions over 7 starts...he started an exhibition game at Colorado Springs on June 3, an opportunity to get in some work, but it turned disastrous, suffering a slight tear in his ulnar collateral ligament requiring 2 months of rest...his first post-injury start in the majors took place on Sept. 12 in Pittsburgh, allowing a run on 4 hits in 3.2 IP...the 6-game losing streak that had been alive since prior to the injury was snapped on Sept. 17 in Mile High Stadium, going 5.0 shutout innings earning a 12-3 win over the Dodgers, the same night the Rockies broke the 4,000,000 mark and the MLB all-time season attendance record...he had a streak of 14.0 consecutive scoreless innings before losing a 6-4 decision at Candlestick Park on Sept. 28. 1992—First AAA stint, he led the International League in wins (14) and K's (159) while pitching at Richmond, tying for the lead in complete games (7)...won 10 of 13 decisions by June 28...he allowed 1 ER in first 19.0 IP of the year with 22 K's...had back-to-back starts, July 25 and July 30, combining for no runs on 4 hits and 5 walks with 16 K's in 17.0 IP...he earned a promotion to Atlanta in late-August, helping the Braves clinch their 2nd straight N.L. West crown...was a member of the 25-man postseason roster, but did not appear...was 3-0 with a 1.17 ERA in 6 outings (2 starts) with Atlanta, while opponents hit .130. 1991—Opened the year at Class A Durham, going 8-3 in 13 games (12 starts) with a 1.56 ERA, fanning 77 in 80.2 innings, with opposing hitters batting .162...he was promoted to Greenville (AA), winning 7 of 10 decisions with a 2.41 ERA in 15 starts...fanned 101 and walked 20 in 89.2 IP in AA...all totaled in '91, had 178 K's in 170.1 innings. 1990—For the second straight season, he opened at Durham, and finished at Burlington. 1989—Began the season at Durham, going 5-2, but with a 6.63 ERA and an opposing batting average of .303 in 12 starts prompting a move to Burlington. 1988—Signed as 14th round pick and reported to Sumter (12-9).

PERSONAL: David Glen Nied...he and wife, Malissa, and son, Tanner David (6/4/94), make their home in Englewood...a Texas native, David was an '87 graduate of Duncanville High School, earning all-state honors in both baseball and football...he quarterbacked during his prep gridiron career which included handing the football off to former Pittsburgh Steeler running back Barry Foster.

Ht: 6-1 Wt: 213 B/T: R/R
Age: 27
Born: February 10, 1969 in Cincinnati, OH
Residence: Castle Rock, CO
M.L. Service: 169 days

HOW OBTAINED: Selected as the twelfth pick in the first round of the major league baseball expansion draft from the Minnesota Twins.

1995 HIGHLIGHTS: A converted outfielder,'96 is his opportunity to be an everyday catcher, his 5th pro season behind the plate...Jayhawk spent the first 4 months of '95 with the Sky Sox, but after an injury to Matt Nokes, he was recalled for the remainder of the season serving as the #2 catcher...he made an impressive debut, starting on August 6 in Coors Field against San Diego, and going 4-for-4 with a pair of homers and 3 RBI...it was the 2nd multi-homer game of his brief big league career, also hammering a pair on July 25, 1993 in Mile High vs. St. Louis, the last time he had homered in the majors...Owens was used sparingly down the stretch, making 10 starts over the final 55 games, but while playing nailed 5 of 8 potential base thieves...he was a .314 hitter (11-for-35) with 4 homers and 9 RBI through his first 14 games, but finished the season in an 0-for-10 drought...he fanned in his only at bat in the post-season series vs. the Braves...he left the Sky Sox with a 14-game hitting streak alive in which he had batted .419 (18-for-43) with 14 runs scored, 3 doubles, 2 triples, 4 homers and 13 RBI... Jayhawk had a pair of 2-homer games during his time with Colorado Springs, and homered in back-to-back games at Calgary on July 2 & 3...behind the dish, Owens threw out 41% of the would-be base thieves, nabbing 29 of 71.

CAREER HIGHLIGHTS: 1994—Jayhawk spent the majority of the year on the AAA level, participating in only 6 games for the Rockies after a knee injury sidelined Joe Girardi... his first start with Colorado was July 14, tripling and scoring 3 times vs. St. Louis...he wound up 3-for-12 during his brief stay with the Rockies then returned to AAA for the balance of the season...while with the Sky Sox, the majority of his offensive production took place prior to his recall, including a 2-double, 5-RBI affair at Phoenix on April 12...Jayhawk's best stretch at the dish was a 7-game hitting streak from May 23-June 1, when he hit .591...he combined May & June to hit .348...his season ended abruptly when he missed the majority of the final month and the playoffs after having a bone spur removed from his left knee. 1993—His first year of experience above the AA level, Owens began in Colorado Springs and was hitting .325 with 28 RBI thru 37 games, when he was recalled to the big leagues for the first time due to a hand injury to Girardi...he singled off Philly's Curt Schilling in his first big league AB on June 6, starting a 6-game streak, in which he batted .474...he set a career-best 3 hits and 3 RBI on June 12 vs. Houston...hit his first big league homer on June 25 at Candlestick Park off the Giants' Bryan Hickerson...busted out of 0-for-21 slide with 2-homer game on July 25 vs. St. Louis...Jayhawk was optioned back to Colorado Springs on August 11 to complete the AAA season, then was recalled again on Sept. 6, batting just once the rest of the way. 1992—His first season as a catcher, after 2 years as an outfielder... caught at Orlando (AA) of the Southern League, hitting .267 in 102 games with 24 doubles...swiped 10 bases, marking the third straight year of double figure thefts...was hit by 11 pitches. 1991—His play was limited to 65 games at Visalia (A) due to a broken left hand that occurred in a car accident prior to the start of the season. 1990—Started at Kenosha (A), batting .236 overall, however, was particularly effective at home, hitting .294...was hit by 13 pitches during first professional campaign.

PERSONAL: Claude Jayhawk Owens II...he and wife, Jennifer, make their year-round home in Castle Rock, CO...Jayhawk was a 1987 graduate of Glen Este H.S. in Cincinnati, lettering in baseball, basketball and football, then attended Middle Tennessee State University...he was originally drafted by the Boston Red Sox out of high school, however, chose to attend college, then signed as a 2nd round pick of the Twins' in '90...Jayhawk comes from an Indian heritage, with his grandmother on his father's side, full Cherokee Indian...he has a grandfather named, Iowa, and aunts by the names of Florida and Nevada...the relatives are from Kentucky and Tennessee, and there is also Apache Indian and Irish blood in the lines...Jayhawk spent the off-season making appearances on behalf of the ball club, including a stint on the Winter Caravan.

HOW OBTAINED: Selected as the fourth pick in the second round of the major league baseball expansion draft from the San Diego Padres, November 17, 1992.

1995 HIGHLIGHTS: The season started on the wrong foot, as Lance sprained an ankle very early in the abbreviated spring training, opening the season on the 15-day D.L....once activated, the annual multi-treks down I-25 began, but in '95 his late-season contributions would be instrumental to the pennant drive...Lance made 2 brief appearances prior to May 15, then was optioned to AAA when rosters were reduced...he was recalled on June 5, but after 3 outings was returned to the Springs...he was recalled a final time on July 12, and gave the organization reason to keep him at the big league level...Lance entered his 3rd stint of the year with the Rockies carrying a 13.50 ERA through 5 outings, but from July 13-August 11, put together a stretch of 15 games, covering 20.1 innings, when the only runs he surrendered came via a 2-run homer by NY's Ryan Thompson on July 14...after that home run, Lance worked 16.2 straight innings without allowing an earned run, spanning 13 games...he was credited with the victory in the Wild Card clinching win over the Giants on Oct. 1, retiring the only man he faced, then watching as the Rox bounced ahead for the 10-9 win...his best single-game performance was in Philly on July 25, retiring all 10 men he faced in 3.1 IP, 4 via strikeout...earned first major league save on August 16 at Cincy, recording final out to preserve 6-4 triumph, his first save as a pro since '90 season at Spokane, when he worked in relief after being drafted by San Diego...Painter's only regular season start was a 12-2 win over the Braves in Coors Field on Sept. 12, going 5.0 innings allowing a pair of solo homers...he was tough on the first batter he faced when entering a game, retiring 28 of 33 (85%), while allowing 6 of 27 inherited runners to score, including 2 of the last 16...he appeared in the first 2 games of the Division Playoffs vs. Atlanta, as he was forced to pinch hit with the bases loaded in the 9th inning of Game #1, fanning vs. Mark Wohlers...the next night, Painter was the starter, working 5.0 innings with 5 hits and 3 runs, 2 of which coming off solo homers, while fanning 4...while going 3-0 in 33 big league games, he was 0-3 in 11 games for the Sky Sox.

CAREER HIGHLIGHTS: 1994—Lance started his 2nd straight year at AAA, but wound up with a pair of big league stints, going 4-6 and earned the Rockies' Rookie-of-the-Year honor from the local chapter of the BBWAA...he posted back-to-back wins on June 17 & 22, winning in L.A., 13-5, then beating the Astros in Denver, 14-5...he passed his '93 win total on July 16 in Mile High beating the Cards, 15-4, followed by an 8-3 win on August 1 at Houston...his lone relief appearance took place 3 days after his win in the Astrodome, going 2.0 innings...he was 4-3 with a 4.79 ERA in 13 overall starts for Colorado Springs. 1993—A strong spring camp earned him his first AAA assignment...his first look at the majors occurred on May 19 against his former organization in San Diego, a 7-3 loss...he was optioned to AAA on June 2, then rejoined the Rockies on August 27, sporting a new number due to the acquisition of Bruce Hurst, who took the #47...this time around, donning #28, Painter went 2-0 with a 2.96 ERA, allowing 8 ER in 24.1 IP...posted first major league win on August 29 in New York, a complete game, 6-1 triumph scattering 5 hits...he followed that with a 10-4 win vs. Pittsburgh...while with the Sky Sox, Painter made the AAA All-Star team that competed in Albuquerque. 1992—Was 10-5 with a 3.53 ERA in 27 starts for Wichita (AA), opening the year by winning 5 of his first 7...had season-high 11 K's on July 30 in win at Arkansas...tossed complete game shutout during playoff series against Shreveport. 1991—Led all Class A pitchers with 4 shutouts...he fanned 201 hitters in 200.0 innings, with 7 complete games, placing him 2nd in the league in each category, while his win total ranked 4th...won M.V.P. honors for Waterloo, as well as a spot on the Midwest League All-Star team. 1990—Signed as a 25th round selection of the Padres in the June draft and spent the majority of the year at Spokane working in relief...he went 7-3 with a 1.51 ERA, striking out 104 men and holding the opposition to a .174 mark.

PERSONAL: Lance T. Painter...he and wife, Kelly, make their home in Englewood, CO...Lance was a 1985 graduate of Nicolet (WI) H.S., where he tossed a perfect game during his senior season of baseball...he then attended the University of Wisconsin, pitching for the Badgers...born in Bedford, England, Lance was officially "Americanized" prior to the '94 season...he has been active in the off-season making appearances on behalf of the ball club, including a stint on the Winter Caravan.

Ht: 6-0 Wt: 218 B/T: R/R
Age: 28 (Turns 29 on October 20)
Born: October 20, 1967 in San Francisco, CA
Residence: Altamonte Springs, FL
M.L. Service: 1 year, 19 days

HOW OBTAINED: Signed as a minor league free agent on January 31, 1995.

1995 HIGHLIGHTS: Harvey's first year in the Rockies' organization was highlighted by earning a spot on the Pacific Coast League All-Star team, finishing the year with a .327 mark for the league champion Sky Sox...he led the PCL in homers (25), RBI (91), slugging pct. (.614) and extra-base hits (61), while also scoring 90 runs...July was the only month that he did not hit over the .300 mark, but he made up for that by batting .426 (23-for-54) over the last 2 months despite missing some time due to a leg injury...in that season-ending stretch, he hit safely in 13 of 15 games, picking up multiple hits in 9 of those contests, including 5 homers and 18 RBI...Harvey's year started strong, hitting safely in the first 5 games at a .524 clip (11-for-21) with 3 homers and 10 RBI...included was a 4-for-5 affair at Las Vegas on April 11, with 2 doubles and 2 homers...he topped that outing on June 6 at home vs. Tucson, homering in his first 3 at bats, while driving in 8 in a 12-8 win over the Toros...he was the PCL Player-of-the-Week for May 21-27...Harvey was a .333 hitter in the 9 post-season games for the Sky Sox, going 7-for-18 (.389) in the 4 games vs. Tucson, followed by a .286 mark (6-for-21) in the championship series with Salt Lake...he combined the 2 series' for 6 doubles and 3 homers, totaling 28 bases for a post-season slugging pct. of .718...his best individual performance was the 2nd game of the Tucson series, going 4-for-5 with 3 doubles, a homer and 3 RBI...his contract was purchased by the Rockies for the stretch run, appearing as a pinch hitter in 5 games, going 2-for-5, including a homer on the next to last day of the season, hitting a solo blast off San Francisco's Pat Gomez.

CAREER HIGHLIGHTS: 1994—He signed as a minor league free agent with the San Diego organization on February 3, and spent the entire campaign with Las Vegas (AAA)... his .229 average for the Stars was his lowest full-season minor league mark since his initial campaign with Sarasota in 1986 (.208)...he did manage 20 home runs and 53 RBI in his 95 games. 1993—Harvey appeared in 27 games on the major league level with Kansas City, the most work he experienced in 3 partial big league seasons...he opened the year with the Royals, but played sparingly in the outfield until his outright to AAA on June 28...his home run and first 2 RBI of the year came on May 5 at Detroit...he appeared in 54 games for Omaha, hitting .264. 1992—He made a brief appearance with the Royals at mid-season, playing in 4 games after a May 29 recall from Omaha...he went 1-for-5 in his near month in the majors before being returned to AAA on June 25...he had 7 homers in August for Omaha, including a 3-homer contest on August 28 vs. Oklahoma City, driving in 6 runs. 1991—His year began on the AAA level, but on August 6, Pulliam received his first call to the majors... he made his debut on August 10 vs. Cleveland, getting his first big league hit in his 2nd at bat off the Tribe's Dave Otto...next start was 3 days later in New York in the 1st game of a twinbill, as Harvey logged his first 2-hit game, including his first big league homer, a 3rd inning solo shot off of Jeff Johnson...Pulliam opened his big league career with a 4-game hitting streak, going 5-for-10...he had the lone major league multi-homer game on August 27 vs. Chicago, hitting a 4th inning inside-the-parker, followed in the 6th frame by a park departer, which drove in 3, both dingers coming off of Wilson Alvarez. 1990—His only full season at Omaha, he batted .268 in 123 games, helping the AAA Royals to the American Association and Alliance Championships. 1989—At Memphis (AA) he ranked 7th in the Southern League with a .290 average and earned a spot on the All-Star team...his efforts were honored at the 19th Annual Baseball Awards Dinner in Kansas City as the Royals' Minor League Player-of-the-Year...he was also named the MVP of the Southern League All-Star Game, hitting a 2-run homer and a triple in midsummer affair. 1988—His 2nd straight 21-steal season, this time at Baseball City, and the last time he pilfered a double figure total. 1986—Harvey signed with the Kansas City organization as their 3rd pick in the June draft, and struggled in his pro debut, batting .208 in 48 games at Sarasota.

PERSONAL: Harvey Jerome Pulliam Jr....he and wife, Debbi, have three daughters, Ashley (1/23/91), Alexis (8/21/94) and Amanda (9/15/95), and they make their off-season home in Altamonte Springs, FL...he was a 1986 graduate of McAteer High School in San Francisco, lettering in baseball and football...both the baseball and football teams won championships during his senior season, as he was named Player-of-the-Year for each sport.

COLORADO ROCKIES

Ht: 6-2 Wt: 190 B/T: L/R
Age: 33 (Turns 34 on November 12)
Born: November 12, 1962 in Joliet, IL
Residence: Elizabethton, TN
M.L. Service: 10 years, 21 days

HOW OBTAINED: Signed as a free agent, December 21, 1995.

1995 HIGHLIGHTS: Jeff completed 3 years in the San Francisco organization, starting 24 games behind the plate in '95...he was an overall .265 hitter in 66 contests, his 2nd best big league average over 12 seasons...Reed hit safely in 16 of his 24 starts, with the Giants posting wins in 13 of the 24 games in which he called the signals...all 24 starts came vs. righthanded pitching for the lefthanded swinging catcher...his best offensive contest was May 6 in San Diego, a 4-for-4 performance, with a walk, run and RBI...he was 12-for-28 (42.9%) against would-be basestealers...a late-inning sub on May 26 at New York, Jeff doubled and scored the tying run in the 7th inning, then dropped a perfect sacrifice in the 9th inning to put the winning run at 3rd base...Reed was 3-for-14 with a pair of RBI as a pinch hitter, and is now a member of the "Can't beat 'em, join 'em" club, as he was the final out in a pinch-hit role in Coors Field when the Rockies clinched their Wild Card spot.

CAREER HIGHLIGHTS: 1994—Jeff was limited to 19 starts behind the plate, getting 103 at bats on the year...he appeared in 11 games (6 starts) after the All-Star break, hitting .296 (8-for-27) with 6 RBI in 11 games...hit only home run Aug. 6 at Houston, a 3-run, 9th inning blast off John Hudek...he batted .222 (4-for-19) with 2 RBI in a pinch-hit role, which included a game-winning single in the 10th inning of a 2-1 win vs. Philly on July 10...Jeff was 4-for-21 (19%) in nabbing potential base thieves. 1993—Made the ball club as a non-roster invitee, making 23 starts as the Giants' 2nd catcher...the club was 17-6 in games Jeff started, as he hit safely in 17 of those at a .321 clip (25-for-78)...Reed established a career best with 6 homers, including 2 as a pinch-hitter (May 28 in Atlanta off Marvin Freeman and June 23 at Candlestick off S.D.'s Mark Ettles)...Jeff pegged 42.9% of the potential base thieves (12-of-28)...strained left hamstring caused a D.L. stint (June 30-August 3), ending with a rehab assignment at San Jose. 1992—His final season with Cincy was injury-riddled, appearing in 8 games before going on the D.L. with a right elbow injury...had bone spurs removed arthroscopically on May 5, then did not to play until a rehab assignment (Aug. 17-31) at Nashville (AAA)...Jeff was activated on Sept. 1, going 0-for-7 as a pinch-hitter. 1991—Platooned the majority of the year with Joe Oliver, posting career bests in batting (.267), hits (72), doubles (15) and RBI (31), though 2nd half injuries limited playing time...Reed hit lone career grand slam on June 25 in Riverfront off San Diego's Andy Benes...Jeff was hitting .281 before a home plate collision on June 30 with Houston's Eric Yelding, caused stress fractures in 3 ribs and a right ankle sprain. 1990—Hit .170 prior to the All-Star break, but bounced back to hit .287 in the 2nd half...Jeff hit .308 in July and had a .302 mark in August, as Reds pulled away in N.L. West...he started 2 games in the NLCS vs. Pittsburgh, going 0-for-7, but did not see action in the World Series vs. Oakland. 1989—He started 87 games for the Reds, sharing 1st half duties with Bo Diaz, then splitting the catching chore with Oliver in the 2nd half...Jeff had his best career single-game on May 1 at Montreal vs. his old mates, going 5-for-5 with a homer and 3 RBI. 1988—Opened the year with the Expos, then was dealt to Cincy on July 13 as part of a 5-man deal...he worked in a platoon role until a knee injury felled Diaz and made Reed the everyday catcher for the final 5 weeks...the Reds were 28-14 in the games Jeff caught. 1987—Prior to the start of spring training, Reed was traded from Minnesota to Montreal (February 3) in a 6-man package...he was the Opening Day catcher for the Expos in Cincinnati, but went on the D.L. on April 20 with a dislocated left shoulder, then platooned upon returning on May 25. 1986—Season started in Toledo, but was called up to Minnesota in early-May. 1985—Played the entire AAA season at Toledo, then earned a September recall to the Twins, appearing in 7 games (2-for-10). 1983—Earned a spot on the Southern League All-Star team while playing for Orlando (AA). 1982—Was named to the California League All-Star team while playing for Visalia (A). 1980—Jeff's first pro season was in Elizabethton.

PERSONAL: Jeffrey Scott (Jeff) Reed...he and wife, Karen, and three children, Lynzie (10/17/87), Lance (11/18/90) and Lacey (7/30/92), make their home in Elizabethton, TN, where his pro career began in 1980, while also meeting his bride Karen during his that season...he was an '80 grad of West Joliet (IL) High, then was a 1st round choice, 12th pick overall, by the Twins in the June draft...his brother, Curt, played in the San Diego and Chicago White Sox organizations (1977-84).

Ht: 6-2 Wt: 212 B/T: R/R
Age: 30
Born: March 11, 1966 in Los Angeles, CA
Residence: Arvada, CO
M.L. Service: 2 years, 133 days

HOW OBTAINED: Selected as the fourth pick in the third round of the major league baseball expansion draft from the San Francisco Giants, November 17, 1992.

1995 HIGHLIGHTS: Steve had his best major league season, setting career bests in outings (71) and strikeouts (79)...he also led the staff by limiting opposing hitters to a composite average of .203, while his 2.14 ERA was 2nd to pen-mate Bruce Ruffin (2.12), though he nearly doubled Ruff in games...Steve's ERA dropped below the 3.00 mark on June 8, and continued down to its lowest point of 1.66 on August 14...Steve had a sub-2.00 ERA until allowing 3 runs in his last 2 outings...he had 2 excellent stretches, the first from May 19-June 24, allowing 2 ER in 15.2 IP for a 1.15 ER (15 games)...he bettered that from July 3-August 14, surrendering 1 ER in 21.2 IP for a 0.42 ERA (21 games), dropping his season mark from 2.49 to 1.66...he matched his career-high of 4 K's on 3 occasions, giving him 5 career 4-K outings...Reed has a knack of participating in Rockies' shutouts, working the 9th in the lone blanking of '95, a 6-0 win in Pittsburgh, the 4th of 5 club shutouts that he has pitched in...he closed the season with 3 straight wins, including back-to-back on Sept. 15 & 16 at home vs. Florida...he retired 73% of the first batters faced (52 of 71), including his first 8 outings...on 6 occasions, Reed entered with the bases loaded, and 5 times they remained full...13 of 53 inherited runners scored...he picked up his first career hit in '95, a single off SF's Shawn Barton on June 27 in Candlestick... Reed pitched in 3 of the 4 playoff games vs. Atlanta, allowing 2 hits over 2.2 frames, with an intentional walk and 3 K's...he was an overall 5-1 with 2 saves in Coors Field and entered 1996 a combined 13-6 in Denver.

CAREER HIGHLIGHTS: 1994—Steve led MLB with 61 appearances, with his best work in the first half, giving up just 11 ER in 35.1 IP for a 2.80 ERA (32 games), including a 7-game, 9.2 scoreless inning stretch (April 27-May 13)...he had a more impressive 10-game, 10.0 scoreless inning streak (May 21-June 6)...his 1st save preserved a 1-0 Rockies' win in San Diego on May 8...Steve earned the save in the final win of '94, working an inning vs. Atlanta of a rain-shortened, 1-0 win in Mile High on Aug. 10, the night before the abrupt end of the season...Reed was the winning pitcher in the 1st win in club history at Riverfront Stadium in Cincy, working 2.0 innings on June 12 for a 3-2 win over the Reds, snapping Colorado's 10-game losing streak there. 1993—Spent most of '93 on the big league club, ranking 2nd in wins (9) and outings (64)...initial win was on April 23 in Mile High in the first-ever meeting between the Rockies and Marlins, working 3.1 innings of 1-hit relief...despite that win, he had a 10.50 ERA through 11 games and was optioned to AAA on May 12...he made the most of his time with the Sky Sox, earning 7 saves in 11 games, not allowing an ER in 12.1 IP...he returned to the Rox on June 14 and giving up 3 ER in his first 24.0 IP (June 14-July 19) for a 1.13 ERA...Reed posted his first big league save on July 11 vs. St. Louis...7 of his 9 wins came in Mile High, but his road ERA was 1.60 (6 ER in 33.2 IP). 1992—Won Rolaids Relief Man-of-the-Year honor for the 17-league National Association (minor leagues) with 129 points, earning a combined 43 saves...ranked 3rd in both the PCL and Texas League in saves, despite spending only half a season in each circuit...began at Shreveport (AA), earning 23 saves in 27 games with a 0.62 ERA (2 ER in 29.0 IP), while not walking a batter, and opponents hit .175...promoted to Phoenix on June 15, earning saves in 8 of first 10 outings...made big league debut on Aug. 30 vs. Cubs...did not allow a run in first 6 big league outings...earned first major league win on Oct. 2 at Cincy. 1991—Began at Shreveport, going 2-0 with a 0.83 ERA and 7 saves in 15 games...promoted to Phoenix on May 21, leading the Firebirds in appearances with 41. 1990—Spent the entire year at Shreveport, leading the club in ERA (1.64). 1989—Pitched most of the year at Clinton going 5-3 with a 1.05 ERA and 26 saves, holding opponents to .171 mark, and was named to league All-Star team... appeared twice for San Jose at the end of the season. 1988—Signed as an undrafted free agent on June 24 and reported to Pocatello...13 saves earned him Pioneer League Rolaids Relief Pitcher-of-the-Year honors, and a spot on the league All-Star team.

PERSONAL: Steven Vincent (Steve) Reed...he and wife, Terry, have a son, Dylan Austin (3/10/94) and make their home in Arvada, CO...Steve is a graduate of Chatsworth (CA) High School and attended Lewis & Clark (ID) College...he and Terry were active in the community during the off-season, while also being regulars at McNichols Arena as season ticket holders to the Colorado Avalanche.

COLORADO ROCKIES

Ht: 6-3 Wt: 210 B/T: R/R
Age: 23 (Turns 24 on June 3)
Born: June 3, 1972 in Oak Lawn, IL
Residence: Englewood, CO
M.L. Service: 77 days

HOW OBTAINED: Selected in the 2nd round of the June 1993 Free Agent Draft.

1995 HIGHLIGHTS: Bryan made the big jump in '95, starting the season at AA and winding up in a pennant race in the majors, as all 3 clubs he played for during the year wound up in post-season play...his big league debut took place on July 19 in Coors Field vs. Philly in front of an ESPN audience, and after giving up 2 hits to open the game, Rekar wound up with a 5-3 win, allowing 7 hits and 3 runs over 6.1 IP...his next start (July 24) was a rematch at The Vet, tossing the only complete game for the Rockies in '95, defeating Tyler Green for the 2nd straight game, this time, 11-3...it marked the first CG by a Rockies' hurler since July 7, 1994, when David Nied went the route vs. Florida...Bryan won his 3rd in as many big league starts July 29 in Montreal, working 8.0 IP in a 5-3 win...he combined his initial 3 outings for a 3.09 ERA, allowing 8 ER in 23.1 IP with 14 K's...he lost 6 of his last 7 decisions, though there were highlights including a big league best 8 K's on August 10 at Florida, then matching that vs. Chicago 10 days later...he was outstanding vs. the Cubs, allowing 3 hits and 2 runs in 8.1 innings, both runs via solo homers, including a game-tying shot in the 9th by Brian McRae...Vinny Castilla won the game with a 2-run blast in the bottom of the 9th...Rekar's last win was in Pittsburgh on August 30, working 8.0 frames in the only shutout of the season, a 6-0 triumph...he followed that with a heartbreaking setback in Wrigley Field, his first pro appearance in his hometown, giving up a 1st inning, 2-run homer to Sammy Sosa after an error, as those unearned runs stood up in a 2-0 setback, with Bryan allowing 4 hits over 7.0 frames with 6 K's...after starting 0-for-24 at the plate with 15 K's, he picked up his first major league hit on Sept. 23 at S.F. off Jamie Brewington...Rekar opened the year at New Haven (AA), going 6-3 with a 2.13 ERA in 12 starts, fanning 80 in 80.1 innings, as opponents hit .215...after going 0-2 through 5 starts, he won 6 straight from May 3-29, giving up 5 ER in 44.2 IP for a 1.01 ERA...outstanding performance on May 13 in 4-1 win over Norwich, fanning first 5 men, then last 6 he faced in 8-inning, 14-K outing...named Minor League Pitcher-of-the-Month for May, then a week into June, made the move to AAA...his promotion to the Springs included a 4-2 mark and a 1.49 ERA in 7 starts, with 2 CG and a shutout, holding the opposition to a .175 average...he gave up 1 ER in his first 30.1 IP in AAA... all totaled, of the 8 ER in 48.1 total IP at the Springs, 5 runs came in one outing (June 29 vs. Las Vegas)...he blanked the opposition in 3 of his starts, and surrendered one run in his other 3 outings...he won Pitcher-of-the-Week honors for May 8-14 in the Eastern League, giving up one run on 5 hits in back-to-back wins, covering 15.0 IP...he then earned the same award for the PCL in his 2nd week of AAA duty (June 18-24) throwing shutout ball over 2 outings, spanning 14 IP, surrendering 4 hits, with 14 K's.

CAREER HIGHLIGHTS: 1994—Bryan opened the season as a non-roster invitee to major league spring training and spent the entire regular season at Central Valley (A) of the California League...he compiled a 6-6 record with a 3.48 ERA in 22 appearances (19 starts), walking only 31, while fanning 91 in 111.1 innings of work...his ERA ranked 10th among California League hurlers. 1993—First year as a professional was spent as a starter in Bend (OR), posting a 3-5 ledger in 13 starts...picked up his first pro win on June 29, his 3rd start, tossing 6.0 scoreless innings at Bellingham, scattering 4 hits...his strikeout high came in his next-to-last start of the year, when he fanned 11 in 8.2 innings at home vs. Southern Oregon.

PERSONAL: Bryan Robert Rekar...he is single and spent the majority of his off-season in the Denver area...he was a 1990 graduate of Providence Catholic High School in New Lenox, IL, also lettering in football and basketball...he then attended Bradley University in Peoria, IL, twice earning first team All-Conference honors in the Missouri Valley, setting a school record for career shutouts with 6...Bryan's cousin, Pete Bercich, is a linebacker and special teams standout for the Minnesota Vikings.

HOW OBTAINED: Selected as the third pick in the third round of the major league baseball expansion draft from the Atlanta Braves, November 17, 1992.

1995 HIGHLIGHTS: The winningest pitcher in Rockies' history took a little extra time before hitting the hill in '95, recovering from reconstructive elbow surgery on May 26, 1994...after being deemed ready for action, Armando reported to AAA for a rehab assignment, and had an exceptional start on May 18, going 7.0 scoreless innings in a 3-2 win at Tacoma, allowing 4 hits, but recurring pain forced him back to the sidelines for a couple of weeks...he returned to the Springs on June 8, and after a streak of 10.0 straight scoreless frames he was activated for big league duty...he made his '95 debut with the Rockies on June 18, pitching in relief against the club that the injury originally occurred, the Atlanta Braves, working an inning with 2 runs on 3 hits...4 days later, Reynoso was tabbed the starter in San Diego, winning a 3-2 decision with 5.0 frames of 5-hit, 2-run ball...it was his first win on the big league level in 57 weeks, dating back to May 15, 1994...the victory over the Padres began a stretch of 15 consecutive starts for Reynoso, going 6-6...it included a string of 10 straight decisions (July 8-August 27), going 4-6...he scuffled through a 3-game slide from July 14-26, but snapped out with a 3-2 win in Montreal on July 31, working 6.0 IP, allowing a run on 5 hits...he saved his best performance of the year for a key time, winning a 3-1 decision in Candlestick Park on September 24, giving the Rox a split of the 4-game set and keeping them 1/2-game up at the time in the division race...Reynoso gave up a run on 3 hits in 8.0 innings, the lone tally a solo homer...known for one of the best moves by a righthanded pitcher, Armando lived up to his billing by nabbing 7 runners in '95, giving him 20 in under 3 full seasons with the Rockies.

CAREER HIGHLIGHTS: 1994—The Opening Day pitcher, going 6.0 innings in a no decision effort against the Phils on April 4 in Mile High...he was limited to only 9 starts before suffering an elbow injury that required surgery, as Dr. James Andrews transplanted a ligament from Reynoso's left wrist into his right elbow to strengthen and add support to the injured area...following that procedure, Dr. Andrews also arthroscopically repaired Armando's right knee that had given him trouble in the early-going...Reynoso went 3-4, including a complete game victory in Denver over the Cards, 10-1 on May 3...in that affair, he surrendered a game-opening homer to Ray Lankford, then stifled the Redbirds on 4 hits the rest of the way...in the start prior to that victory, Reynoso faced the Cardinals in St. Louis and also gave up a leadoff homer to Lankford in the 1st inning, only this time lost a 2-1 decision...Armando's next-to-last start prior to the injury was 7.0 innings of shutout ball, on May 15 in Houston, a 4-0 win over the Astros...despite the limited work due to injury, Reynoso found time to pick 5 runners off before succumbing to surgery. 1993—He opened the year on the AAA roster, but by season's end, his 12 wins earned him club Pitcher-of-the-Year honors, while tying him for the 2nd most victories by an expansion pitcher, 1 shy of the all-time mark...he was recalled from the Sky Sox on April 30, making an immediate impression, going the distance in Florida in a 6-2 win...his 4 complete games on the year came in his first 5 victories...twice had a career-high 8 K's, each time in route-going efforts vs. the Giants (May 10 in Denver and June 26 at SF)...the streak stopper of the starting staff, with 11 of his 12 wins coming after a Rockies loss, and of his 7 no decisions, the Rockies posted 6 wins...he was 7-3 in his 11 Mile High Stadium starts...he had 8 pickoffs, the highest total by an N.L. RHP...at the plate, Reynoso's first major league hit was a home run on May 10 in Denver off the Giants' Trevor Wilson...he hit a 2nd home run on August 28 in Shea Stadium off Bobby Jones, a 6th inning, 3-run shot, leading to a 7-5 win. 1992—Spent 2nd full year on the AAA level, going 12-9 with a 2.66 ERA in 28 games (27 starts) at Richmond...combined June and July for a 7-0 mark in 11 starts, allowing 12 ER in 73.2 IP for a 1.47 ERA...from July 18-28, went 3 starts without allowing an earned run, covering 22.0 IP...was promoted for the 2nd straight year to Atlanta in Sept., going 1-0 with a 4.70 ERA in 3 games (1 start). 1991—Was 10-6 with a 2.61 ERA at Richmond earning a spot on the AAA All-Star team...made 19 starts in 22 outings, with 3 shutouts...had contract purchased from Richmond on August 8 and won major league debut 3 days later with 6.0 scoreless, 2-hit frames against Houston...also won his next start on August 16 at San Diego (7.0 IP, 6 H, 2 ER, 5 K's)...the majors got their first look at his outstanding move to 1st base, evidenced by 6 pickoffs in 4 starts from August 16-31, with 5 coming in 1st inning. 1990—Signed with Atlanta as a free agent from the Mexican League on August 15.

MEXICAN LEAGUE: Went 20-3 with a 2.60 ERA in 27 starts for Saltillo in 1990...had 12 complete games, including 5 shutouts and fanned 170 batters in 200.2 innings...tossed a 7-inning no-hitter against Monterrey...in 3 seasons for Saltillo, was a combined 44-23 with 29 CG and 9 shutouts...teamed for 2 seasons with Vinny Castilla.

PERSONAL: Martin Armando Reynoso (Gutierrez)...he and wife, Yolanda, have a daughter, Alejandra (11/3/89), and son, J. Armando (3/16/93) and reside in Jalisco, MX...he returned to Mexico to work in Winter Ball during the off-season, strengthening his surgically repaired arm...a 1984 graduate of Escuela Secundavia Mista del Estado in his native Lagos de Moreno Jalisco, Mexico...after high school, Armando played semi-pro baseball in Mexico until joining the Saltillo club in '88.

HOW OBTAINED: Selected as the tenth pick in the second round of the major league baseball expansion draft from the Detroit Tigers, November 17, 1992.

1995 HIGHLIGHTS: Kevin proved recovered from his 1993 elbow reconstruction, leading the staff in wins (11), starts (28), innings (173.1) and K's (120)...after a pair of no decisions, he posted back-to-back wins over San Francisco and at Florida in mid-May...the victory in Joe Robbie also witnessed his first offensive news, a single off Pat Rapp snapping a career 0-for-22...Kevin would eventually collect 9 hits on the year...his first loss was a tough one in his home state, a 2-0 decision to the Reds in Riverfront, with 7.0 innings of 7-hit, 2-run ball...he won 3 straight starts (June 3-13), including an impressive 30th birthday present in Chicago on June 8, as Kevin tied his career best with 9 K's, winning a 5-3 decision, allowing 2 runs on 5 hits over 7.0 IP...the last time he fanned 9 was at age 24 as a member of the Tigers (August 2, 1989)...the 3-game winning streak began a stretch of 12 consecutive decisions (June 3-August 2), going 7-5...over a longer haul, he was involved in the final outcome in 18 of 21 games (May 9-Aug. 19), going 9-9...after an outstanding 8-inning performance in Montreal on July 28, an 8-3 win, things went south for Ritzy, as he struggled through an 0-5 August, which included his first relief appearance as a member of the Rockies...he worked 0.2 of an inning on Aug. 6 vs. San Diego, his first relief duty since July 3, 1992...in early-September, the bullpen would be where Kevin rebounded and turned it up for the pennant drive...on Sept. 9 at home vs. the Reds, he worked 4.0 innings allowing a run on 4 hits, earning his first pro save since 1986 with Lakeland...he followed that 3 days later with another save, this time holding the Braves at bay for 4.0 innings, retiring all 12 men he faced, 4 via strikeout...his return as a starter was highlighted by back-to-back wins on the final west coast road trip, at San Diego and at San Francisco...he beat the Padres, 5-1, with a 7.2 inning stint allowing 3 hits and an unearned run, attaining 10 wins...he followed that with a 6-1 victory in Candlestick Park, pitching on 3 days rest and allowing 2 hits and a run in 6.0 innings...Ritz was tabbed the starter for the first playoff game in franchise history, going 5.1 innings vs. the Braves on October 3, allowing 7 hits and 3 runs (2 earned), departing at the time with a 3-2 advantage...he was the scheduled starter had a 5th game been necessary, but he was pressed into service in Game #4, going 1.2 innings of relief on 3 days rest, allowing 5 hits and 4 runs.

CAREER HIGHLIGHTS: 1994—After missing all of '93 due to elbow surgery, Kevin attended spring training as a minor leaguer...assigned to AAA, he made 9 appearances for the Sky Sox (3 starts), giving up 5 ER in 35.0 IP for a 1.29 ERA, going 5-0 in that span...he earned a promotion to the Rockies on May 25, making his N.L. debut with a 5-inning, 2-run no decision vs. Cincy, a game the Rox won, 3-2...his first win came on May 30 in Shea Stadium, a 12-2 defeat of the Mets, working 6.0 innings in posting his first major league triumph since July 24, 1992, while with Detroit...he had a 3-game win streak over 4 starts (July 5-25), working 6.0 innings in each win...Kevin posted the Rockies final win of '94, going 5.2 innings in the club's only win ever over Atlanta in Mile High Stadium, a rain-shortened 1-0 triumph. 1993—Kevin went to spring training with the Rockies, but battled an arm problem that led to having his right elbow surgically reconstructed by Dr. James Andrews, as Ritz missed the entire campaign. 1992—His season was shortened due to the start of his elbow problems, suffering from tendinitis in late-July, and sidelined him after August 4...he opened the year in the pen, making 11 appearances, but by May 29, entered the rotation, starting 11 of his next 12 outings...a victory on June 3 in Milwaukee, was his first in the majors since the 1989 season, putting an end to a 10-game personal losing streak. 1991—He started at Toledo (AAA), then was recalled to the Tigers on May 31...Ritz went 0-3 in 5 starts with an 18.00 ERA for Detroit, and returned to AAA on June 23...he was recalled again in late-July, remaining with Detroit the rest of the year...Kevin finished 5th in the I.L. with a 3.28 ERA. 1990—He opened the year in the majors, but after an 0-4 start, was optioned to Toledo on April 27. 1989—He started the year in Toledo, then after 16 starts, his contract was purchased on July 13 for his first big league stint with the Tigers...his major league debut was a 9-3 loss 2 days later in Seattle...his first big league win came on July 28 in the opener of a DH vs. Minnesota, going 6.0 innings in a 6-4 triumph...his only major league complete game was on August 2, a 6-4 win over Texas in Tiger Stadium...he was tagged for homers in his first and last start, the only homers he surrendered in 74.0 innings...he earned Tiger Rookie-of-the-Year honors. 1988—Spent the entire season at Glens Falls, limiting opposing hitters to a .229 average. 1987—His first season at Glens Falls, he led the club in wins (8) and IP (152.1). 1986—His first year as a pro, Ritz split the season between Gastonia and Lakeland...at Gastonia he limited opposing hitters to a .218 average, then went to Lakeland.

PERSONAL: Kevin D. Ritz...he and wife, Sally, have a daughter, Molly (10/12/92), and son, Kyle Lucas (3/22/95)...Kevin was a 1983 graduate of Davis County (IA) High School, then attended Indian Hills Junior College, the same school that Rockies' scouting director Pat Daugherty coached for 17 years.

18 Bruce Ruffin

Lefthanded Pitcher

Ht: 6-2 Wt: 215 B/T: S/L

Age: 32 (Turns 33 on October 4)

Born: October 4, 1963 in Lubbock, TX

Residence: Austin, TX

M.L. Service: 8 years, 124 days

HOW OBTAINED: Signed as a free agent to a minor league contract, December 8, 1992.

1995 HIGHLIGHTS: Twice disabled during the year didn't prevent Bruce from being a major contributor to the team's success down the stretch...a nagging left elbow injury shelved the veteran lefthander twice, the first time in his 11-year career that he served time on the D.L...he was effective early, as it was to be his first year as the full-time closer, recorded 7 saves in his first 7 opportunities, covering 12 trips to the hill...the 7th save in that stretch was his most impressive, but probably most costly, entering a bases loaded, nobody out situation, getting a double play, then a strikeout to preserve the 6-3 win, but it was his last outing prior to his first trip to the D.L., as the elbow flared up and shelved Ruff until June 17...upon his return to action, Bruce made 3 appearances, earning a save in San Diego on June 22, his 8th straight on the year, and 11th consecutive conversion dating back to '94...unfortunately, he was stymied again by the elbow and this time missed nearly 2 months, not returning to action until August 20...after receiving medical clearance, he made a pair of appearances at New Haven (AA) totaling 2.0 innings, with 2 K's...Bruce was eased back into big league action, working 4.2 innings in his first 6 post-injury outings, then returned to the rescue role at St. Louis on Sept. 3, saving a 5-4 decision in 11 innings...he was worked hard and performed well down the stretch, appearing in 10 of the last 14 games of the season, allowing 2 earned runs over his final 10.2 innings...unlike his previous seasons, he was involved in only one decision and it was a heartbreaker, giving up a grand slam to former-Rockie Danny Sheaffer in the 9th inning on August 26...he was charged with 3 of those runs, marking the only time that Ruff gave up more than a run in a game all season... prior to that outing, he had compiled an overall ERA of 0.95.

CAREER HIGHLIGHTS: 1994—Bruce opened as the set-up man, but a month into the season, became the closer and wound up with 16 saves, 8th best in the N.L...his 56 appearances were 6th most in the majors...after blowing his first save chance on May 7, he converted 9 straight...the 2 runs that crossed the plate in the blown save were the only blemishes in a 16-game stretch that covered 17.1 innings from April 14-May 23, posting a 1.04 ERA...Bruce was tagged for 3 homers in his first 47.0 innings of the year, each time handing the lefty a loss by snapping a tie game...after losing a save opportunity in Atlanta on June 16, he closed the year with rescues in 7 of his last 8 chances. 1993—Made the club as a non-roster invitee and started the 2nd game in club history at New York, losing a 6-1 decision...in July he became a full-time reliever, making 42 appearances, going 3-1 with 2 saves and a 2.40 ERA in that span, while limiting opposing hitters to a .208 average...a weird "break" made him almost unhittable after August 18... on that night, he was nailed on the left foot by a line drive hit by Philly's Darren Daulton...Ruff suffered a fractured toe on the play, then finished the year by going 1-0 with 2 saves and a 1.25 ERA, fanning 43 in 36.0 IP...immediately following the injury, he retired 18 consecutive men and did not give up a hit in his next 10.0 IP...he set a club record with 16.0 consecutive scoreless innings from August 23-Sept. 9...his save on Sept. 11 vs. Pittsburgh was his 1st since July 31, 1988 vs. Chicago...his 2nd save was one of the most dominating performances all year...in the 1st game of a doubleheader vs. Houston on Sept. 14 in Mile High, he went 4.0 innings, with 9 of the 12 outs coming via the strikeout...that relief stint established a club record for K's in a game and tied his all-time best that occurred twice previously as a starter...he set a career-high with 126 K's, breaking his previous best of 93 set in 1987 with Philly, despite pitching 65.0 fewer innings in '93...he did not allow an ER in 19 of his last 22 outings. 1992—His only A.L. duty saw a 1-6 mark and 6.67 ERA in 25 games (6 starts) with Milwaukee...lone win was on April 8 over Twins... was sent to Denver (AAA) after 21 games with Brewers, pitching well for the Zephyrs, going 2-0 with a 1.25 ERA in 3 starts, including a streak of 16.0 straight shutout innings at the time of his return to Milwaukee on August 5...his best outing for the Brewers came in a loss 7 days later in Anaheim, as he went all the way allowing 4 hits and 2 runs while tying a career best with 9 K's, losing a 2-1 decision...he was traded to the Brewers on December 11, 1991, in exchange for infielder Dale Sveum. 1991—He began the season at Scranton-Wilkes Barre, going 4-5 in 13 starts, with a complete game...was recalled to Philadelphia on June 8, making 5 relief appearances...had an emergency start on June 21 vs. Houston and went 8.0 innings allowing 3 hits and no runs for a combined shutout, earning a 2-month stint in rotation...he tossed 3rd career shutout on July 20 at San Diego, allowing just 2 hits while fanning 6. 1990—Was used as a starter in 25 of 32 appearances...struggled through a 6-game losing streak...established career-high with 9 strikeouts on June 5 at St. Louis. 1989—Made 23 starts (24 outings) for Phils, going 6-10 with a 4.44 ERA...was sent to Scranton-Wilkes Barre after just 2 starts, but went 5-1 in AAA and was recalled on June 2. 1988—Began the year in the starting rotation for Philly, but after 15 outings was moved to the bullpen...finished with a career-high 55 appearances and the first 3 saves of his career. 1987—Set career highs in wins (11), starts (35), innings (204.2) and K's (93). 1986—Was tied for the Eastern League lead in wins (8) and ranked 2nd in strikeouts (68) when he was brought up by the Phils on June 24 to replace Steve Carlton in the rotation, made his major league debut 4 days later in St. Louis...first big league win came on July 3 vs. Cincinnati before a crowd of over 60,000 at The Vet...Phillies were 15-6 in his 21 starts...finished 9-4 with 6 complete games and was named the starting pitcher on TOPPS Rookie team. 1985—Signed as a 2nd round choice by the Phillies in the June draft...was a compensation pick for Pittsburgh's signing of Sixto Lezcano...went 5-5 in 14 starts at Clearwater with a 2.88 ERA.

PERSONAL: Bruce Wayne Ruffin...he and wife, Melissa, have two sons, Chance (9/8/88) and Hunter (7/8/91), and daughter, Madison (8/21/95), and reside in Austin, TX...a graduate of J.M. Hanks H.S. in El Paso, TX, lettering in baseball and football...then attended the University of Texas (Austin), where he was a member of the 1983 College World Series champions, teaming with future major leaguers Roger Clemens and Calvin Schiraldi...he was a member of the 1984 & '85 teams that also went to Omaha, but fell short of winning the title.

Righthanded Pitcher

COLORADO ROCKIES

Ht: 6-1 Wt: 200 B/T: R/R
Age: 31 (Turns 32 on April 11)
Born: April 11, 1964 in Chicago Heights, IL
Residence: Babylon, NY
M.L. Service: 11 years, 119 days

HOW OBTAINED: Acquired from the New York Mets with a player to be named (Dave Swanson) in exchange for pitchers Juan Acevedo and Arnold Gooch, July 31, 1995.

1995 HIGHLIGHTS: Bret's season started with the New York Mets, but just with an hour before the trade deadline, he went from 20 games out of a pennant race right into the fire…he split 10 decisions for NY, going 5-5 in 16 starts, completing 3 of those contests…with the Mets he had a 4-game winning streak (June 13-28), posting a 2.12 ERA, giving up 8 ER in 34.0 IP…that was followed by a 3-game slide, which included a setback, both on the field and physically, to his future teammates…Sabes suffered a strained muscle in his lower left side in a 2.0 inning stint against Colorado on July 15, winding up with a 5-4 defeat, while being forced to rest for 2 weeks…he returned to action in time to make one more start for the Mets, working 8.0 innings on July 29 vs. the Pirates, his 300th big league starting assignment…Bret was not involved in the decision, a 2-1 N.Y. win, giving up 3 hits and a walk, while fanning 7, facing only 2 men over the minimum…his initial appearance with the Rockies took place in Coors Field on August 3, and though it was not a work of art, it was a win, knocking off the Dodgers, 9-4…Sabes brought new definition to the term "scattering" as L.A. had 13 hits and scored 4 times in 6.1 innings, while he walked 4 and K'd 7…his next 2 starts came on what turned out to be a disastrous road trip for Sabes, though he was not involved in any decisions…he worked into the 9th inning of a game in Florida on August 8, but the first 3 men in the 9th reached base, and would eventually score, as the Marlins won a 5-4 decision in 13 innings…he worked on August 13 in Atlanta, giving up 6 hits and 2 runs in 7.0 innings of work, but both runs were solo homers and the Braves wound up with a 3-2 win, scoring a run in the 9th…the club then traveled to Cincinnati, where Bret threw on the side between starts and it was there that he felt damage occur in his right shoulder…the injury would haunt him the rest of the season, eventually requiring off-season surgery and forcing him to miss at least the early going in '96 in an attempt to rehabilitate the affected area…he tried to make his next start after suffering the pain in the shoulder, but had a disastrous outing at home vs. the Cubs, the shortest of his career, giving up 7 ER in 0.1 of an inning, as Chicago rolled to a 26-7 win…he posted 3 decisions in a Colorado uniform, the other win also coming vs. the Dodgers, this time in Chavez Ravine, a 7-3 victory in crunch time on Sept. 28…Bret did a solid Houdini imitation in his Rockies' starts vs. the Dodgers, stranding 22 men in 11.2 innings of work…with the shoulder causing him much discomfort, Sabes took the hill in the regular season finale vs. the Giants, but was roughed up for 6 runs in 2.0+ innings, but the Rockies came back for a 10-9 win to clinch the wild card spot…he also tried to take the ball in Game #4 of the playoffs vs. the Braves, but took the loss, going 4.0 frames allowing 6 runs (5 earned) on 7 hits, losing 10-4.

CAREER HIGHLIGHTS: 1994—It was a shame the '94 season was cut short for a lot of reasons, but a good one would have been to see how Bret would have finished over a full year, leading the Mets with a 14-4 ledger and 2.74 ERA, the 2nd best ERA in the N.L., while his win total ranked 3rd…control was the key for Sabes, who walked only 13 men in 177.1 innings for a 0.7 walks per 9-IP ratio, which not only led the majors, but established a modern day record (since 1900)…he was the 4th modern day hurler to record more wins than walks in a season of at least 150.0 IP, joining Christy

Mathewson, who did it twice (1913: 25 wins & 21 walks and 1914: 24 wins & 23 walks), and Slim Sallee (1919: 28 wins & 20 walks)...from May 10-June 13, Sabes set a Mets' mark by not allowing a walk in 47.1 straight innings...he had 13 games with no freebies and 9 in which he allowed 1 walk...he was named the N.L. Pitcher-of-the-Month for July, going 4-0 with a 1.43 ERA, the 5th time he has been so honored, 1st time in the N.L...he was named to his 3rd All-Star Game, but did not pitch...he had a 7-game win streak at the time of the strike, posting a 1.51 ERA during the skein, covering 9 starts with 5 walks and 62 K's in 71.2 IP...he tied a career best with 10.0 innings of work on July 15 vs. SD, allowing no runs on 5 hits, with no walks and 11 K's...he picked up the first RBI of his career on July 5 at SF, doubling off John Burkett...durable in '94, he worked 7.0 or more innings in 19 of 24 starts. 1993—An injury riddled season, missing time with both elbow and knee injuries...a bone spur problem cropped up in late-June, missing 12 days, then while warming up for a start on August 7 vs. the Pirates, he damaged his left knee, forcing arthroscopic surgery to repair a torn medial cartilage 2 days after the injury occurred...on Sept. 21, he had the bone spur and some loose fragments removed from his right elbow...while healthy, his first 2 wins came over the Rockies, then he fell into a 1-7 slide...he finished the year going 4-0 in his last 5 starts, then the injuries hit...he tossed a 3-hit shutout over Florida on May 10, (1-0). 1992—His first year with the Mets was twice interrupted by D.L. stints with an inflamed index finger on his right hand...he was 3-2 with a 0.64 ERA when the injury flared up the first time, leaving a start in L.A. after 5.0 innings on May 15...after 2 cortisone shots, he returned to active duty on July 18, making 3 starts before going back on the shelf...he was activated on Sept. 7, working a pair of games in relief... from April 18-May 14, he tossed 26.0 straight scoreless innings, the 2nd longest stretch of his career. 1991—He closed out his 8-year career with Kansas City, highlighted by the only no-hitter of his career, a 7-0 win over Chicago on August 26 in Royals Stadium... he fanned 5 and walked 2 in the 4th no-no in Royals' history, 1st since the '77 season by Jim Colborn...he posted his 100th win on May 10, a 2-1 win at Milwaukee...Bret K'd the 1,000th hitter (Greg Gagne) in his career on May 31 vs. Minnesota...missed a month (June 13-July 12) with tendinitis in his right rotator cuff...he earned Royals' monthly pitching honors for May and August, giving him 13 such honors with KC. 1990—The winning pitcher in the 61st All-Star Game, going 2.0 perfect innings in the A.L.'s 2-0 win at Wrigley Field...he was the Royals Pitcher-of-the-Month for May, going 3-1 with a 2.53 ERA in 6 starts, including 3 consecutive complete game wins...on the D.L. from July 16-Sept. 10, undergoing arthroscopic surgery on July 23 to remove 2 small bone fragments from his right elbow...returned to make 2 starts in late-Sept. 1989—Sabes won the 2nd Cy Young Award of his career, leading the majors in wins, ERA, complete games, innings and winning pct., capturing 27 of the 28 first place votes...he was then the 9th pitcher to capture more than one Cy Young honor...also named Royals' Pitcher-of-the-Year, The Sporting News' A.L. Pitcher-of-the-Year, and the A.L. Consort Control Pitcher-of-the-Year...he also won the Rawlings Gold Glove as the top fielding pitcher...his 23 wins set a Kansas City club record, finishing the year with wins in 20 of his last 22 decisions, going 15-2 with a 1.74 ERA after the All-Star break...had a career-best 8-game winning streak (July 26-August 31)...Bret was the A.L. Pitcher-of-the-Month for August, winning a club record 7 games with a 1.58 ERA...he followed that with a 6-1, 0.98 ERA in September...tossed a club record 31.0 straight innings without an earned run from Sept. 17-26, and allowed 8 ER in his last 80.0 IP of the year for a 0.90 ERA. 1987—Named the A.L. Comeback Player-of-the-Year, going 18-10 after a 7-12 ledger in '86...he was the starting pitcher for the A.L. in the All-Star Game at Oakland, the first Royal to start the midsummer classic, working 3.0 innings allowing a hit with no walks or K's...he was 15-3 with a 2.47 ERA at the All-Star break...Sabes won his first 6 decisions, which included a pair of 2-hitters, taking no-hitters into the 7th each time...he won A.L. Pitcher-of-the-Month for April, going 4-0 with a 1.32 ERA...had another 6-game winning streak from May 19-June 17, completing 3 games in that stretch...won his 10th decision on June 4 in his 11th start, the fastest 10-game winner in K.C. history. 1986—Struggled throughout the season with sore right foot and shoulder...won 2 games in first 2 months, both by shutout, blanking Boston on 2 hits, 1-0 in Fenway Park (April 16) and posting 5-0 win over Baltimore on May 2...was 6-10 when placed on 15-day D.L. on August 12 (retro to August 10) with shoulder stiffness, then did not pitch again until Sept. 6. 1985—Became the first Royal and 3rd-youngest pitcher ever to win the Cy Young Award at age 21 (behind Dwight Gooden at age 20 and Fernando Valenzuela also at 21)...Sabes posted his 20th win on Sept. 30 at 21 years, 5 months and 19 days, the 5th youngest 20-game winner in history...he was the A.L. Pitcher-of-the-Month for July going 5-1 with a 2.05 ERA...he won 18 of his last 21 decisions, starting streak with 3-0 win over Milwaukee on May 17...the stretch included 7 straight wins (July 23-Sept. 2)...helped lead Royals to only World Championship, winning both World Series starts vs. St. Louis, allowing a run on 11 hits in 2 complete games for a 0.50 ERA...he became both a father and World Series MVP in 36 hours, winning the award with an 11-0 shutout of Redbirds in deciding 7th game, then son Drew was born 2 days later. 1984—Became youngest Royal to appear in a game, working 4.2 innings of 3-hit relief on April 4 vs. Yanks, at 19 years, 11 months and 24 days...earned 1st big league win in his 1st start on April 19 at Detroit, 5-2...had 1st shutout on Sept. 24 blanking the Angels, 4-0 on a 3-hitter...he picked up his only pro save on July 23 vs. Toronto...he was the youngest starting pitcher in LCS history, starting game #2 vs. Detroit at age 20. 1983—His only year of minor league baseball, and was named to Baseball America's First-Year Pro All-Star squad...he was a combined 16-7 with a 2.55 ERA at Fort Myers (A) and Jacksonville (AA), winning first 6 pro decisions and earning a spot on Florida State League All-Star team.

PERSONAL: Bret William Saberhagen...he has a pair of sons, Drew (10/26/85) and Daulton William (3/4/92), and a daughter, Brittany (9/5/86)...he was born in Chicago Heights, IL, but raised in the Los Angeles area, graduating from Cleveland High School in Reseda, CA, in 1982...he was 9-0 with a 0.85 ERA as a senior, while also hitting .362 to lead his school to the L.A. City Championship...he was named Los Angeles High School Player-of-the-Year, capping the season by tossing a no-hitter in the city championship game played in Dodger Stadium, the first no-hitter in L.A. prep playoff history...was selected in 19th round of '82 draft by Kansas City as a shortstop.

COLORADO ROCKIES

Ht: 6-0 Wt: 197 B/T: R/R
Age: 34 (Turns 35 on October 27)
Born: October 27, 1961 in South Portland, ME
Residence: Paradise Valley, AZ
M.L. Service: 9 years, 40 days

HOW OBTAINED: Signed as a free agent, April 8, 1995

1995 HIGHLIGHTS: Joined Colorado at the outset of spring training and became the 3rd Opening Day hurler in as many seasons, joining David Nied and Armando Reynoso as lid-lifter starters...Bill was not involved in the outcome of the April 26 marathon vs. the Mets, a game the Rox won, 11-9, in 14 inn, working 6.0 frames allowing 5 runs, the big blow a grand slam by Todd Hundley...Swifty was 9-3 in his first year with the Rockies, recording only one decision in his first 6 starts, a 10-6 win in Florida on May 12...a sore right shoulder inhibited his mound time throughout the campaign, with the first sign of trouble coming in a May 27 start at Pittsburgh, where he was roughed up for 7 runs on 7 hits in 2.0+ innings of work...Bill went on the D.L. on June 5 (retroactive to May 28) to rest...he returned to the hill on June 16 at home against Atlanta, and pitched well despite his 2nd straight loss, giving up a run in 5.0 innings, but losing a 2-0 decision to Tom Glavine...Swifty's next start on June 21 vs. Florida not only snapped his brief 2-game slide, but started a club record 7-game winning streak, matching his personal best...the streak encompassed 9 starts and another trip to the D.L., but he began by winning 5 consecutive mound appearances (June 21-July 20)...he posted a 2.41 ERA, giving up 9 ER in 33.2 IP in the 5-start win streak...included in that stretch were exemplary performances during a west coast trip at San Francisco and at Los Angeles...he won a 5-1 game in his old home park of Candlestick on June 27, giving up 2 hits over 7.0 scoreless innings...he followed that 5 days later in Dodger Stadium, going 8.0 innings, giving up a run on 4 hits, winning a 10-1 decision, fanning a club record 10...the winning streak was interrupted by his 2nd D.L. stint, going on the shelf retroactive to July 26 and through the month of August...after returning to work in Sept., Swifty continued the skein with wins over Cincinnati and at San Diego...the streak was snapped with a tough 4-3 loss in Dodger Stadium on Sept. 25, giving up 2 earned runs in 6.0 innings...he picked up a "must" win on Sept. 30, taking a 9-3 win over the Giants on the next to last day of the season, an appropriate score that closed his regular season record at 9-3...Swifty started the 3rd game of the Division Series Playoffs in Atlanta, going 6.0+ innings allowing 7 hits and 4 runs, leaving with the Rockies up, 5-4...the Rox eventually posted a 7-5 win in 10 innings.

CAREER HIGHLIGHTS: Since joining the N.L. prior to the 1992 season, Bill has posted a 48-22 ledger and 3.09 ERA, making 100 appearances including 92 starts...during his first 4 seasons of major league duty with the Mariners, he was 23-34 with a 4.78 ERA. 1994—Bill led the Giants' starting staff in ERA for the 2nd straight year (3.88)...his best work came in the first half of the season, going 8-5 with a 2.64 ERA through mid-June...Swifty began the year allowing only 1 ER in his first 3 starts, covering 21.2 IP for a 0.42 ERA...he was cruising with a 6-3 record and 2.61 ERA through 9 starts, when his right side tightened during a start at Houston on May 17, forcing him to the D.L. for the first of 2 stints...he marked his return on June 6, going 8.0 innings at Pittsburgh, allowing just a solo homer in a 4-3 victory...Bill and his sinker recorded 21 of 24 outs via the ground ball, with first baseman Todd Benzinger tying a N.L. record with 20 putouts, 2 shy of the major league standard...that win put the wraps on a 4-game winning streak that had began prior to the injury, posting a 1.57 ERA in that stretch, allowing 5 ER in 28.2 IP...after 3 more starts, going 1-2 in those outings, Bill suffered from inflammation in the lat muscle on his right side and was shelved for a month...he made 4 starts after his 2nd stint on the D.L., going 0-2...the "Stick" was no problem, as Swift went 5-2 with a 1.98 ERA in 9 starts at home. 1993—Bill went 21-8 with a 2.82 ERA, to combine with John Burkett (22 wins) as the winningest duo in the majors...they were the first 20-win tandem for San Francisco since 1966 (Juan Marichal and Gaylord Perry)...Swift's performance earned him the 2nd place vote in the Cy Young Award balloting behind perennial winner Greg Maddux... Bill had winning streaks of 7, 6, 4 and 3 games...he gave up 2 ER or less in 20 of his 34 starts, including 8 starts with no earned runs...his wins, starts, innings pitched (232.2) and strikeouts (157) were all career bests, winding up 3rd in the N.L. in wins, 4th in ERA, 5th in opponents batting average (.226) and 6th in winning pct. (.724)...he closed the year with 4 straight wins and a 0.56 ERA, allowing 2 ER in 32.0 IP...Swift formed his own 21-21 club, getting 21 hits at the plate, while earning the 21 victories...the 21 hits were one more than the previous club record for a pitcher, when Marichal had 20 in 1968.

1992—Bill won the N.L. ERA crown with a 2.08 mark, the lowest title qualifier since '85 (Doc Gooden, 1.53), and the 2nd lowest in S.F. history (Bob Bolin, 1.98 in '68)...in 14 of his 22 starts, Swift allowed 1 or no earned runs, and had 3 or fewer in 19 of the 22 starts...in half of his 8 losses, he posted a 1.13 ERA, giving up 3 ER in 24.0 IP, as the Giants were blanked in 3 of those games...from the "obscure record file", he tied a M.L. record on May 2 vs. the Phillies by recording all 3 putouts in an inning, the 9th pitcher in history...he had a whirlwind first month, winning as the opening day hurler on April 6 in Los Angeles, 8-1, then tossed a 6-hit shutout in Atlanta in his next start on April 11...from there, he flew to home to be with his wife, Michelle, who was expecting the couple's 2nd child, but when that did not occur, he returned to the club for his next start on April 16, going the distance in a 6-1 win over San Diego at The Stick, also going 2-for-4 with a pair of doubles at the plate...he upped his mark to 4-0 with a 6-1 win on April 21 in the Astrodome, then returned to Washington, where his daughter, MacKenzie, was born 2 days later...he went on the D.L. on May 23 with inflammation in his right shoulder, missing 26 games, as the Giants went 8-18...upon his return, Swift was tagged with a tough first loss, a 1-0 decision on July 2 to St. Louis, allowing an unearned run in 6.0 IP...he went back to the D.L. on August 25 with a strained right triceps muscle and switched to relief after his return in Sept. 1991—For the first time in his career, and final year with Seattle, he was used exclusively in relief, leading the staff with 17 saves (18 opportunities) in 71 games, 4th most in the A.L., while setting a club mark for relievers with a 1.99 ERA...he didn't make his '91 debut until April 26, missing the first few weeks with a pulled right calf muscle...his first save was May 6 vs. New York...had a stretch of 17.0 consecutive scoreless innings (June 25-July 30), then after giving up 2 runs on July 31, he began a shutout streak of 15.1 straight frames...had 11 saves with a 1.36 ERA after the All-Star break...he was named Seattle's Pitcher-of-the-Year by a vote of the area BBWAA. 1990—Swift spent the majority of the season in the bullpen, relieving in 47 of 55 games, going 6-4 with 8 saves...he led the club in ERA with a 2.39 mark, which included a 0.50 month of June...his first start resulted in 8.0 innings of 3-hit ball at Cleveland on July 15...he was literally knocked out of a start on August 5, taking a Gary Gaetti line drive off his forehead...he was strong as a starter, going 3-2 with a 2.10 ERA, but then returned to the pen for the remainder of the year...he excelled indoors, posting a 1.34 ERA in the Kingdome. 1989—Season started on the D.L. due to a pulled groin in spring training...after a pair of rehab starts at San Bernardino, he was activated on April 27, making one relief appearance before going the rotation on May 1...best outing was Sept. 30, a complete game 4-hitter vs. Minnesota, allowing one run...his first major league save was on July 29 vs. Oakland...he was 2-0 in relief and 5-3 as a starter. 1988—Swift opened the year in relief, but had a brief stint there, making just one bullpen appearance...tossed a complete game victory on May 28 in the Kingdome over the Yankees, 6-1, as the Mariners set a major league record with 22 infield assists...tossed first major league shutout on June 26 vs. KC...had a 6-game losing streak, July 2-August 16, and was returned to the bullpen. 1987—Had a short season, starting the year in Calgary, making 5 starts, but injuring his elbow on April 21, spending the remainder of the campaign on the D.L...he had bone spurs removed from the elbow on June 11. 1986—Bill opened the year in relief, then moved to the rotation on June 1...after 4 starts, he was optioned to Calgary, then recalled back to the big league club on August 4, after splitting 8 decisions, including a trio of complete games for Calgary. 1985—He was invited to big league camp in his initial pro season, then was assigned to Chattanooga (AA) for his first taste of pro ball...went 2-1 in 7 starts for the Lookouts, and was recalled to the Mariners for his first major league duty after 2 months in the minors...pitched 5.0 scoreless innings of relief to win his big league debut on June 7 in Cleveland...his first major league start was on June 11 vs. Chicago...he was victorious in 2 of his first 3 decisions, then suffered through a 5-game losing streak.

PERSONAL: William Charles (Bill) Swift...he and wife, Michelle, have two daughters, Aubrey (11/28/90) and MacKenzie (4/23/92), and reside in Paradise Valley, AZ...he was a graduate of South Portland (ME) High School, then went 26-7 during a 4-year pitching career for the University of Maine, earning 2nd team All-American honors in both 1982 & '83...Bill pitched for Team USA at the World Championships in 1982, and the Pan Am games in '83, and appeared in Dodger Stadium for the 1984 U.S. Olympic Team...Swifty was inducted into the state of Maine's Hall-of-Fame after his Olympic appearance...he is one of 15 children from the Swift household which included sisters Helen (oldest sibling), Peggy, Alice, Nancy, Rosemary, Shirley, Cathleen, Mary and Arlene, and brothers Herbie, Jr., Bobby, Johnny, Mike and Peter (only sibling younger than Bill)...Bill continued his work with Cystic Fibrosis after joining the Rockies, and is involved in the youth field refurbishing program, having a diamond named in his honor in the Denver-metro area after a financial contribution...he was originally drafted by the Minnesota Twins in the 2nd round of the 1983 June draft, but chose to remain at the University of Maine...he was then a first round pick of the Mariners in the '84 draft, the 2nd overall player chosen.

32 Mark Thompson

Righthanded Pitcher

COLORADO ROCKIES

Ht: 6-2 Wt: 205 B/T: R/R

Age: 24 (Turns 25 on April 7)

Born: April 7, 1971 in Russellville, KY

Residence: Englewood, CO

M.L. Service: 93 days

HOW OBTAINED: Selected in the 2nd round of the 1992 June Free Agent Draft.

1995 HIGHLIGHTS: A rollercoaster ride for Mark, opening the season on the major league roster...he was the first winning pitcher in Coors Field history, getting credit for the win in the home opener on April 26, allowing a run in the top of the 14th inning, but ending up the benefactor of Dante Bichette's 3-run game-winning homer in the bottom half of the frame, 11-9...Thompson gave up one run in his first 3 relief appearances, covering 4.2 innings, but was tagged for 7 ER in his next 3 games, again working 4.2 frames and was subsequently optioned to AAA...he became quite familiar with the trek down I-25, getting 3 options and 3 recalls during the season...in the process, he won again on June 11 in Chicago, his 2nd start with the Rockies in '95, going 6.2 innings giving up a run on 6 hits with a career best 6 K's...after that outing, Mark made another relief appearance before getting his 2nd option to AAA...upon his return on July 8, he worked in relief for 4 outings before making 3 straight starts, suffering losses in the last 2...he returned again to the Springs on August 7, and finished the year there, which included a PCL Championship in mid-Sept...the morning after the title game, he returned to the Rockies, and was outstanding down the stretch...he appeared in relief in 3 of the final 4 games of the year vs. the Giants, working 4.2 innings allowing 3 hits and fanning 5, including an impressive 2.2 inning performance in the season finale, keeping them off the board as the Rox rallied for a 10-9 win... Thompson was kept on the active roster for the playoffs, and made good on his only appearance, working the 10th inning of Game #3 in Atlanta, retiring Mark Lemke, Chipper Jones and Fred McGriff to hold the Rockies' 7-5 lead and earn the save in the only post-season win...during his 3 stints with the Sky Sox, Mark's best performance came in his first start after the mid-June option, going 7.2 innings allowing only 3 hits in a win at Vancouver...he made 2 post-season starts, winning the 1st round clincher at Tucson, working 7.0 innings allowing 6 hits and 2 runs, a 12-2 victory, where he also went 2-for-4 at the plate with a pair of doubles and 3 RBI...he was not involved in the decision in his outing in the 4th game of the Salt Lake series, allowing 5 runs in 6.0 IP.

CAREER HIGHLIGHTS: 1994—Coming off the injury-shortened campaign in '93, Mark didn't hit his stride until July at Colorado Springs, winning 3 straight starts, going the distance in a pair of them, giving up 5 ER in 25.0 IP (1.80 ERA)...it was then that he got a shot at the majors, becoming the first amateur draftee of the Rockies to appear in a major league game...in joining the big league club, he became the 8th player who was selected in the '92 draft to make it to the "show", 5th pitcher...Mark won his debut, a 6-5 decision at San Diego on July 26, giving up 3 runs in 5.2 innings...his only other big league start took place in Candlestick Park on July 31 against a fellow Kentucky Wildcat, going head-to-head with college teammate William Van Landingham, who got the best of this battle, defeating Thompson, 9-4, as Mark gave up 6 runs in 3.1 innings of action...he was optioned back to AAA on August 2, going 0-2 upon his return to the Sky Sox. 1993—Year began at Central Valley, and progressed to AAA , but wound up being cut short by a shoulder injury...he dominated A-ball early allowing 3 ER in his first 5 starts (0.96 ERA), going 1-0 though he did not allow more than 4 hits in any of the 5 games, and limiting the opposition to one hit twice...he was an immediate success at AAA, going 3-0 in 4 starts, then disaster hit on June 30 while warming up in the bullpen...he felt a twinge in his right shoulder, that resulted in having his shoulder scoped on July 26 by Dr. Wayne Gersoff at University Hospital in Denver, repairing minor fraying of the labrum...prior to the injury, Thompson went the distance twice for the Sky Sox, including his debut on June 8 vs. Edmonton, scattering 6 hits and 2 runs (1 earned)...though his time in Central Valley was brief, Baseball America tabbed him the 5th best major league prospect in the California League. 1992—The Rockies' second choice in their initial June draft, he went to Bend (OR), going 8-4 in 16 starts...he started the historical first game in organizational history on June 16 in Bend, fanning 6 and allowing 5 hits and a run in 5.0 IP...he was not the pitcher of record, but went on to win 3 in a row to open his pro career...he led the Northwest League in K's (102), IP (106.1), CG (4) and tied for first in starts (16), and was named by Baseball America as the starting righthander on their All-Star squad.

PERSONAL: Mark Radford Thompson...he is single and now makes his home in Englewood, CO...a native of Russellville, KY, he was a 1989 graduate of Logan County High School, lettering in baseball, football and basketball...he then attended the University of Kentucky in Lexington, lettering for 3 years in baseball, teaming with S.F. Giant hurler, William Van Landingham...Mark participated in several off-season charity functions for the Rockies, including time on the annual Winter Caravan.

John Thomson
Righthanded Pitcher

Ht: 6-3 Wt: 175 B/T: R/R
Age: 22 (Turns 23 on October 1)
Born: October 1, 1973 in Vicksburg, MS
Residence: Sulpher, LA
M.L. Service: None

HOW OBTAINED: Selected in the 7th round of the 1993 June Free Agent Draft.

1995 HIGHLIGHTS: John's first taste of AA ball, he was 7-8 in 26 outings (24 starts) for New Haven...he enjoyed the comfortable surroundings of Yale Field, the home park for the Ravens, going 6-2 with a 3.88 ERA in 11 outings...his first AA victory came in his 3rd start, an impressive 7-inning, 2-hit performance, a win at home over Harrisburg...John had a 3-game winning streak from May 5-16, combining those outings for 18.0 innings, giving up 10 hits and 3 earned runs for a 1.50 ERA...he closed that streak with a 7-0 win at Binghamton working 7.0 innings of 3-hit ball...he was 4-1 with a 2.20 ERA in 5 starts in May, his best monthly performance of the year... Thomson went through a July and August win drought, going 0-4, but prepared for the post-season with a win in his final start on Sept. 3 over New Britain...John did not pitch in the division playoffs vs. Portland, but made the start in the first game of the championship series with Reading, and excelled in that outing, giving up 4 hits and no runs in 6.1 innings with a season-best 9 K's...he also worked in relief in the 5th and final game of that series, surrendering 3 runs in 2.0 frames.

CAREER HIGHLIGHTS: 1994—John started the season with Asheville, going 6-6 in 19 outings (15 starts) and earned the opportunity to climb the A-ball ladder and finish the year with Central Valley...with the Tourists, Thomson had a one-hit shutout vs. Hagerstown on June 14...he was equally impressive on July 3 vs. Hagerstown, working 8.0 scoreless frames, allowing 3 hits in a 9-0 tirumph...upon his promotion to Central Valley, John posted a 3-game winning streak from August 12-22, an impressive enough performance to earn a AA promotion for '95. 1993—John signed with the Rockies as their 7th pick in the June draft and reported to Chandler in the Arizona Rookie League, making 11 starts and posting a 3-5 mark.

PERSONAL: John Carl Thomson...he is single and makes his off-season home in Sulpher, LA...he was a 1991 graduate of Sulpher High School...he attended McNeese State in Lake Charles, LA, for a year, then went to Blinn Junior College in Brenham, TX, where he was pitching at the time of the '93 draft, when the Rockies made John their 7th selection...Blinn is the same school that manager Don Baylor attended as a youth.

COLORADO ROCKIES

Ht: 6-2 Wt: 198 B/T: L/L
Age: 29 (Turns 30 on April 29)
Born: April 29, 1966 in Grand Rapids, MI
Residence: Royal Palm Beach, FL
M.L. Service: 3 years, 150 days

HOW OBTAINED: Acquired with a player to be named (Ronnie Hall) from the Montreal Expos in exchange for cash considerations, March 31, 1994.

1995 HIGHLIGHTS: The pinch hitter deluxe, Vandy broke Jose Morales' major league record with 28 pinch hits over the 144-game season, 3 more than the mark set by Morales in '76 with Montreal...Vander Wal did it in style, tying the record in San Diego on Sept. 20 with a 7th inning double off of Tim Worrell, then breaking the mark the next night in San Francisco, a 7th inning homer off Sergio Valdez...the home run was his 4th off the bench in '95, matching Howard Johnson's club mark set in 1994...if there were pinch-hit records to be had, Vandy now has them, as his 17 RBI passed HoJo's mark of 14 set in 1994...John also established Rockies' records for most pinch-hit at bats (72) and had 4 consecutive pinch hits (May 3-10)...overall, he hit .389 off the bench (28-for-72) with 9 runs, 7 doubles, a triple, 4 homers and 47 total bases for a .653 slugging pct....on 4 occasions, Vandy's pinch-hit tied a game in the late innings...he showed signs of what was to come during the month of May, when he was 10-for-16 (.625) with 2 doubles, 2 homers and 7 RBI...his first pinch homer was May 6 vs. L.A., a 3-run blast off Todd Williams...John's reputation was also responsible for changing pitching plans, as walking to the on-deck circle accounted for 6 pitching changes, and he was walked intentionally 5 times...his time as a starter was limited, making 5 total, including 3 at first base and a pair in leftfield, going 3-for-16 (.188) when in the lineup.

CAREER HIGHLIGHTS: 1994—John joined the Rockies at the end of spring training, conveniently taking the Expos' charter to Vancouver, BC, to join his new club for an exhibition series that included a game against Montreal...once the season began, he honed his pinch hitting skills, leading the majors in pinch hits (14) and PH at bats (58)...Vandy's only pinch homer of the year was a 5th inning, 2-run blast in Mile High off Jose Rijo to tie the game, then Andres Galarraga hit a solo blast off Rijo in the 6th to give the Rox a 3-2 win over Cincy...despite spot duty, Vandy had a career-best 6-game hitting streak from July 29-August 3, going 8-for-14 (.571)...during the streak, he ruined Doug Drabek's run at the record book by breaking up his no-hit bid on August 2 with an 8th inning solo homer in the Astrodome. 1993—His second full season on the major league roster with the Expos was similar to his '94 year with the Rockies, working as a pinch hitter, extra outfielder, and filling in at first base...he was the starting leftfielder in the first Rockies' game ever played in Mile High Stadium, and scored the first run ever by an opponent in Denver, crossing the plate in the 9th inning...his biggest moment of the year came in Dodger Stadium when he hit a 2-out, 3-run, 9th inning homer off Los Angeles' Jim Gott to tie the game at 6-6...the Expos then scored 3 times in the 10th inning to get the win, 9-6, as Vandy set a career-best with 4 RBI...he homered in consecutive games for the first time in his career on April 30 and May 1 off the Giants' Bill Swift and Jeff Brantley, respectively...he repeated the feat on July 16 & 17 in L.A. against the Dodgers (Orel Hershiser and Gott). 1992—He was Montreal's top lefty in a pinch role, posting a .383 on-base pct., getting 6 hits and 12 walks...he hit Montreal's first pinch homer of the year on August 16, off St. Louis' Mike Perez, the first pinch homer since Ivan Caldaron on September 11, 1991. 1991—John opened the season with Indy (AAA), and earned a spot on the American Association All-Star team, then his first promotion to the majors...he was selected to play in the AAA All-Star Game in Louisville on July 10...he was the National Association Topps' Player-of-the-Month for July, hitting .339 with 4 homers and 25 RBI in 27 games...he had a 16-game hitting streak (July 6-25) in which he batted .400...was recalled on September 6, making his debut as a pinch hitter that night...he singled on the first pitch thrown by Cincy's Scott Scudder...his first homer came on September 14 off Chicago's Shawn Boskie and fortunately he hit in Wrigley Field, where the fans throw the ball back and it's now safely on his mantle at home...spent only 3 days in Montreal, because shortly after his recall, went on the unscheduled 28-day road trip that was forced by the concrete collapse at Olympic Stadium.

PERSONAL: John Henry Vander Wal...he and wife, Deb, make their off-season home in Royal Palm Beach, FL...he was a 1984 graduate of Hudsonville (MI) High School, lettering in baseball, basketball and football...from there he attended Western Michigan University in Kalamazoo for three years, where he studied civil way history...he was originally signed by the Expos as a 3rd round pick in the 1987 June draft.

Age: 22 (Turns 23 on September 4)
Born: September 4, 1973 in Los Altos, CA
Residence: Long Beach, CA
M.L. Service: None

HOW OBTAINED: Selected in the 11th round of the 1993 June Free Agent Draft.

1995 HIGHLIGHTS: Jacob had his first full season of AA ball, going 3-6 with 19 saves at New Haven, the 3rd best rescue total in the league...he was tough in the first half, posting 16 of his saves prior to the All-Star break...Viano surrendered only one earned run in his first 14.1 innings, covering 12 games, for a 0.63 ERA, saving 6 games in that stretch, and the only earned run he gave up was the contributor to his first loss of the year...he saved both ends of a doubleheader on May 3 at Canton...twice during the first half, Jake posted saves in 4 consecutive trips to the hill (April 26-May 5 and May 30-June 5)...he appeared in 57 games overall, blanking the opposition in 42 of those affairs...it was a feast or famine method to Jake's relief work, either he shut down the opposition, or they experienced more than one-run success...in the 15 games that he was scored upon, 9 times the opposing club put multiple tallies on the board...he led the Eastern League in K's per 9-innings for relievers with a 10.63 ratio, and topped the loop in games finished (49)...he enjoyed working at home, going 2-1 with 13 saves and a 2.68 in 28 games at Yale Field...Viano made a trio of post-season appearances for the Ravens, working an inning in the 3rd game of the division playoffs vs. Portland, then earning a save and a win vs. Reading...he went 1.0 inning in the series opener for the save, then worked 4.0 innings for the only time all year to get the rescue in the 4th game.

CAREER HIGHLIGHTS: 1994—Jake spent the majority of the year at Asheville (A), dominating throughout the season, then made 8 appearances at New Haven (AA)...he gave up just 8 earned runs in 53.1 innings for the Tourists, a 1.35 ERA, while going 4-1 with 23 saves, the 5th best rescue total in the South Atlantic League and tops in the organization...as was the case in '95, Jacob was hot early, posting a 0.49 ERA with a 2-0 mark and 10 saves by May 18...he earned a spot in the league All-Star Game played at Hickory on June 18...he absorbed 3 losses and did not record a save in his 8 outings at AA. 1993—Jake's first year as a pro was with Chandler in the Arizona Rookie League, going 2-2 with a save...he made his only pro start while hurling for Chandler.

PERSONAL: Jacob Ray Viano...he and wife, Julie, make their off-season home in Long Beach, CA...he was a 1991 graduate of Jordan High School in Long Beach, then remained local, pitching for two years at Long Beach City College, where he was selected by the Rockies in the 11th round of the '93 June draft...after the '95 regular season concluded, Jake pitched for the Scottsdale Scorpions in the Arizona Fall League, leading the staff in wins with 3, while appearing in 23 games, also recording a pair of saves.

GOLD GLOVE WINNERS

Though the Rockies cannot yet claim a player to have received a Gold Glove in a Colorado uniform, four players currently on the Rockies roster have received the distinction while with other teams. Larry Walker was the most recently honored for his defensive excellence, winning back-to-back awards for his play with the Montreal Expos in the 1992 and 1993 season.

The winners are:

Player	Club	Year
Andres Galarraga	Montreal Expos	1989-90
Bret Saberhagen	Kansas City Royals	1989
Ellis Burks	Boston Red Sox	1990
Larry Walker	Montreal Expos	1992-93

HOW OBTAINED: Signed as a free agent, April 8, 1995.

1995 HIGHLIGHTS: His first season with the Rockies produced career bests homers (31) and RBI (101)...his homers and hit by pitches (14) tied for 2nd in the N.L., and ranked 2nd in extra-base hits (72), slugging pct. (.607), total bases (300)...he finished 7th in the N.L. Most Valuable Player voting...Larry made a solid first impression, picking up 3 doubles in the regular season debut of Coors Field, driving in 3 in the 11-9 win over the Mets on April 26, including a 2-out double in the 9th inning sending the game into extra frames...he strained a left quadriceps on April 28 in Houston, keeping him out of the lineup for 4 games...his return was marked by the first of several hot streaks for Walker, as he hit safely in 9 straight at a .459 clip (17-for-37) with 10 runs scored, 2 doubles, 5 homers and 10 RBI...4 of the homers came in consecutive games, then a club record, but broken later in the year when Dante Bichette homered in 5...his HR on May 7 at home off of Hideo Nomo was the 100th of Walk's career...the day before, he showed off his arm in rightfield, nailing Tom Candiotti on what appeared to be a base hit to right, the 4th time he has zapped a runner at 1st on an apparent hit (John Burkett, Tony Fernandez and Tim Wakefield)...he had the first of a pair of 4-hit games on May 22 (vs. Chicago)...he was a .313 hitter during May, despite going 0-for-24 towards the end...Walker snapped the dry spell on the final day of May and went into a 9-for-19 stretch (.474) over the next 5 games to get June started properly...he had the first of 3 multi-homer games on June 3, taking the Pirates' Jon Leiber deep twice...Larry also had 2-homer games on July 18 vs. Philly and Sept. 26 at LA, giving him 7 career...he was the Rockie-of-the-Month for June, hitting .344 with 8 homers, giving him 17 HR's for May & June combined...during June, Larry matched a personal best with the 4th 10-game hitting streak of his career (June 11-23), hitting .421 (16-for-38) with 4 homers, 8 runs and 9 RBI...he was the 3rd of the "Blake Street Bombers" to reach the coveted 30-homer mark, hitting his milestone blast on Sept. 11 in Coors Field off Atlanta's Brad Clontz...a native Canadian, Walker became the most prolific home run hitter from north of the border, surpassing Jeff Heath's mark of 27 set in 1947 with the St. Louis Browns...Larry hit the century mark in career stolen bases on May 20, pilfering 2nd base as part of a double steal in Cincy...though his wheels were affected early by the quad injury, Larry managed 16 thefts on the year, including a pair of 2-steal games (14 career)...he also became the 4th Rockie to swipe home, taking the plate as part of a 1st inning double steal with Andres Galarraga on July 2 vs. Houston...Walker finished the season on a high note, hitting .347 over the final month...he tied a club record with 2 triples in a game on Sept. 15 vs. Florida, the 3rd multi-triple game in club history and only one in '95...he had a solid series in LA during the final week of the season, hitting .455 (5-for-11) in the 3-game set, including a 2-homer game on Sept. 26 to lead the Rox to a 7-3 win over the Dodgers...Larry went 3-for-4 in the season finale against the Giants on October 1, sparking the comeback with double, 2-run homer and 3 RBI...he was 3-for-14 (.214) in the Division Series Playoffs vs. Atlanta, including a 3-run homer off of Tom Glavine in the 2nd game at Coors Field tying the contest...Walk had another outstanding year in rightfield, compiling 13 assists, tied for 2nd in the league, his 4th double figure outfield assist year.

CAREER HIGHLIGHTS: 1994—After a pair of Gold Gloves in the outfield, the native Canadian was forced to first base for a portion of the '94 season taking straing off a right shoulder that required surgery following the year...he tied for the N.L. lead in doubles (44), ranked 2nd in extra-base hits (65), 6th in RBI (86), 7th in batting (.322), 7th in slugging (.587) and 10th in on-base pct. (.394)...Walker had his 2nd career 3-double game on August 3 vs. St. Louis...he was the Expos Player-of-the-Month for July, hitting .355 with 9 doubles, 4 homers, 24 RBI, and doing all this while visiting a pair of MDs regarding his shoulder...Larry had an MRI in Montreal on June 23 by Dr. Larry Coughlin, which revealed a small rotator cuff tear that initially received a cortisone shot...a month later, he redefined the word "paradox", seeing two doctors in a 3-day span...upon returning to the lineup, he was the everyday first baseman in deference to the shoulder injury, playing 35 games on the corner and batting .364 with 8 homers and 36 RBI... it was anything but dull for Walker when he played rightfield, continuing to show off his arm in a variety of ways...on April 19, he threw out pitcher John Burkett on what appeared to be a single to right in Candlestick Park...then there was the infamous evening in Dodger Stadium on April 24, a contest shown nationally on ESPN...Larry had with a pair of "throwing" errors, each equaling a total distance of zero feet traveled...Brett Butler led off the 1st with a double, which Walker fielded on the warning track, but when he turned to throw, the ball slipped out of his hand, bounced off his right shoulder and landed at his feet...2 innings later, Larry made a running catch of a foul fly for what he thought was the final out of the inning, but was only the 2nd...with Jose Offerman tagging on the play, Walker graciously handed the ball to 9-year old Sebastian Napier, sitting in the first row of seats in Dodger Stadium, again ringing up no distance on the "throwing" error...Larry underwent surgery on October 4 at Queen Elizabeth Hospital in Montreal by Dr. Coughlin to repair the slightly torn rotator cuff and a labrum tear in the right shoulder. 1993—Larry had the first 20-20 season of his career, the 6th in Montreal club annals and first-ever in the majors by a Canadian born player...he accomplished the feat with 21 homers and 29 stolen bases playing in 138 games due to various injuries throughout the year...his 20-20 campaign made him the 2nd Expo to achieve it, as Andre Dawson had 5 such seasons during his career in Montreal...Larry was the Expos' cleanup hitter in all 136 of his starts...on 3 occasions he was part of back-to-back bombs for the Expos, including Sept. 6 when he teamed with Sean Berry at home vs. the Rox...that home run vs. Colorado was the first to clear the newly constructed bleachers in right at Olympic Stadium, measuring at 433 feet...he hit the first grand slam of his career on Sept. 1 in Cincy off John Roper...defensively, Walker earned his 2nd straight Rawlings Gold Glove, teaming with Grissom for two-thirds of the N.L. Gold Glove outfield...since the award began in 1957, the only N.L. teammates to win Gold Gloves in the outfield in the same season had been Pirates, Roberto Clemente and Bill Virdon (1962), and Barry Bonds and Andy Van Slyke (1990-91-92)...all of this was accomplished with a variety of pains during the year, beginning with a hamstring pull that cost him a week of action in April...he then made a diving catch on May 19 in foul territory in Atlanta, played the next 6 days hurt, but was forced from a May 25 game with what turned out to be contused right-side ribs, and inflammation in rib cartilage and intercostal muscles, placing him on the D.L. (May 26-June 9)...Walker was then hobbled with a foot injury during the final month which led to a 3-for-33 finish to the year. 1992—Larry began the year as one of the best kept secrets in the N.L., but when it concluded, he was one of the best players in the game and most decorated in Canadian baseball history...he earned the first Rawlings Gold Glove of his career, a Silver Slugger for offensive performance, played in the All-Star Game in San Diego, was named to the AP and The Sporting News post-season all-star teams, was Montreal's Player-of-the-Month for Sept./Oct., was named Expos' Player-of-the-Year, finished 5th in the N.L. MVP balloting, named Canada's Baseball Man-of-the-Year and ranked 2nd only to Olympic swimmer Mark Tewksbury as Canada's male Athlete-of-the-Year...he also traveled to Japan with major league All-Stars in November, then upon his return to Maple Ridge, BC, was honored with the dedication of "Larry Walker Field", a youth baseball field in his hometown...he was a .301 hitter with 23 homers and 93 RBI, leading all rightfielders in homers and RBI, while ranking 2nd to Tony Gwynn in average...he set a Montreal club record with a .993 fielding pct., breaking the mark of Dawson in 1986, finishing the year with 61 straight errorless games, and led all N.L. rightfielders with 16 outfield assists...on May 5 vs. San Diego, became the first hitter to hit a speaker in fair territory at Olympic Stadium, good for a home run per stadium ground rules...his All-Star Game visit included a pinch-hit single in the 3rd inning off Toronto's Juan Guzman, the first hit of the game for the N.L...his hit in the Midsummer Classic was the first by a Canadian in All-Star play since 1939, when George Selkirk had one representing the Yankees. 1991—Walker's post All-Star break numbers were the best in the N.L., hitting .338 in 72 games with 21 doubles, 10 homers and 41 RBI...the season had a strange beginning, as he was slated to platoon in rightfield with another lefthanded hitter, Dave Martinez...as the season progressed, Larry won an everyday position, playing in right, center and first base...he was Expos' Player-of-the-Month for August, hitting .376 with 4 homers and 12 RBI...on May 28, he had to start at first base in place of the injured Andres Galarraga...using the Big Cat's glove for 39 games, Walker compiled a .988 fielding pct. at first, and recorded 16 putouts and an assist in Dennis Martinez's perfect game on July 28 at Los Angeles. 1990—Larry had an unusual "rookie" year, since it wasn't determined until the All-Star break that he was in fact a rookie...he began the year a rookie, then due to a technicality regarding his full year on the D.L. in 1988, he became a sophomore, until the BBWAA reinstated his rookie status in a vote at the All-Star Game in Chicago, clarifying and modifying the rookie rule to once again make Larry eligible for rookie honors...though he lost the Rookie-of-the-Year award to David Justice, Walker posted 19 homers and 21 stolen bases, matching Andre Dawson's numbers when he earned the league honor in 1977...Larry's 19th homer came on the final day of the season, Oct. 3, tying Dawson's rookie mark. 1989—Walker returned to action after missing all of '88, sporting a knee brace during his season at Indy, earning a place on the post-season team...he was recalled to the majors for the first time on August 16, becoming the 5th

Canadian to play for the Expos, joining pitchers Claude Raymond (1969-71), Bill Atkinson (1976-79) and Larry Landreth (1976-77) and outfielder Doug Frobel (1985)...his first big league game was memorable, walking 3 times and collecting a hit off SF's Mike LaCoss...he was optioned back to Indy on August 29, but never left poolside in San Diego, remaining at the team hotel until Sept. 1, when rosters expanded and he returned to the active big league roster. 1988—Walker was on the D.L. all season after suffering a serious right knee injury while playing winter ball at Hermosillo in the Mexican League...he was injured on January 16, and 3 days later underwent right knee surgery performed in Montreal by Dr. Larry Coughlin to repair a rupture and a tear of two ligaments...his leg was in a cast for 8 weeks and a 7-month rehabilitation ensued...he reported to Indy in late-June to continue his fitness program...he served as a DH in Instructional League in the fall. 1987—He had an All-Star year at Jacksonville, earning post-season honors...Walker won the prestigious James "Tip" O'Neill Award as the top baseball player in Canada in '87, named after the Canadian-born outfielder now in the Canadian Baseball Hall-of-Fame. 1986—As a 19-year old at Burlington, Walker hit 29 homers in 95 games, leading the league with 74 RBI, when he was promoted to West Palm Beach in mid-July...he was named to the Midwest League All-Star team, despite not completing the season there, and was the 2nd best prospect in the league as named by Baseball America...was named the Expo's organizations' Player-of-the-Month for May, hitting .373 with 11 home runs. 1985—Signed as a non-drafted free agent, on November 14, 1984, Walker began his career in Utica.

PERSONAL: Larry Kenneth Robert Walker...he has a penchant for the number 3 and goes through a variety of rituals that involve that number or any number divisible by 3, including practice swings in the on-deck circle, uniform number, etc....he has a daughter, Brittany Marie (7-15-93) and resides in West Palm Beach, FL...Larry graduated from Maple Ridge (B.C.) Senior Secondary School in 1984...he grew up a hockey goaltender, playing the game with Cam Neely, an All-Star standout in the NHL for the Boston Bruins...Walker played baseball for the Canadian national junior team...his family includes brothers, Gary, Cary and Barry, and parents, Larry and Mary...Cary was drafted by the Montreal Canadiens as a goaltender in 1977...since joining the Rockies, he has donated a substantial sum to the Rockies youth field refurbishing program with his field being dedicated in Ft. Collins...he also spent a portion of his off-season participating in the Winter Caravan.

Ht: 6-0 Wt: 175 B/T: S/R
Age: 32 (Turns 33 on November 28)
Born: November 28, 1963 in Tuxedo, NY
Residence: Aurora, CO
M.L. Service: 7 years, 151 days

HOW OBTAINED: Signed as a free agent, January 7, 1994.

1995 HIGHLIGHTS: A solid season for the veteran shortstop, establishing a career best with 98 walks, 2nd in the N.L. to Barry Bonds, while shattering the Rockies' club mark of 63 set in '93 by Eric Young…Walt's .403 on-base pct. was 4th best in the N.L…he also set a personal best with 15 stolen bases, swiping 8 through the first 19 games of the year, but pilfering only 7 the rest of the way…defensively, he remained one of the top at his craft, committing errors in 12 of the 136 games, totaling 16 overall, as his .974 fielding pct. ranked 4th among N.L. shortstops…his 2-out RBI single off the Mets' Kevin Lomon in the 9th inning of the 2nd game of the year snapped a 7-7 tie to give the Rockies a 2-0 start…he was a .321 hitter from May 15-30, hitting safely in 13 of 15 games…the following month he fell a game shy of his career-best hitting streak, hitting in 8 straight from (June 16-23)…he had a pair of 4-hit efforts (7 career), with his first occurring on August 23 vs. the Pirates…his other was much more eventful, a Sept. 20 affair in San Diego, where he not only had 4 hits, but set a club record by scoring 5 times, and popped his only home run of the year… the "blast" was his first since April 23, 1994, a span of 750 at bats between dingers, which was the 3rd longest active dry spell in the majors (Rafael Belliard and Otis Nixon)...Weiss' homer came as a lefthanded hitter, the 10th of his 11 career to come from that side...he was nicked a couple of times by injury, missing a 2 starts in early May with a left shoulder strain, then missing a week of action in early September with a left groin strain...he spent 104 games of the '94 season batting in either the #1 or #2 slot in the order, Walt hit in those slots just 32 times in '95, spending most of the time in the #8 spot.

CAREER HIGHLIGHTS: 1994—For the first time in his career, Walt spent the majority of the year hitting at the top of the order, leading off 74 times and batting 2nd on 30 occasions...he opened as the leadoff man, starting the first 56 games in that slot, reaching base safely in 50 of those games and hitting .283...not known as a long ball hitter, Walt's 1st with Colorado came on April 23 in Mile High off Chicago's Blaise Ilsley, and remains the only one he has hit from the right side of the plate...a hamstring injury on July 31 at S.F. forced him to the bench for 7 games...he never really recovered from the injury, going just 1-for-15 upon his return through the end of the season...he posted his 5th career 4-hit game on May 24 vs. Cincy. 1993—Spent the season with the other expansion club, appearing in a career-high 158 games for Florida, establishing a career best in hits (133)...his 2nd inning triple off L.A.'s Orel Hershiser in the franchise's first game, was the Marlins' first extra-base hit and drove in their first 2 runs...he was the 5th toughest hitter to double up, hitting into 5 DP's in 500 AB's...lone homer came in Wrigley Field on June 14 vs. Jose Guzman...collected his 500th career hit on August 21, a single off the Giants' Scott Sanderson in Candlestick...defensively, he ranked 2nd behind Gold Glove winner Jay Bell in fielding pct. among shortstops with a .977 mark (15 errors in 650 total chances)...from June 22-Sept. 3, a stretch of 64 games, Weiss committed just 3 errors in 238 chances. 1992—Missed the first 51 games of the year with Oakland due to a strained rib cage muscle that occurred during an exhibition game...after a 4-game rehab stint at Tacoma, he tripled vs. Boston in his first big league at bat of the season...was a .300 hitter in first 40 at bats after his return...was 1-for-6 (.167) with a run and 2 SB's in the ALCS vs. Toronto. 1991—Appeared in 40 games during the first 2+ months of the season, but on June 6, tore ligaments in his left ankle while running out a ground ball, sidelining him for the rest of the season...had a career-best 9-game hitting streak from May 7-16, batting .400. 1990—Appeared in 138 games for the A's, establishing career highs in runs (50), hits (118), walks (46) and stolen bases (9)...his post-season activity was cut short, when in the 2nd game of the ALCS, he collided with Ellis Burks, while attempting to turn a double play at Fenway Park, suffering minor cartilage damage to his left knee that was arthroscopically repaired on October 22...on the year, Weiss committed 12 errors in 137 games at short, 3 fewer than his Rookie-of-the-Year season in 1988. 1989—Injured while attempting to turn a double play on May 17 vs. the Yankees, forcing a June 2 operation to repair the problem...he missed 65 games due to the surgery, returned to the lineup on July 31, and shared time at short with Mike Gallego...Walt homered twice in a game on April 5 vs. Seattle...started 3 of the 5 games of the ALCS vs. Toronto, going 1-for-9...was the starting shortstop in all 4 World Series contests against the Giants, belting his 1st post-season homer in Game #1 in Oakland. 1988—Selected both the BBWAA and The Sporting News A.L. Rookie-of-the-Year...committed 15 errors as the everyday shortstop, just 1 after July 8...had a streak of 58 straight errorless games (July 9-September 20)...hit 1st big league homer on May 15 at Balt. off Mark Williamson...had only career grand slam on July 10 at Detroit (Mike Trujillo)...went 5-for-15 vs. Boston in his 1st ALCS, driving in the winning run with a single off Lee Smith at Fenway Park in Game #2...struggled in the World Series vs. the Dodgers, going 1-for-16. 1987—Opened the year at AA, but found himself in the majors on July 12, filling in for the injured Tony Phillips...was returned to minors and remained until September roster expansion...picked up 1st big league hit on September 26 vs. Chicago...started the last 8 games of the season due to injury to Alfredo Griffin, committing 1 error in 39 chances...was hitting .285 with 23 stolen bases at Huntsville (AA) at the time of his brief recall to the majors...was optioned to Tacoma after quick big league visit, hitting .263 in 46 games. 1986—Opened the year at Madison (A), hitting .301 in 84 games, then was promoted to AA, and hit .250 in 46 games at Huntsville. 1985—Split the year at both Pocatello and Modesto after being the A's first selection in the June draft, the 11th overall player taken...hit .310 in 40 contests at Pocatello, but just .197 in 30 games at Modesto.

PERSONAL: Walter William (Walt) Weiss...he and wife, Terri, have two sons, Blake (12/18/86), and Brody (8/19/94), and the Weiss' have made their home in Aurora, CO...Walt was a 1982 graduate of Suffern High (NY), then became a Tar Heel, playing baseball at the University of North Carolina...he switched his uniform number from #7 to #22, because he was a childhood fan of former Miami Dolphin, Mercury Morris...by joining the Rockies, he was the first player to play for the 2 most recent National League expansion entries...Walt is also involved in the Rockies' field restoration program, assisting with funding to resurrect youth baseball fields in the Denver-metro area...he and Terri have also been active in the Colorado SIDS (Sudden Infant Death Syndrome) Program, which has included a Public Service Announcement.

HOW OBTAINED: Selected as the sixth choice in the first round of the major league baseball expansion draft from the Los Angeles Dodgers, November 17, 1993.

1995 HIGHLIGHTS: A reversal of fortunes from the '93 season, as he experienced playing time and success in the 2nd half of the campaign, returning to 2nd base, a position he had been moved from at the All-Star break during the inaugural season...in '95, E.Y. had 10 hits in 67 at bats through the month of June in limited use as a part-time outfielder...he reacquired his 2nd base role after an injury to Jason Bates and made the best of the opportunity...Eric's offensive success began as the calendar turned into July, batting .406 while hitting safely in 23 of the 24 games he played, raising his season mark from .149 to .304...as the month wore on, the better he played, compiling a career-best 19-game hitting streak from July 18-August 10, tying teammate Dante Bichette for the 3rd longest streak in the N.L...E.Y. hit .427 (32-for-75) during the streak, with 4 doubles, 5 triples, a homer, 18 runs scored and 10 stolen bases...he matched his career best with 4 hits in a Rockies' win in Montreal on July 31, the 4th 4-hit game of his career...from July 1-August 10, Young hit safely in 32 of 33 games, and from the 1st of July through the end of the season, he was a .355 hitter (106-for-299), with 61 runs scored in 75 games...despite not competing everyday until the 2nd half, Young set a club record and tied for the league lead with 9 triples...he tied the club record with his 2nd career 3-double game on August 12 at Atlanta...he finished 6th in the N.L. with 35 stolen bases, swiping 2 in a game on 6 occasions...his 100th career theft was a painful milestone, reaching the century mark on Sept. 13 vs. Atlanta, but straining a hamstring in the process...the injury limited Young's playing time during the stretch drive...despite being hobbled by the hamstring strain, when he played, E.Y. batted .442 (19-for-43) in his last 12 games, which included a 3-for-5 performance in the season finale, including a triple, homer and 2 RBI...in fact, in the last 2 games of the year vs. the Giants, he was 6-for-8 with a double, triple, homer, 3 runs scored and 3 RBI, as the Rox won the final pair and moved into the post-season...Young continued to wield a hot bat in the 4-game series vs. the Braves, batting .438 (7-for-16) with 3 runs scored, a double, homer and 2 RBI...his home run came in the Rockies' win in Game #3 in Atlanta off John Smoltz.

CAREER HIGHLIGHTS: 1994—He opened the season as the 4th outfielder, one year after being the opening day 2nd baseman...his 18 thefts were 2nd on the club...on April 23, he had the first inside-park-homer of his career, finding a remote area in the Mile High outfield off Chicago's Dan Plesac...on July 4 in Chicago, E.Y. led off the 2nd game of a doubleheader with a homer off Jim Bullinger, marking the first game opening homer for the Rox since September 29, 1993, when Nelson Liriano homered in Candlestick Park...his August 8 homer off Pedro Astacio of the Dodgers was E.Y.'s 7th of the shortened-season, shattering his previous best of 3 in '93. 1993—When looking through the Rockies' archives, Young's name appears next to many of the "firsts" in club history...after trying to bunt his way aboard as the first hitter in club history on April 5, just 4 days later in the first home game ever, he provided one of the most memorable moments of the first season of major league baseball in Denver...leading off the bottom of the first inning, Young hit a 3-2 pitch off Montreal's Kent Bottenfield, over the fence in left-center to bring the record crowd of 80,227 to its feet...E.Y. was on base 5 times in the home opener, going 4-for-4 with a walk, and quickly established a club record with 4 runs scored in the 11-4 win over Montreal...oddly enough, he would not homer again until the final home game of the season, when on Sept. 26, he went deep in consecutive AB's off Cincy's Johnny Ruffin and Scott Service...Young opened the year as the everyday 2nd baseman, but was moved to the outfield after the All-Star break, a position he played while at Rutgers...he finished strong at the plate, hitting in 18 of the last 20 games at a .400 clip...he had a 12-game hitting streak from Sept. 9-22, hitting .449, including a 4-hit game vs. San Diego on Sept. 22, his first 4-hit effort since the home opener...he also reached base safely in 12 consecutive plate appearances (8 hits and 4 walks) from Sept. 19-24, with the streak ending on a sacrifice fly...his 42 thefts marked the 3rd highest total by an expansion player...he tied a club record with 3 steals on Sept. 19 vs. LA...he was the 6th toughest hitter to strikeout in the N.L., fanning just once every 13.8 plate appearances...he started 8 games in centerfield and 39 in left. 1992—Started the year at Albuquerque, hitting .337 in 94 games with 61 runs scored and 28 stolen bases...in 4 minor league seasons, he totaled 215 stolen bases, an average of 53.8 per season...his first taste of major league action came on July 30, going 2-for-4 in his debut against San Diego, a 6-5 Dodger win...posted first 3-hit game on August 15 vs. S.F....it was also against the Giants he hit the first home run of his career, a Sept. 18 clout off Buddy Black...Young was 6-for-7 in stolen bases after joining the Dodgers...in 23 games during September, Eric batted .375 (21-for-56), including a 6-game streak in which he hit .524 (11-for-21). 1991—Had an excellent year at San Antonio, leading all of AA and the Dodger minor leaguers with 71 stolen bases, a total that was good for 4th among all minor league players...he led his club in runs scored (82) and hits (129), while tying for the lead in walks (67)...had an RBI single in the AA All-Star Game...after the AA season, he appeared in one game at Albuquerque, going 2-for-5. 1990—Set a Vero Beach record with 75 stolen bases in leading his club to the Florida State League title...finished the year with a .287 mark and 101 runs scored...he led the team in runs, hits (132), doubles (23) and triples (7). 1989—Batted .330 for Kissimmee and stole 41 bases in 56 games, and was the team leader in stolen bases, hits (65) and walks (33).

PERSONAL: Eric Young...he has a son, Eric, Jr....he is a graduate of Rutgers University, where he was an all-conference player and team MVP...E.Y. was also a member of the football team while attending Rutgers...Eric attended New Brunswick (NJ) H.S., earning all-state honors in baseball, football and basketball.

COLORADO ROCKIES

Ht: 6-1 Wt: 180 B/T: R/R
Age: 26
Born: March 11, 1970 in Lara, VZ
Residence: Lara, VZ
M.L. Service: 90 days

HOW OBTAINED: Selected as the sixth choice in the third round of the major league baseball expansion draft from the Chicago Cubs, November 17, 1993.

1995 HIGHLIGHTS: Pedro returned from an injury-riddled 1994 to hit .266 for the PCL champion Sky Sox...he spent the majority of the year at his natural position of 3rd base, playing 73 games there, but also gained valuable experience on the other side of the diamond at 1st (26 games)...twice during the campaign he put together errorless-game streaks of 30 or more games, committing only 5 total errors on the year...Pedro's year at the plate started with a sizzle, going 4-for-8 with 3 doubles and 4 runs scored in the first 2 games, and through 21 games peaked his average to .328...he did not put together any extended hitting streaks, his longest a pair of 7-gamers in June...his best individual performances included the game-winning RBI in the 11th inning of a 3-2 win on August 14 vs. Phoenix, followed later in the month by a 2-homer, 5-RBI outing in a 14-10 win on August 30 over Albuquerque...he was instrumental to the Sky Sox post-season success, going 2-for-5 with a pinch-hit homer and 2 RBI in the series vs. Tucson, then hitting .333 (4-for-12) with a double, 3 homers, and 7 RBI in 3 games of the championship series vs. Salt Lake City, including a homer and 2 RBI in the title game...Castellano preferred hitting in Sky Sox Stadium, batting .301 on the year, compared to a .238 road mark.

CAREER HIGHLIGHTS: 1994—Pedro's play was limited to 33 games at Colorado Springs by a trio of injuries...his overall numbers were impressive, hitting .350 with 11 doubles, 4 homers and 24 RBI, going hitless in just 5 of the 33 games he participated in...his first injury was tendinitis in his right wrist that sidelined him from May 7-26...around that injury, he had an 11-game hitting streak (April 27-June 2), hitting .390 (16-for-41) with 3 homers and 10 RBI...he returned to the D.L. (June 8-Aug. 5) with an injury to his other wrist, then in his first game back on August 6, a bad hop ended his year, fracturing his eye socket. 1993—He was the final cut in spring training and spent the first 2 months in AAA, hitting .301 through 46 games, with 7 homers and 30 RBI...he was recalled 3 times during the year...he had his first big league hit on June 1 in a start vs. the Pirates, a double off Bob Walk in Mile High...Pedro's 2nd recall witnessed his first 3 big league homers, the initial shot a 2-run homer in Denver on July 27 off Atlanta's John Smoltz, followed by solo blasts at Cincinnati (Jose Rijo) and at Los Angeles (Tom Candiotti)...while with the Sky Sox he had several offensive outbursts, including a 9-game hitting streak in May, batting .559 (19-for-34) with 13 RBI, earning PCL Player-of-the-Week honors...he also had a 12-game hitting streak in late-June, including a stretch in which he hit safely in 19 of 20 games at a .403 clip. 1992—Split the season between Iowa (AAA) and Charlotte (AA), working mainly at 3rd base...the year began in AAA, where he batted .248 in 74 games...went to Charlotte in mid-July, but hit just .224 in 45 games...did play 11 games at shortstop while in AA...he missed 10 games after contracting the chicken pox. 1991—Was the Cubs' Minor League Player-of-the-Year, earning the MVP honors in the Carolina League...batted .303 with 25 doubles, 10 homers and a league leading 87 RBI...ranked 4th in the league in average, tied for 3rd in hits (139), on-base pct. (.397) and slugging pct. (.436)...he was named to both the mid-season and post-season All-Star squads, and the Topps/National Association Class A All-Star team...he wrapped up '91 by playing in 7 games at Charlotte. 1990—Hit .276 in 117 games at Peoria (A), tying for 8th in the league in doubles (27)...ended the season with 19 games at Winston-Salem, hitting .197. 1989—Was a .311 hitter during his first pro season at Wytheville...tied for the Appalachian League lead in runs scored (55), ranked 2nd in total bases (128) and walks (46), earning a spot on the post-season All-Star squad.

PERSONAL: Pedro Orlando Castellano (Arrieta)...he is single and makes his off-season home in Lara, VZ...he was a 1987 graduate of Jose Dominguez High School...he was originally signed as a non-drafted free agent by the Cubs, April 14, 1988.

Angel Echevarria
Outfielder

Ht: 6-3 Wt: 219 B/T: R/R
Age: 24 (Turns 25 on May 25)
Born: May 25, 1971 in Bridgeport, CT
Residence: Bridgeport, CT
M.L. Service: None

HOW OBTAINED: Selected in the 17th round of the 1992 June Free Agent Draft.

1995 HIGHLIGHTS: Angel took a slow start and turned it into a first-rate season, leading the Eastern League in RBI (100), while displaying an outstanding arm also ranking 1st in outfield assists (20)...he was 3rd in extra-base hits (52), tied for 3rd in homers (21), 5th in total bases (231) and his .300 average ranked 7th...he landed a spot on the Eastern League All-Star team, which is not bad for a hitter who started the year 0-for-13 with 7 strikeouts and was hitting .198 as late as May 14...though not out of his slump, he did hit a grand slam on May 8 in a win over Bowie, the 3rd salami by a Raven in as many games, matching Mark Strittmatter and Lou List...he followed that with a 2-homer, 4 RBI performance on May 24 vs. Binghamton, but Angel turned the offensive corner on June 12-13, going 7-for-10 in a 3-game series at New Britain...after an 0-for-3 affair at Norwich, he started an 8-game hitting streak in which he batted .533 (16-for-30) with 4 homers and 11 RBI to up his season mark from .249 to .288, earning E.L. Player-of-the-Week honors...included in that stretch was a 3-homer game on June 19 at Reading, driving in 5 in the 8-1 win, giving him 4 homers in as many AB's, as Echevarria homered in his final trip to the plate the night before vs. Portland...he was the top hitter in the Eastern League during June, batting .415 for the month (34-for-82)...he didn't cool too much in July, starting the month by hitting safely in 20 of 23 games at a .396 clip (36-for-91) with 19 runs scored and 26 RBI...that stretch included a pair of 6-RBI games, as he went 3-for-4 with a homer and 6-pack of RBI on July 9 in Norwich, followed by a 2-homer, 6-RBI contest on July 22 at Bowie...Echevarria took a liking to the park in Bowie, as he added another 6-RBI affair there on August 14...on the year, 46 of his 100 RBI came in just 10 games, with a pair of 3-RBI games, 3 with 4-RBI and 2 with 5-RBI to go with his 3 half-dozen RBI games...he struggled in the post-season set with Portland (2-for-15), but picked it up in the finals vs. Reading, batting .316 (6-for-19) with a homer and 6 RBI.

CAREER HIGHLIGHTS: 1994—Angel's season began where the '93 campaign ended, in Central Valley, but this time he earned a mid-season promotion that landed him in AA...while with Central Valley, he earned California League Player-of-the-Week honors for May 22-28, hitting .542 (13-for-24)...Angel was promoted to New Haven on June 12 and 3 days later went 2-for-4 with a homer and 5 RBI in a 7-6 win over Harrisburg...he had an odd stretch in late-July, hitting safely in 13 of 14 games, getting one hit in each contest, batting .271 (13-for-48). 1993—His first year at Central Valley, Angel was a .271 hitter in 104 games for the California League club. 1992—One of the original draft class, Echevarria was the 17th choice in the initial June draft for the Rockies and reported to Bend (OR)...he hit 5 homers in 57 games for the Rockies.

PERSONAL: Angel Santos Echevarria...he and wife, Denise, have a son, Angel Jr. (6/8/94) and make their off-season home in Bridgeport, CT...he was a 1989 graduate of Bassick High School in Bridgeport, then headed to a 3-year playing career at Rutgers University, the same school that Eric Young attended...Echevarria garnered several honors during his playing days at Rutgers, including Player-of-the-Year in New Jersey, twice an All-Conference selection, All-Atlantic Ten and twice on the NCAA All-Regional Team...he hit .322 during his senior season, as his club posted a 14-2 conference record...he spent last winter hitting .283 for Arecibo in Puerto Rico.

Ht: 6-3 Wt: 215 B/T: R/R
Age: 28 (Turns 29 on August 19)
Born: August 19, 1967 in Manchester, NH
Residence: Houston, TX
M.L. Service: 77 days

HOW OBTAINED: Selected as the eighth pick in the third round of the major league baseball expansion draft from the San Diego Padres, November 17, 1992.

1995 HIGHLIGHTS: Scott returned after missing the entire '94 season with a fractured left patella suffered in a spring training game...he had a solid return, going 11-3 with 4 saves in 58 games for the Sky Sox...he did not absorb a loss until June, going 4-0 with 2 saves through his first 18 outings, posting a 2.78 ERA in that stretch (7 ER in 22.2 IP)...after 3 rough games, getting tagged for 12 runs (5 earned) from June 1-8, Scott went into a streak that included 7 straight wins and 2 saves from June 11-July 27, totaling a 2.86 ERA with 9 earnies in 28.1 innings...after the string was snapped with a loss on July 30, Scott began his most consistent stretch of the year... from Aug. 1-28, he made 11 appearances covering 14.1 innings of shutout ball, allowing 7 hits with 13 K's...Freddie appeared in 5 games during the post-season, absorbing the loss in the first game of the series vs. Tucson, allowing a run in 2.0 frames...all totaled, he worked 7.2 innings in the playoffs, allowing 3 earned runs with 9 K's.

CAREER HIGHLIGHTS: 1994—Scott's year ended before it began, taking a line drive off his left knee in a March 20 exhibition game in Tucson, fracturing his left patella...the ball came off the bat of California's Chris Pritchett, and Scott had surgery that night, missing the entire season...he managed to recuperate in time to work a handful of innings in the Arizona Instructional League. 1993—His first career duty above the AA level, Fredrickson opened the year at Colorado Springs, then after a pair of saves in 5 appearances, he was called to the majors on April 26...his first stint in the bigs witnessed 9 outings, going 0-1, a loss in Denver to Atlanta on May 8 (8-7)...he was optioned back to AAA on May 19, but only 12 days later received a 2nd promotion to the Rockies...this time, he made 16 appearances, including a 5-game stretch in which he gave up 2 hits over 4.2 innings...he was returned to the Springs on July 24 after struggling through a 6-game period in which the opposition scored in 5 of those contests. 1992—His final season in the San Diego chain, Scott made 56 relief appearances at Wichita (AA)...he was most impressive in the 2nd half, giving up just 1 earned run in his last 23 games, a span of 28.2 IP for a 0.31 ERA, dropping his season mark from 5.04 to 3.19... included in that stretch were 26.0 consecutive scoreless innings...he followed that with 7.1 scoreless frames in the post-season, working 4 games and earning a save, as Wichita was the 3rd straight league champ that Fredrickson pitched for. 1991—He split the year between Waterloo and High Desert, earning the promotion to the higher A-ball club with impressive numbers at Waterloo...he gave up 5 earned runs in 38.1 frames for the Diamonds, a 1.17 ERA in 26 outings, as opposing hitters could muster just a .179 mark. 1990—Was San Diego's 14th round choice in the June draft and began his pro career in Spokane...his only pro start came as a member of the Indians, as he finished 3-3 with 8 saves in 26 games, fanning 61 in 46.2 innings.

PERSONAL: Scott Eric Fredrickson...he and wife, Becky, make their off-season home in Houston, TX...he was a 1985 graduate of Converse Judson (TX) High School, then took his game to the University of Texas, compiling a 0.89 ERA during his senior season for the Longhorns...he has spent his off-season time working as a pharmacist.

SCOTT'S CAREER BESTS

	Single Game
Strikeouts	— 3 (twice, last: 6/22/93 vs. Cincinnati)

1990 Signed by the San Diego Padres as a 14th round selection in the June Free Agent Draft.
1992 Selected by the Colorado Rockies as the 8th choice in the 3rd round of the MLB Expansion Draft, November 17.

19 Derrick Gibson

Outfielder

Ht: 6-2 Wt: 228 B/T: R/R
Age: 21
Born: February 5, 1975 in Winter Haven, FL
Residence: Winter Haven, FL
M.L. Service: None

HOW OBTAINED: Selected in the 13th round of the 1993 June Free Agent Draft.
1995 HIGHLIGHTS: A spectacular year in Asheville for the 20-year old outfielder, as Derrick tied for the league lead in home runs with 32, while also pilfering 31 bases, the first 30-30 campaign in the minors since Greg Vaughn with Beloit in 1987... Gibby's 115 RBI topped all of minor league ball, while the homer total was tied for 3rd best...he also led the South Atlantic League in total bases (280), ranked 2nd in slugging pct. (.553), tied for 2nd in triples (10) and topped the league in HR per AB ratio, with one every 15.81...he earned SAL All-Star honors and was selected by league managers as the 4th best prospect in a Baseball America poll, and was named the Rockies' Minor League Player-of-the-Year, earning an invitation to big league spring training '96...he had an uneventful start to the season, hitting .196 as late as May 16, with 4 homers and 23 RBI...then, on May 18 at home vs. Hickory, Derrick was 3-for-4 with a homer and 3 RBI and started a tear that would include an 8-for-17 skein (.471) over 4 games with 8 RBI...after hitting .180 in April, he turned it up to .270 in May, driving in 25, but that would be his last sub-.300 month for the year...Gibby earned S.A.L. Player-of-the-Month for June, hitting .352 (25-for-71) with 11 homers and 25 RBI...highlights of the month were many, but included homers in 4 straight games (June 24-27), and a stretch from June 13-29, when he homered 10 times in 14 contests, driving in 20...he did not let up in July, putting together a 17-game hitting streak that carried into August, batting .414 (29-for-70) with 3 doubles, 3 triples, 4 homers and 24 RBI during the skein...included was a streak of 8 games with at least 1 RBI (15 total), and the hitting streak culminated with a 4-for-4 contest at Charleston (SC) including a triple, an inside-the-park homer and 6 RBI...he powered his 30th homer of the year on August 23 vs. Piedmont and remained 2 stolen bases shy of his 30-30 year, then on Sept. 1 vs. Hickory, Derrick swiped a pair of bases to achieve 30-30 status...he was much more comfortable in home surroundings, hitting .321 (80-for-249) in Asheville, with 20 homers, while batting .265 on the road...a National Leaguer at heart, Gibby hit .298 (140-for-470) when playing leftfield, but just .229 (8-for-35) when employed as a designated hitter.

CAREER HIGHLIGHTS: 1994—Derrick showed signs of the player the Rockies had hoped for when they drafted him the previous year, hitting .264 in 73 games for the short-season Bend club...he was tied for the Northwest League lead in homers (12), extra-base hits (36), ranking 2nd in total bases (140), tying for 2nd in doubles (19) and RBI (57), and defensively leading all league outfielders with 10 assists...after a dismal initial season playing at Chandler in '93, Gibby turned enough heads to earn the 6th best tag from league managers in a poll conducted by Baseball America. 1993—Derrick played organized ball for the first time in 2 years, after not playing during his senior season of high school...his numbers showed the layoff as he hit .151 in 34 games for Chandler with no homers and 10 RBI.

PERSONAL: Derrick Lamont Gibson...he is single and makes his off-season home in Winter Haven, FL...he was a 1993 graduate and 4-sport letterman at Haines City (FL) High School, adding football, basketball and track to already impressive baseball skills...he signed a letter of intent to attend Auburn University, but did not qualify academically to play college football at the time and signed with the Rockies as their 13th choice in the '93 June draft...he spent last "off-season" honing his skill in the Hawaii Winter League, playing for the league champion Maui Stingrays, hitting .288 with a league-leading 8 homers.

Age: 32
Born: January 29, 1964 in Bayshore, NY
Residence: Bel Air, MD
M.L. Service: 6 years, 101 days

HOW OBTAINED: Signed as a minor league free agent, January 16, 1996.

1995 HIGHLIGHTS: John's season began with St. Louis, going 3-2 in 31 relief outings for the Redbirds, and not allowing a home run in his 40.2 innings of action...the opposition batted .222 overall (32-for-144), with righthanders hitting .194 (18-for-93)... his 3 wins in the N.L. portion of the '95 season were over the Rockies, Braves and Marlins...he was dealt to California the weekend before the All-Star break, returning to the A.L. on July 8 in exchange for outfielder Mark Sweeney and a player to be named...Habyan was not quite as successful in the 2nd half, going 1-2 with a 4.13 ERA in 28 games, as opponents hit .279, including a .293 mark by righties (22-for-75)...the year totaled 59 appearances, the 2nd highest total of his career (66 with the Yankees in '91)...his longest outing was a 3-inning stint in Atlanta on June 11...he surrendered a homer to the Tigers' Juan Bautista on July 21, the first given up in 58.2 innings, dating back to Florida's Kurt Abbott on June 14, 1994...oddly enough, the other home run off of Habyan in '95 was in his next outing on July 25 (Cleveland's Jim Thome)...overall, John was 0-for-2 in save situations, and had 8 of 37 inherited runners score.

CAREER HIGHLIGHTS: 1994—John spent the entire year with St. Louis, his first in the N.L., ranking 2nd on the staff with 52 appearances...he posted his only win and save within 5 days of each other, knocking off the Mets on May 6, then getting a rescue against the Cubs on May 11...Habyan held the opponents scoreless in 12 straight outings (April 16-May 12), and gave up just 2 earned runs in his first 18 games, (0.98 ERA)...he kept the ball in the yard, surrendering just 2 homers in 52 appearances...he was placed on the D.L. on June 29 for a pulled rib cage muscle, and not activated until July 21, with the Cards going 4-12 in his absence...John had another streak of a dozen straight shutout appearances upon his return, covering 10.1 innings. 1993—He split the year between the Yankees and Kansas City, totaling a 2-1 mark with a save and 4.15 ERA in 41 appearances...season started with New York, making 36 appearances, going 2-1 with the save...9 of the first 11 runs he surrendered were via the home run ball...he was traded to Kansas City on July 30 in a 3-way deal that sent Tuffy Rhodes to the Cubs, Paul Assenmacher to the Yankees and Habyan to the Royals...he made 12 relief appearances for KC, with no decisions and a 4.50 ERA. 1992—John led the Yanks in appearances for the 2nd straight year, going 5-6 with 7 saves in 56 outings...he was solid in his first 12 trips to the hill, going 1-0 with a save and 0.60 ERA, allowing 1 ER in 15.1 IP...he had a 0.75 ERA in April, followed by a 1.62 month of May, then it increased to 3.18 for June...a homer allowed on June 26 to Chicago's Robin Ventura was the first by a lefthanded hitter since July 3, 1988...he earned 5 of his 7 saves in first 5 appearances in July...Habyan was 3-3 with 6 saves and a 1.81 ERA at the break, but struggled post-break, allowing 21 ER in 14.1 IP upping his ERA to 4.25. 1991—Made 66 relief appearances, the most by a Yankee righthander in history...win on May 10 vs. Oakland was his first since the '88 campaign with Baltimore...homer allowed on June 29 at Milwaukee snapped 35-appearance string without allowing the long ball...he had 22.0 straight scoreless innings from July 18-Aug. 20...he was part of the quartet who notched 60+ appearances, the first time more than 2 pitchers appeared in that many games in Yankee history (Greg Cadaret, Steve Farr and Lee Guetterman). 1990—He spent the majority of the season with Columbus (AAA), but made 6 relief appearances with no decisions or saves for the Yankees...during stint in AAA, John made his last starts, getting the starting nod 11 times in 36 minor league appearances. 1989—Was in the minors the entire year, starting the campaign with Rochester, but was traded on July 20 from Baltimore organization to the Yankees in exchange for outfielder Stanley Jefferson...John's season started late as he was sidelined until June 9 with a separated right shoulder. 1988—The last time he was used exclusively as a starter, making 23 starts for Rochester, then making 7 relief appearances for the Orioles. 1987—Opened the year in AAA, then was recalled on May 18 for the duration of the season with Baltimore...went 2-7 in 13 starts, but was an impressive 4-0 with a save in 14 relief appearances...his 5 wins post-All-Star break tied for club best...best outing was Sept. 28 at Detroit, combining with Tom Niedenfuer for a 3-0 shutout over Jack Morris, one of 4 times the Tigers were blanked in '87. 1986—Used as a starter at Rochester, his 12 wins tied for 2nd best in the league, while completing 5 of his 25 starts...he was recalled on Aug. 29, making first big league start that day, a 4-0 loss at Oakland to Dave Stewart...first major league win as a starter was Sept. 20 vs. Milwaukee. 1985—Spent the majority of the year in AA at Charlotte, tossing a 9-inning no-hitter vs. Columbus on May 13...he also had a pair of 3-hitters during the year, culminated by his first big league duty...was in Instructional League in September, but joined Orioles on Sept. 23, making big league debut 6 days later in Yankee Stadium, working 0.2 innings of relief...John had a win in his other outing on October 3 vs. Boston...he was named to Southern League All-Star team, going 13-5 in 28 starts, including an 8-0 beginning that lasted until June 8. 1984—Made 26 starts on the year, the first 13 with Hagerstown and the remainder at Charlotte. 1982—John's pro career began with Bluefield (Rookie), tying for the Appalachian League lead in wins with 9.

PERSONAL: John Gabriel Habyan...he and wife, Bonnie, make their home in Bel Air, MD...he was a 1982 graduate of St. John the Baptist High School in Brentwood, NY...prior to making his move to Maryland, John spent a portion of the off-season as the assistant JV basketball coach at St. John the Baptist...he was voted the recipient of the 1992 Ben Epstein "Good Guy" Award by the New York chapter of the BBWAA.

Todd Helton
Infielder

Ht: 6-2 Wt: 190 B/T: L/L
Age: 22 (Turns 23 on August 20)
Born: August 20, 1973 in Knoxville, TN
Residence: Knoxville, TN
M.L. Service: None

HOW OBTAINED: Selected in the 1st round of the 1995 June Free Agent Draft.

1995 HIGHLIGHTS: When the '95 June draft rolled around, the Rockies thought enough of Todd to make him the first non-pitcher to be taken with the top pick in Colorado's brief 4-year draft history...after a summer that included a trip to the College World Series with his Tennessee Volunteers, and his selection as the Baseball America 1995 College Player-of-the-Year, Helton took a little time away before coming to terms with the Rockies and reporting to his new club in Asheville (A)...he experienced wood bats when he reached the professional level, yet came out of the chute hot, hitting safely in his first 5 games at a .471 clip (8-for-17)...he went into a tailspin, going 2-for-34 over his next 14 games, but followed that with a 9-game hitting streak, his longest of the year, batting .438 (14-for-32)...he finished with a respectable first-year mark of .254, but the one element of his game that didn't make an immediate transition from amateur to the pros was his power and RBI totals...Todd's lone homer with Asheville was in his 46th game on August 24 at home vs. Piedmont, while he finished with 15 RBI, compared to the 20-homer, 92-RBI season he had to closeout his college career at Tennessee earlier in the spring...after the regular season was complete, Todd went west to Hawaii to play winter ball for the Maui Stingrays, finishing 5th in the league in batting with a .291 mark, while hitting 3 homers and driving in 22.

PERSONAL: Todd Lynn Helton...he is single and resides in Knox, TN...he was a '92 graduate of Knox High School, lettering in both baseball and football...he was named to the Baseball America 1992 High School All America Team, hitting .655 (51-for-78) with 10 homers and 39 RBI...he continued to be a 2-sport star when he decided to stay local and attend the University of Tennessee, passing on an opportunity to turn pro when San Diego made him their 2nd choice in the 1992 June draft...instead passing footballs and throwing baseballs were in his plans, working as a quarterback for the gridiron Vols, including an extended stint as the starter in '94 due to an injury to Jerry Colquitt, and performing as a first baseman/pitcher in the spring...on the diamond, Todd set 19 school records and during the '95 season, led the Volunteers to the College World Series, both at the plate and on the hill... he narrowly missed the SEC triple crown, posting the 2nd best conference average at .407, while leading in homers (20) and RBI (92)...as a hurler, Helton was 8-2 with a 1.66 ERA, including 12 saves...he made 4 starts on the mound and went the distance each time for the win...for his efforts, Todd was named All-American for the 3rd straight year, he was the SEC Player-of-the-Year, the Mizuno/Collegiate Baseball Co-National Player-of-the-Year and earned MVP honors in the SEC Eastern Division post-season tournament.

David Kennedy
Infielder

Ht: 6-4 Wt: 215 B/T: R/R
Age: 25 (Turns 26 on September 3)
Born: September 3, 1970 in Glen Ridge, NJ
Residence: Glen Ridge, NJ
M.L. Service: None

HOW OBTAINED: Contract purchased from the St. Paul Saints of the Northern League on December 8, 1994.

1995 HIGHLIGHTS: David joined the Rockies' organization prior to the '95 campaign after spending the previous year with the St. Paul Saints in the Northern League...he was assigned to New Haven, his first year of AA action, finishing 5th in the Eastern League in batting (.306), 2nd in homers (22), 2nd in RBI (96) and 3rd in hits (148), and earning a spot on the post-season All-Star team...David never went more than 2 consecutive games without picking up a hit, and only 3 times had a drought that lasted 2 games...he opened the campaign 2-for-14 (.143) at the plate, then hit safely in 25 of the next 30 games at a .313 clip (36-for-115), closing that stretch with a 9-game streak in which he batted .389 (14-for-36)...on June 19, Kennedy began another streak, this time a season-best 15-gamer in which he batted .361 (22-for-61) with 14 RBI...streaks were prevalent throughout the season for the first baseman, who also had skeins of 13 and 8 (twice)...his 8-game hitting streak in mid-July ended with a home run on July 22, a 4th inning blast that marked the 4th time that Kennedy and Angel Echevarria hit back-to-back bombs...he went deep in both ends of a double-header on July 25 vs. Binghamton, and homered twice in a game on a pair of occasions, (August 6 vs. Binghamton & August 14 at Bowie)...David hit safely in 13 of his last 14 games of the year at a .353 clip (18-for-51)...he was a much better hitter in New Haven, batting .343 (79-for-230) with 13 of his homers at home...he played in all 9 post-season games, combining the series' for a .219 mark (7-for-32) with a double & homer.

CAREER HIGHLIGHTS: 1994—David doubled as a first baseman/designated hitter for the St. Paul Saints in the 50-game Northern League, hitting .292 (21-for-72) with 4 homers and 15 RBI. 1993—Kennedy's first year as a full-time position player after missing the entire '92 campaign due to injury...the former pitcher, David hit .238 in 74 games at Boise in the Angels' farm system. 1992—David turned his attention to the offensive side of baseball after having his right shoulder scoped and missing the entire campaign.

PERSONAL: David Edward Kennedy...he is single and makes his off-season home in Glen Ridge, NJ...a 1988 graduate of Glen Ridge High School, where he lettered in both baseball and basketball...David enrolled at Wake Forest, playing for the Demon Deacons before transferring to Montclair State University in '91...it was at Montclair State that Kennedy had a dream game, going 5-for-5 with 4 homers and 8 RBI in an NCAA Division III tournament...he was a pitcher/outfielder in college and drafted as a pitcher by the Angels in the 5th round of the 1991 June draft.

COLORADO ROCKIES

Ht: 6-4 Wt: 205 B/T: L/L
Age: 20 (Turns 21 on October 13)
Born: October 13, 1975 in Ft. Thomas, KY
Residence: Sarasota, FL
M.L. Service: None

HOW OBTAINED: Selected in the 1st round of the 1994 June Free Agent Draft.

1995 HIGHLIGHTS: In just his 2nd pro season, Doug made the jump to the upper A-ball league, spending the entire season with Salem of the Carolina League...it took some time for him to post his first victory for the Avalanche, going 0-3 through 9 outings (8 starts), a stretch that included a trip to the disabled list...after an April 26 start in Durham, Doug was shelved with a sore left shoulder, not working again until May 23, when he was eased back into duty with a 1.2 inning relief stint...upon returning to the starting role, he suffered back-to-back losses, then after a pair of no decisions, Doug finally broke into the win column with a 6-5 triumph over Durham on June 20...that win propelled the 19-year old southpaw into a 3-game winning streak, covering 5 starts...he worked a season-high 7.1 innings on June 26, giving up 5 hits and a run in a 6-1 win over Lynchburg...he had a pair of low-run losses on the year, with control a contributing factor to the defeat...he walked 7 and gave up 2 hits over 5.1 frames on July 17 at Prince William, losing a 1-0 decision...on August 23, Doug surrendered a hit on 6 walks, losing a 2-1 affair to Wilmington...his 79 walks on the year tied for the league lead...Million recorded 5 games with 6 or more strikeouts, including back-to-back starts in the early going, when he fanned 16 over 10.1 innings...his season best occurred on April 16, his 2nd start at this level, fanning 9.

CAREER HIGHLIGHTS: 1994—The 18-year old first round pick started his pro career at Chandler, but was promoted to Bend after just 3 starts, going 1-0 with a 1.50 ERA, allowing 2 ER in 12.0 IP...he moved to the Northwest League, where he was named the 3rd best prospect in a managers poll conducted by Baseball America...Doug went 5-3 with a 2.34 ERA, but delete one start in which 6 earned runs scored in 3.1

innings, he posted a 1.49 ERA for his other 9 outings...he fanned 10 men in 4.0 innings on July 14 at Everett, and matched that on August 19 with a 4-1 win over Boise, with 8.0 frames of 3-hit ball...Million set a career-best in his season finale on August 30 at Eugene, striking out 11, giving up 2 hits in a 6-0 triumph...combining his 3-start stint at Chandler, Doug fanned 94 men in 69.2 innings during his inaugural pro year.

PERSONAL: Douglas Lloyd (Doug) Million...he is single and resides in Sarasota, FL, where he was a 1994 graduate of Sarasota High School, where he twice won the Florida 5-A title, and culminated a storied prep career when Sarasota earned the #1 ranking in the nation by going 33-4 in 1994...as for Doug, he was the National High School Player-of-the-Year in '94, going 12-2 with a 1.21 ERA, fanning 149 men in 87.0 innings...his final high school game actually ended twice, as Doug was leading 9-0 with 2 out in the 7th inning and appeared to fan the final hitter...his catcher rolled the ball back to begin the celebration, but the pitch was in the dirt and ruled that the runners could advance since there were 2 out...the batter and a previous baserunner scored to make the score 9-2 while the celebration continued, but Doug regained his composure and retired the next hitter to officially end the contest.

5 Neifi Perez
Infielder

COLORADO ROCKIES

Ht: 6-0 Wt: 173 B/T: S/R
Age: 21
Born: February 2, 1975 in Villa Mella, DR
Residence: Santo Domingo, DR
M.L. Service: None

HOW OBTAINED: Signed as a non-drafted free agent on November 9, 1992.

1995 HIGHLIGHTS: Neifi got his first taste of AAA ball, a brief taste, but he was able to open the year with Colorado Springs, playing in 11 games for the Sky Sox and hitting .278 (10-for-36)...he had a 5-game streak during his stay, going 9-for-18 (.500) with 3 doubles...he was shipped to New Haven after an April 23 doubleheader in Colorado Springs, and Perez didn't waste any time getting to his next assignment, as he was in the lineup in Norwich on April 25...he responded well offensively early, hitting .300 (12-for-40) through his first 12 games for the Ravens...Neifi never went into any extended slumps, but did have a problem securing multi-hit games, as his average fell to .232 as late as July 17...it was the next day he started an 8-game hitting streak, in which 7 of those contests were multi-hit affairs...he hit .531 (17-for-32) during the streak, with 7 runs scored, 4 doubles and 5 RBI...his best single-game effort was August 14 when he went 4-for-5 with 3 doubles, a homer and 3 RBI in a win at Bowie...he played in all 9 post-season games for the Ravens, going 8-for-32 (.250) with a double and 3 RBI...defensively, Neifi led the Eastern League in fielding pct. for shortstops with a .967 mark and tied for the top spot in double plays turned with 80...he made great strides at cutting back on miscues, committing 18 with New Haven and 3 with Colorado Springs, compared to 39 errors the year before at Central Valley.

CAREER HIGHLIGHTS: 1994—Neifi struggled early in his first year at upper-A ball, hitting .180 through the end of May at Central Valley...he managed to turn that around by hitting .275 over a 42-game span that earned him a spot on the California League All-Star team...he proved to be a free swinger, walking just 3 times during the 5-week hot stretch... Perez continued a solid 2nd half by stringing 4 consecutive multi-hit games from August 20-23, going 9-for-18 in that span (.500)...he finished the year leading the league with 19 sacrifice bunts...he was the busiest shortstop in the league, ranking in the top spot in chances (650), putouts (223) and double plays (86). 1993—His first year as a professional, Neifi batted .260 in 75 games for Bend (OR)...he was named the 10th best prospect in a poll of league managers by Baseball America.

PERSONAL: Neifi Neftali Perez (Diaz)...he is single and makes his off-season home in Santo Domingo, DR...he was signed by the Rockies as a 17-year old on November 9, 1992...he spent the past winter playing for Escogido in his native Dominican Republic, batting .281.

Will Scalzitti
Catcher

Ht: 6-0 Wt: 188 B/T: R/R
Age: 23 (Turns 24 on August 29)
Born: August 29, 1972 in Oak Park, IL
Residence: Hollywood, FL
M.L. Service: None

HOW OBTAINED: Selected in the 6th round of the 1992 June Free Agent Draft.
1995 HIGHLIGHTS: His season started promisingly at New Haven, but turned into an injury shortened campaign...Will began the year as the starting catcher for the Ravens, as Mark Strittmatter opened the campaign at Colorado Springs...Scalzitti performed well early, hitting .324 through 10 games, including a 5-game streak that featured a 9-for-19 (.474) stretch...upon Strittmatter's return, playing time was shared and in the process, Will's bat turned cold, as he went the remainder of his time at New Haven batting .135 (12-for-89)...he was moved to Salem (A) in mid-July, appearing in 11 games before disaster struck, as he suffered a fractured right thumb, bringing an immediate end to his season...it was unfortunate for several reasons, but Will had begun throwing the ball well while at Salem, nabbing 8 of 13 potential base thieves (62%) after zapping only 28% while with New Haven.
CAREER HIGHLIGHTS: 1994—Will had a taste of 3 levels, starting his 2nd straight year at Central Valley, also working briefly at New Haven and Colorado Springs...while with the C.V. Rockies, Scalzitti posted a .253 average in 81 games, with a career-best 9 homers...his first half efforts earned him a spot to play in the California League All-Star Game on June 21...his 10th inning homer snapped a 9-9 tie on June 24 to beat San Jose...Will threw the ball well all year, nailing 40% of the would-be base stealers (44-for-111) while with Central Valley...he played 10 games at AA-New Haven, going 7-for-30 (.233), and was employed in one game at Colorado Springs, going 0-for-1 at the plate. 1993—He and Mark Strittmatter shared the catching role at Central Valley, with Scalzitti working 75 games, hitting .242. 1992—He was Colorado's 6th choice in the June draft, but little did he know that Will Scalzitti would quickly become one of the first recognizable names in franchise history...the scene was June 16, 1992, in Bend, OR, the site of the first game in Rockies' history, as the Bend Rockies hosted the Boise Hawks...Scalzitti capped a 5-run, 8th inning rally, with a grand slam to leftfield, giving the Northwest League club the first-ever win for the organization...the ball still resides in the trophy case in the front office entry to Coors Field...he also had the first hit for the franchise, singling with 2-out in the 1st inning...Will finished '92 with a .287 mark for the short-season club, with 16 doubles, 7 homers and 40 RBI.

PERSONAL: William Terrence (Will) Scalzitti...he is single and makes his off-season home in Hollywood, FL...Will was a 1990 graduate of South Broward (FL) High School, lettering in baseball and football...he then attended Florida International University and Miami Dade-North JUCO...he was named All-American on the Junior Olympic team and invited to the Olympic trials in 1991...Will also earned All-Star status while catching for Brewster in the Cape Cod League in '91.

7 Chris Sexton

Infielder

COLORADO ROCKIES

Ht: 5-11 Wt: 175 B/T: R/R

Age: 24 (Turns 25 on August 3)
Born: August 3, 1971 in Cincinnati, OH
Residence: Cincinnati, OH
M.L. Service: None

HOW OBTAINED: Acquired from the Cincinnati Reds in exchange for Marcus Moore, April 10, 1995.

1995 HIGHLIGHTS: Chris opened the year with Winston-Salem, the A-ball club of the Cincinnati Reds, but just 4 games into the season, the shortstop was dealt to the Rockies in exchange for Marcus Moore, and the "Winston" was removed from his uniform, as he joined the Salem Avalanche...after hitting in 4 straight with his old organization to open the year, Sexton hit safely in his first 5 games for Salem, giving him a 9-game streak in which he hit .412 (14-for-34) with 9 runs scored...he led the league with 84 runs scored, also topping the charts in patience, walking 97 times...he had an impressive streak from April 26-May 14, picking up at least one walk in 16 straight games (25 total walks) and scoring 19 times...Sexton was hitting .299 on June 20, but his numbers tailed off in the 2nd half, struggling through a .208 month of July...he recovered to hit .281 in August, including a pair of 4-hit games during the final week of the season...he homered 5 times in his first 25 games, but did not go deep again in his remaining 102 contests...his 10th inning single on August 20 provided a win for the Avalanche over Winston-Salem, as Sexton snapped the tie with the Warthogs... defensively, Chris led Carolina League shortstops in virtually every category, heading the list in fielding pct. (.966), chances (646), putouts (201), assists (423) and double plays (73)...after his Salem season ended, Chris was promoted to New Haven, where he went 0-for-3 in his only regular season start, then went 0-for-2 in the post-season.

CAREER HIGHLIGHTS: 1994—Chris spent the entire season at Charleston (WV), finishing 4th in the league batting race with a .300 mark, while leading the S.A.L. in on-base pct. (.412) and tying for 2nd in walks (91)...he also established a career best with 18 stolen bases. 1993—Sexton's first year of pro ball was with Billings, as they ran away with the Northern Division, then won the Pioneer League crown... Chris led the league in runs scored (63) and finished 4th in batting (.333).

PERSONAL: Christopher P. (Chris) Sexton...he is single and resides in his native Cincinnati, OH, where he was a 1989 graduate from St. Xavier High School...he then played collegiately at Miami University in Oxford, OH, earning Mid-American Conference Player-of-the-Year honors for his senior season in 1993, batting .429 on the year, 2nd best in the conference and the 14th best overall average in the nation...he also hit over .400 during his sophomore season at Miami (.412)...while playing ball, Chris earned his Business degree...after completing his college playing days, Sexton was drafted by his hometown team, the 10th pick in the '93 draft by Cincinnati.

Mark Strittmatter
Catcher

Ht: 6-1 Wt: 200 B/T: R/R
Age: 26 (Turns 27 on April 4)
Born: April 4, 1969 in Huntington, NY
Residence: Ridgewood, NJ
M.L. Service: None

HOW OBTAINED: Selected in the 28th round of the 1992 June Free Agent Draft.

1995 HIGHLIGHTS: Mark's season opened at AAA, due to the late-start of major league camp and the need for catchers in Tucson...he appeared in 5 games for the Sky Sox, going 5-for-17 (.294) with a pair of doubles...following an April 23 start vs. Albuquerque, he was moved to New Haven, spending the remainder of the year with the Ravens, carrying the blunt of the catching chores...Stritty didn't have any extended hitting streaks, and was batting as low as .199 nearing the end of July, but he turned it up offensively in August, batting .324 (24-for-74) on the month, then went 4-for-9 in Sept. (.444)...his best stretch was a 7-game streak (Aug. 11-19), when he batted .520 (13-for-25) with 9 runs scored, 3 doubles, 4 homers and 7 RBI...included in that frame was his 2nd grand slam of the year, a bases clearing clout on August 12 at Bowie...he also went deep with the bases juiced on May 6 at home vs. Canton-Akron, driving in 6 in a 15-11 victory, the first of 3 salami's in as many games for the Ravens (Lou List and Angel Echevarria)...his late-season offensive push carried into the post-season, as Mark batted .300 (9-for-30) in the 9 games, going 6-for-19 in the championship series...he had an impressive game #4, going 3-for-4 with a double, homer and 4 RBI...behind the plate, Stritty nabbed 35% of the would-be basestealers (29-of-82).

CAREER HIGHLIGHTS: 1994—Mark split the catching duties with Jorge Brito at New Haven, compiling a .228 mark in 73 games behind the plate...he was the top defensive catcher in the Eastern League, committing only 4 errors for a .992 fielding pct...he nabbed 30 of 81 potential base thieves, good for 37%. 1993—Stritty spent the majority of the season at Central Valley, but due to attrition at the position, he was tabbed for a couple of appearances on the AAA level...while with the C.V. Rockies, he opened the year with a 9-game hitting streak, peaking his average to .351 in the early-going...the figure gradually settled around the .290 mark until a season-ending 4-for-31 slide bottomed the mark out at .263...in a pair of short stays with the Sky Sox, Mark went 1-for-5 during each visit...an outstanding signal caller, he committed just 2 errors in 468 chances at A-ball, and had no errors with Colorado Springs. 1992—After signing as the 795th overall pick in the June draft, Mark reported to the first club in franchise history at Bend, OR, hitting .257 in 35 games, sharing time behind the plate with Will Scalzitti.

PERSONAL: Mark Arthur Strittmatter...he is single and resides in Ridgewood, NJ, where he graduated from high school in 1987, lettering in both baseball and basketball...he then attended Virginia Commonwealth University in Richmond, VA, playing for a club that went 35-22 during his senior season of '92, winning the Metro Conference title in VCU's first year in that conference and missed an opportunity to go to the College World Series by losing to the host Texas Longhorns in the Central Regional final...Strittmatter batted .361 during his senior year, 10th best in the conference...Mark was the final All-Conference catcher for VCU in the Sun Belt Conference in 1991, as the school moved into the Metro the following year...he spent the winter of '94 playing for Gene Glynn on the Maui Stingrays in Hawaii.

Jamey Wright
Righthanded Pitcher

COLORADO ROCKIES

Ht: 6-5 Wt: 203 B/T: R/R
Age: 21 (Turns 22 on December 24)
Born: December 24, 1974 in Oklahoma City, OK
Residence: Richardson, TX
M.L. Service: None

HOW OBTAINED: Selected in the 1st round of the 1993 June Free Agent Draft.

1995 HIGHLIGHTS: The young righthander made great strides during the '95 season, making 26 starts at Salem (A), before closing the year with a start at New Haven (AA) and remaining a starter for them in the post-season…his season got off to an inauspicious start when he was on the wrong end of a no-hitter in his first game at Salem, losing an 8-0 affair at Prince William…after going 1-3 at the outset, Jamey had a 5-game winning streak, with 4 of the victories coming in successive starts (April 29-May16), in which he allowed 2 earned runs in 24.1 IP for a 0.73 ERA…following a no decision in which he was nailed for 6 earnies, Wright extended the winning streak to 5 with a 4-3 win on his return to Prince William, giving up 5 hits and no earned runs in 7.2 innings…through his first 12 starts, Jamey pitched into the 7th inning 3 times, but proved to be durable in the 2nd half, working into at least the 7th inning on 12 of 14 occasions…there wasn't much middle ground in his performances, giving up 26 earned runs in his 8 losses, covering 49.0 innings for a 4.76 ERA…as for the good news, he surrendered only 21 earnies in his other 18 starts, totaling 122.0 frames for a 1.55 ERA…twice he went the distance, winning a 2-1 decision at June 24 at Lynchburg, allowing only 4 hits, then blanking Winston-Salem, 4-0, on August 19, scattering 7 hits…his strikeout high was 8 in 6.2 frames of a no decision on June 30 vs. Winston-Salem…Jamey finished the year tied for the top spot in innings (171.0) and showed his athletic ability by leading all pitchers in total chances (49), and was deemed by the managers of the Carolina League, the 6th best prospect…he was moved to AA-New Haven for a Sept. 3 start against New Britain, losing an 8-0 decision…Wright remained with the Ravens and started the final game of each series in the post-season…he was a 10-0 winner in the clincher over Portland, throwing 6.0 no-hit innings, walking 7 and fanning 5, then lost the deciding contest to Reading, a 13-2 decision, working 4.0 frames, allowing 4 hits and 3 runs.

CAREER HIGHLIGHTS: 1994—Jamey spent the entire year at Asheville, making 28 appearances (27 starts), but struggled in the win column, going 7-14. 1993—After signing his initial pro contract, the 18-year old hurler reported to Chandler, AZ, making 8 starts and going 1-3.

PERSONAL: Jamey Alan Wright…he is single and resides in Richardson, TX…Jamey was a 1993 graduate of Westmoore High School in Moore, OK, where he lettered in both baseball and basketball…his hardwood skills enabled him a full scholarship offer to the University of Oklahoma, but he passed and signed a pro contract with the Rockies as the 28th overall pick in the June draft…on the hill as a prepster as a senior, Jamey was named a 2nd team High School All-American, going 7-2 with a 0.57 ERA, fanning 94 men in 62.0 innings…he was also named Gatorade Circle of Champions Player-of-the-Year for the Southwest region.

1995 Division Series

The 1995 Colorado Rockies became the first expansion team in major league history to play beyond the regular season before its 8th year of operation. By becoming the first Wild Card winner in National League history, the Rockies posted the best winning percentage of any 3rd year club, going 77-67 (.535) and earned the opportunity to play the Atlanta Braves in the first-ever N.L. Division Playoff Series.

The Rockies lost to the eventual World Champions, 3 games to 1, despite holding a lead in each contest. The lone victory was in the 3rd game of the series in Fulton County Stadium, a 7-5, 10-inning triumph in which Eric Young and Vinny Castilla each homered. The linescores from the series with the Braves:

OPPONENT BESTS AGAINST THE ROCKIES

Entering the '96 season, Atlanta's David Justice and Chicago's Sammy Sosa had blasted 13 home runs against Colorado, the most by any opposing players. Cincinnati's Reggie Sanders and San Francisco's Matt Williams follow close behind with 12 apiece. Justice holds the mark for the most homers in a single season against the Rockies with 6 in 1993, 4 coming in Denver and 2 in Atlanta. Williams has hit the most dingers overall in Denver, belting 9 of his 12 roundtrippers in the Mile High City, including all 5 in the '95 campaign. St. Louis outfielder Ray Lankford has posted the most homers by an opponent in his own ballpark, hammering 7 of his 9 against Colorado in Busch Stadium.

LEADOFF HOME RUNS

On April 9, 1993, Eric Young forever ingratiated himself to Colorado Rockies fans by homering off Kent Bottenfield, then of the Montreal Expos, as the leadoff hitter in the first home game in club history. Since then the Rox have hit seven home runs to open a contest, including three more by "EY" himself.

Colorado's opponents have also gotten into the act, blasting 10 home runs out of the chute. Following is a list of all the leadoff home runs in the Rockies' brief history:

Rockies' outfielder Dante Bichette was a popular choice for the 1995 club awards, claiming the Rockie-of-the-Month honor four times. This was a familiar picture for Rockies fans — Larry Walker greeting the runner-up for the N.L. MVP with a "forearm bash" after one of his 40 home runs.

1995 June Draft Summary

For the first time in the four year draft history of the Rockies, the club chose a position player with their number one selection, making University of Tennessee first baseman Todd Helton the 8th pick in the country. He led the Vols to the College World Series and was named Baseball America's Player-of-the-Year.

Helton headed the list of 58 players selected, consisting of 25 pitchers (three lefthanded), nine catchers, 17 infielders and seven outfielders.

The Rockies signed 32 players, including their top 26 selections and 31 of their first 33. The signees included all 20 four-year college selections, four of 12 junior college picks and eight of 26 high school players chosen.

The position breakdown on the signees included 15 pitchers (two lefthanded), four catchers, nine infielders and four outfielders.

Dave Holliday

National Cross-Checker

Dave Holliday returns for his 3rd year with the Rockies scouting department, but 1st as a national cross-checker... spent the past two seasons a regional cross-checker, covering the midwest for the annual June Free Agent Draft...prior to joining the Rockies staff, he was an area scout for the Pittsburgh Pirates from 1990-93...had an extensive coaching career before getting into scouting full-time, most recently serving as an assistant coach for Oklahoma State University from 1981-88...it marked his 2nd stint with OSU, getting his first assistant coach position there in 1977-78...he then moved on to Yavapai Junior College as an assistant coach during the 1979-80 campaign...from there, Dave spent one year as the head coach at Murray State Junior College before returning to the Cowboys staff...a native of Uniontown, PA, he graduated from Uniontown High School in 1973...attended Grand Canyon University in Phoenix, earning a B.S. in Physical Education and a M.S. in Exercise Physiology in 1977...he and wife, Sonya, have two daughters, Hailee and Hillary, and son, Heath, and make their home in Coalgate, OK.

Jeff Schugel

National Cross-Checker

Jeff brings over 12 years of professional baseball experience to the organization...joined the Rockies in 1993 and begins his 3rd season as a national cross-checker...he came on board after six and a half years with the Minnesota Twins scouting department, working from 1987-91 as the Florida scouting supervisor, then the last two seasons as their East Coast supervisor...a former player in the Twins' chain, Schugel played in 1983 at Elizabethton, then spent the 1984-85 seasons in Visalia, before going into scouting...at Elizabethton, he led his club with a .308 average, ranking 3rd in the Appalachian League...collected his first professional hit in style, blasting a grand slam...a versatile contributor, he played third and first base, while also catching...a native of New Ulm, MN, he graduated from Mankato State University, earning a B.S. in Municipal Recreation...he and wife, Tamera, have a son, A.J., and reside in Winter Haven, FL.

IN MEMORY OF:

Herb Hippauf

(1940-1995)

Last summer, the Rockies family lost one of their original members, with the passing of National Cross-Checker Herb Hippauf. Herb was in his 28th season as a scout in professional baseball, dating back to the 1968, when he began with the Houston Astros.

In memory of Herb's dedication to the club's success, the Rockies have instituted a scouting award, with the recipient to be named in May of each year. The award will read:

"An original Rockie. To all of those who are bestowed this honor, let it be known that as Herb displayed to us in Colorado Rockies tradition, you are; loyal, dedicated, tough, untiring, fair, honest, firm, unselfish, and committed in doing what is best in the interest of the Colorado Rockies Baseball Club."

Judy Hippauf, widow of Rockies' scout Herb Hippauf, throws out the ceremonial first pitch prior to the first post-season game in club history against Atlanta, October 3, 1995.

Minor League Field Staff

Rick Mathews

Coordinator of Instruction

Returns to the role of minor league coordinator of instruction after working as the bullpen coach for the big league club in '95...he also served the Rockies organization in his current position for the '94 campaign...originally joined the Rockies' chain during the summer of '92 as the pitching coach at Mesa in the Arizona Rookie League...he was then slated to work in Bend the following year, but wound up coaching in the major league bullpen for a large portion of the inaugural season...his professional field duty has included managerial stints in the Kansas City organization and he also served as the Assistant Director of Player Development for the Royals in the mid 80's...his pro experience dates back to the early 1970's when he was a part-time scout for the Royals (1971-74) and the Phillies (1974-77)...he was a 1965 graduate of Centerville HS, then attended Indian Hills JC, a school he would coach for 6 years later in his career...he followed that by attending and pitching for Drake University, earning a B.A. in 1969...Rick later earned a master's degree from Northeast Missouri State University...after completing his collegiate pitching career, he went directly into coaching at the high school level for 7 years...from there, he moved on to the junior college level, working at Iowa Western JUCO for 5 years...in that span, Rick was named the District-Coach-of-the-Year on three occasions...following the 1980 season, he stepped up to the professional circuit, before he returned to JUCO coaching in his hometown at Indian Hills Community College for 6 years, the same school current scouting director, Pat Daugherty, spent 17 years of his coaching life...he and wife, Mary Louise, have a son, Jonathan, and a daughter, Sarah, and reside in Centerville, IA.

Clint Hurdle

Roving Hitting Instructor

Enters his 22nd year in professional baseball and returns for his third season with the Rockies minor league field staff...prior to joining the organization, he managed at Tidewater, the AAA affiliate of the Mets in 1992 & 93...managed in the Mets' chain for a total of six seasons, also working at St. Lucie (A), Jackson (AA) and Williamsport (AA)...originally selected in the 1st round (9th overall) in the 1975 June Draft by the Kansas City Royals...named American Association Rookie-of-the-Year and M.V.P. for Omaha in '77, and earned his first trip to the big leagues at the end of the season...played at the major league level in all, or parts of 10 seasons for Kansas City, Cincinnati, New York (NL) and St. Louis...was a member of the 1980 American League Champion Kansas City Royals, hitting .417 (5-for-12) in the World Series..."Clint Hurdle's Big League Experience" is a two session, one week instructional camp that he runs in the off-season...this winter will be their 10th year of operation and 2nd camp held at Dogertown...In January, Clint used his camp and clinic experience to basically serve as the "commissioner" of the Rockies 1st ever Fantasy Camp held in Tucson...he has one daughter, Ashley, and makes his off-season home in Palm City, FL.

MINOR LEAGUE ROCKIE-OF-THE-YEAR

The award goes to the minor league player who had the most outstanding season, not only from a statistical standpoint, but also acknowledging improvement, character and commitment to his ballclub. A pre-requisite for winning this award is to be named pitcher/player of the month at least one time during the year. The Rockie-of-the-Year will earn an automatic invite to spring training for the following season. This honor is voted upon by the Rockies' Baseball Operations staff. The winners:

Bill Hayes

Manager

Enters his third season as a manager in the Rockies organization, but first at the AA-level...spent each of the past two seasons at the helm of the Rockies A-level entries, leading Central Valley of the California League in 1994 and making the move with the club last year to Salem of the Carolina League...prior to joining the organization, he spent the previous six seasons managing in the Chicago Cubs organization, finishing in 1993 at Daytona Beach...managerial career began in 1988 at Geneva of the New York-Penn League where he stayed for three years before taking the helm at Peoria and Winston-Salem for a year apiece...a former catcher, he played in the Cubs chain from 1978-85 and '87, with a brief stop in the Kansas City organization in '86...made stops at all levels including brief stints in the majors in '80 and '81 with Chicago...a '75 graduate of St. Patrick's (NE) H.S. and attended Indiana State University in Terre Haute, IN...he and wife, Kimberly, have two daughters, Kirstyn and Megan, and reside in Phoenix, AZ.

Jack Lamabe

Pitching Coach

Returns for his fourth season in the Rockies organization and first at New Haven after spending the past two seasons in Asheville of the South Atlantic League...his '95 staff tied for the best ERA in the league, while the bullpen led the minor league chain with 44 saves after tying for the honor in '94 with 39 rescues...coached two of his hurlers to over 10 wins last year, while his '94 staff featured one of the youngest starting rotations in the league, with each pitcher being 20-years old or younger...originally joined the organization in '93, serving as pitching coach for Central Valley...prior to joining the Rockies, he spent nine seasons in the Padres' system, working at Spokane of the Northwest League in 1991-92...for five seasons he worked on both the AA and AAA levels for the Padres, then served as a roving instructor in 1989-90...a former big league pitcher, he made the most of his one year with St. Louis, winning the World Championship over Boston in 1967...prior to joining the professional coaching ranks with San Diego, he was the head baseball coach at Louisiana State University in Baton Rouge, LA, compiling a 159-116 career mark for the Tigers...he and wife, Janet, have one son, John, and one daughter, Jennifer, and reside in Baton Rouge, LA.

Greg Gross

Batting Coach

The only holdover from the Ravens '95 coaching staff, he enters his second season as a professional coach...the club came within a game of claiming the Eastern League Title last year, largely in part to his offense improving in every major category from the year before...a former outfielder, he enjoyed a 17-year major league playing career for Houston, Chicago (NL) and Philadelphia...was named the Sporting News Rookie-of-the-Year after hitting .314 with a career high 185 hits in 156 games for the Astros in 1974...finished second behind Bake McBride in BBWAA balloting for the top rookie honor...played with the Cubs in 1977-78 and set a career high with 5 homers in the '77 campaign...spent 10-seasons with the Phillies from 1979-88, playing on the World Championship team in '80 and appeared in another fall classic in 1983...collected his 1,000th career hit on May 25, 1987 at San Diego off Lance McCullers...returned to the Astros for his final season in 1989 and finished his career with 143 pinch hits...originally a 4th round selection of the Astros in 1970, he and wife, Debbie have two children, Megan and Michael, and reside in Malvern, PA.

Bill McGuire

Manager

Enters his second season as a manager, but first at Salem after leading Asheville to post-season play last year...following a 32-36 1st half record, Bill led the club to a 44-27 effort in the last half of the campaign, eventually falling to Piedmont in the playoffs, two games to one...joined the organization in '93, serving as a coach at Bend and followed in a similar role in '94 at Asheville...playing career spanned eight seasons as a catcher, including a pair of stops with the Seattle Mariners...originally an '82 draft choice of the Cleveland Indians, but did not sign and attended the University of Nebraska, twice earning All-Big 8 and All-Academic honors...was then Seattle's 2nd selection in the '85 June draft, a compensation pick from Oakland after the A's signed free agent Steve Henderson...it was against Oakland that he picked up his first major league hit on August 7, 1988...only big league home run was a 3-run shot off Cleveland's Bud Black on June 11, 1989...spent the '91 season in Colorado Springs in the Indians' chain before signing as a free agent with the Cubs organization prior to the '92 campaign...he has two daughters, Emily and Katie, and makes his off-season home in Omaha, NE.

Billy Champion

Pitching Coach

The former pitcher returns for his third season with the Rockies minor league staff and second consecutive at Salem...in '94, he was the pitching coach for the organization's first AA affiliate in New Haven and enjoyed great success with the Ravens staff...they led the Eastern League with a 3.45 ERA and "Champ" earned the Rockies' Player Development Man-of the-Year award for his efforts...six of his pitchers made 20 or more starts that year and each compiled an ERA below 3.50...prior to joining the Rockies, he worked as a scout for the Chicago Cubs...playing career spanned 13 seasons from 1965-77, including all or parts of 7 seasons at the major league level with the Philadelphia Phillies and Milwaukee Brewers...he was the Phillies' 3rd selection in the 1965 June Draft out of Shelby (NC) H.S., and had the lowest ERA in the Northern League for Huron (SD) in his first year of professional ball...had one year of previous coaching experience in the minor leagues, serving as the pitching coach for Pikeville of the Appalachian League in 1983...he has one daughter, Ashley, and one son, Travis, and resides in Shelby, NC.

Joe Marchese

Coach

Enters his second season as a coach with the organization, after spending last year with the Asheville club...prior to joining the Rockies, he spent his entire 9-year professional career with the Boston Red Sox organization...in 1993-94, he was a coach for Lynchburg in the Carolina League after serving Winter Haven in the same capacity for the 1991-92 seasons...was originally a 13th round selection of the Red Sox in the June 1986 Free Agent Draft and spent four years in Boston's minor league system...primarily a second baseman, he also saw action at first base, shortstop and the outfield...enjoyed his best season in 1988, batting .268 in 132 games at Lynchburg with 24 doubles and 71 runs scored...led Carolina League second basemen with 669 total chances and 278 putouts...finished 2nd in the league with 530 at-bats and 5th with 142 hits...also ranked 2nd toughest to strikeout, averaging only 1 for every 13.2 plate appearances...Joe graduated from Mankato State University in Mankato, MN and resides in New Berlin, WI.

HT: 6-4 WT: 195 B/T: R/R Hometown: Sidney, OH
Born: November 4, 1969 in Sidney, OH
School: Mt. Vernon Nazerene
How Acquired: Selected in the 13th round of the June 1992 Free Agent Draft.
Career Notes: Earned the save in Game 2 of the '95 Eastern League divisional playoffs, working the final 3.1 frames allowing just 1 hit against Portland...his strong effort in 1994 earned him a spot on the 40-man roster for the 1st time in his career...did not allow an earned run in his 1st 16.2 innings of action, covering 9 games, with 2 saves at Central Valley...was promoted to AA where he was also used mostly out of the bullpen...his best work came in a 16-game stretch from June 14-August 1, allowing only 1 earned run in 20.2 frames for a 0.44 ERA with 8 saves...had an excellent stint with Sun Cities in the Arizona Fall League after the '94 campaign, giving up just 2 earned runs in 16.2 innings, a span of 11 outings, for a 1.08 ERA... appeared in the NAIA District playoffs twice while pitching for Mt. Vernon Nazerene.

Minor League Honor Roll

The Colorado Rockies began the tradition of honoring minor league players with monthly awards in 1992. Winners, as voted by the Rockies' Baseball Operations staff, receive a Colorado Rockies wristwatch.

The winners:

MONTH	PITCHER	PLAYER
May	Matt Connolly (Visalia)	Troy Ricker (Visalia)
June	Mark Thompson (Bend)	Will Scalzitti (Bend)
July	Roger Bailey (Bend)	Ryan Turner (Visalia)
August	Mike Eiffert (Bend)	Quinton McCracken (Bend)

1993

May	Rod Pedraza (New Haven)	Trenidad Hubbard (Col. Spgs.)
June	Phil Schneider (New Haven)	Craig Counsell (New Haven)
July	Juan Acevedo (New Haven)	Derrick Gibson (Bend)
August	Mark Brownson (Chandler)	John Myrow (Central Valley)

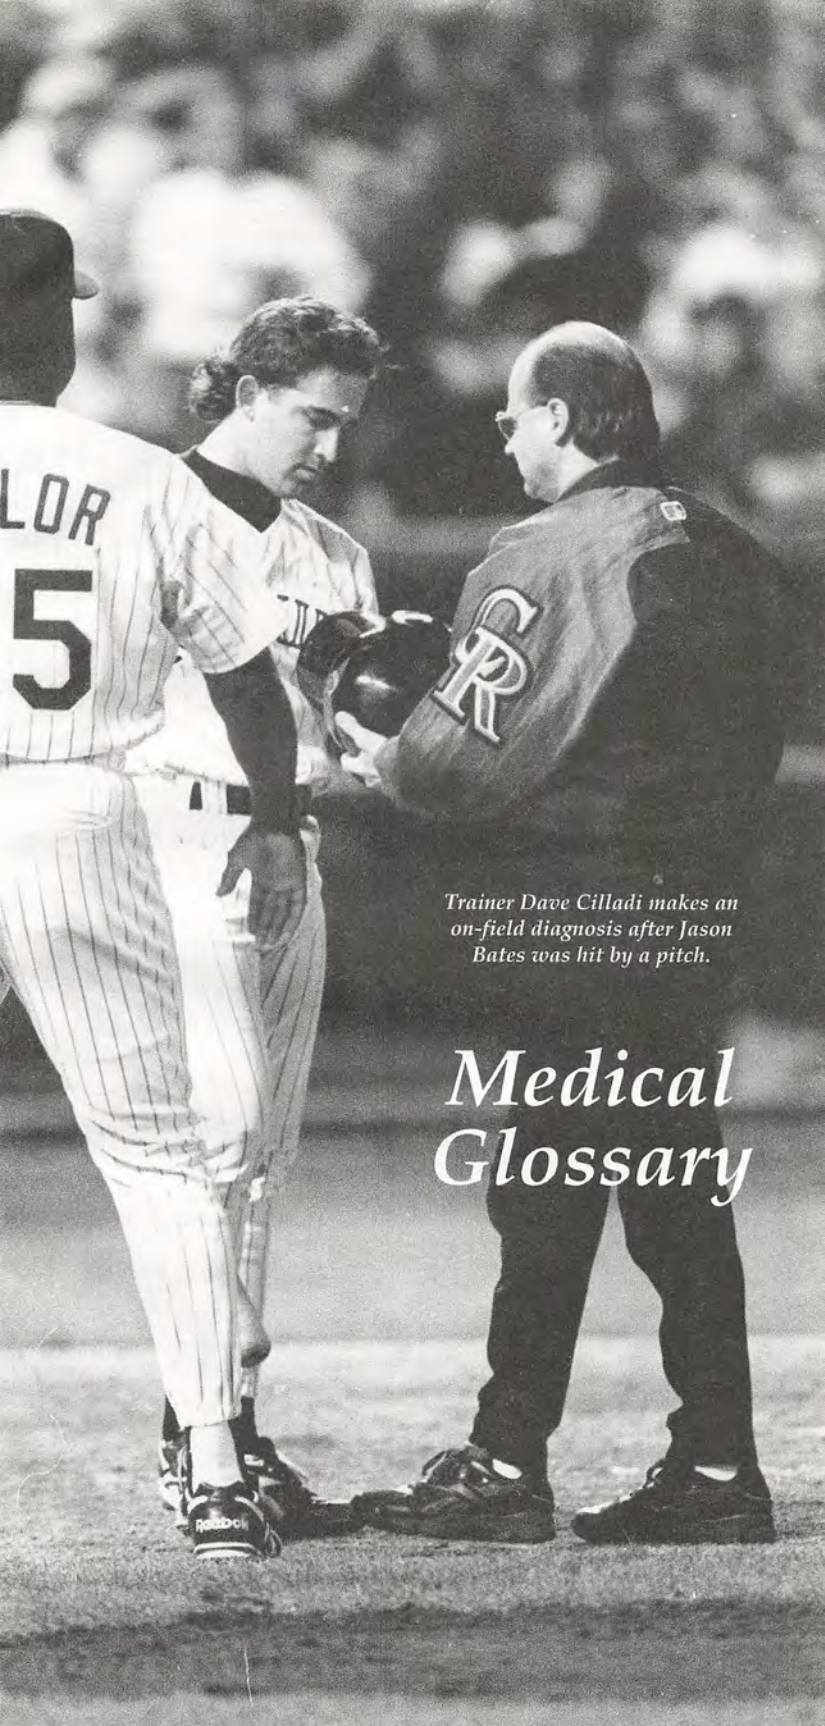
MONTH	PITCHER	PLAYER
April	Jhonny Gonzalez (Asheville)	Harvey Pulliam (Col. Spgs.)
May	Bryan Rekar (New Haven)	Quinton McCracken (New Haven)
June	Brent Crowther (Ash./Salem)	Derrick Gibson (Asheville)
July	Scott Randall (Portland)	Trenidad Hubbard (Col. Spgs)
August	Joel Moore (New Haven)	Quinton McCracken (Col. Spgs)

THE ORIGINAL FIVE

When the Rockies' organization came into playing existence in 1992, the first team to take the field as a group was the Bend club, made up mainly of players from the original June draft. Did you know, that the Rockies had five players participating in the California League in the early part of the '92 campaign?

Matt Connolly, Mike Ericson, Mark Morris, Troy Ricker and Ryan Turner, all played for the Visalia Oaks during 1992 as part of a working agreement that the Rockies had with the Minnesota Twins' Class A club.

Turner, the first player ever signed by the Rockies eventually retired from his minor league playing days during the summer of '94. Connolly was part of the first trade in club history, going to the Montreal Expos in exchange for Travis Buckley. Ericson has remained in the Rockies' chain, serving as the pitching coach for the rookie league club in '95 and moved into scouting phase for the '96 season.



Trainer Dave Cilladi makes an on-field diagnosis after Jason Bates was hit by a pitch.

Medical Glossary

Glossary of Medical Terms

The following glossary provides definitions of terms that are used during the course of the season by medical staff members of the baseball organizations. This glossary is provided by the Professional Baseball Athletic Trainers Society. (The numbers 1-21 correspond with the charts on pages 241 and 242 representing common baseball injuries.)

A.T.,C—Athletic Trainer Certified: athletic trainers with this designation have passed the certification exam administered by the National Athletic Trainers' Association (N.A.T.A.).

AC Joint—Acromioclavicular joint; joint of the shoulder where acromion process of the 1 scapula and the distal end of the clavicle meet; most shoulder separations occur at this point.

Abrasion—Any injury which rubs off the surface of the skin.

Abscess—An infection which produces pus; can be the result of a blister, callus, penetrating wound or laceration.

Adhesion—Abnormal adherence of collagen fibers to surrounding structures during immobilization following trauma or as a complication of surgery which restricts normal elasticity of the structures involved.

Aerobic—Exercise in which energy needed is supplied by oxygen inspired and is required for sustained periods of vigorous exercise with a continually high pulse rate.

Anabolic Steroids—Steroids that promote tissue growth by creating protein in an attempt to enhance muscle growth. The main anabolic steroid is testosterone (male sex hormone).

Anaerobic—Exercise without the use of oxygen as an energy source; short bursts of vigorous exercise.

Anterior Compartment Syndrome—Condition in which swelling within the anterior compartment of the lower leg jeopardizes the viability of muscles, nerves and arteries that serve the foot. In severe cases, emergency surgery is necessary to relieve the swelling and pressure.

Anterior Cruciate Ligament (ACL)—A primary stabilizing ligament within the center 2 of the knee joint that prevents hyperextension and excessive rotation of the joint. A complete tear of the ACL necessitating reconstruction could require up to 12 month of rehabilitation.

3 Anterior Talofibular Ligament—A ligament of the ankle that connects the fibula (later ankle bone) to the talus. This ligament is oft times subject to sprain.

Anti-Inflammatory—Any agent which prevents inflammation, such as aspirin or ibuprofen.

Arteriogram—A film demonstrating arteries after injection of a dye.

Arthrogram—X-ray technique for joints using air and/or dye injected into the affected area; useful in diagnosing meniscus tears of the knee and rotator cuff tears of the shoulder.

Arthroscope—An instrument used to visualize the interior of a joint cavity.

Arthroscopy—A surgical examination of the internal structures of a joint by means of viewing through an arthroscope. An arthroscopic procedure can be used to remove or repair damaged tissue or as a diagnostic procedure in order to inspect the extent of any damage or confirm a diagnosis.

Aspiration—The withdrawal of fluid from a body cavity by means of a suction or siphonage apparatus, such as a syringe.

Atrophy—To shrivel or shrink from disuse, as in muscular atrophy.

Avascular Necrosis—Death of a part due to lack of circulation.

Avulsion—The tearing away, forcibly, of a part or structure.

Baker's Cyst—Localized swelling of a bursa sac in the posterior knee as a result of fluid 4 that has escaped from the knee capsule. A Baker's cyst indicates that there is a trauma inside the knee joint that leads to excessive fluid production.

5 Bennett's Fracture—A fracture and dislocation of the base of the first metacarpal, the thumb.

Bone Scan—An imaging procedure in which a radioactive-labelled substance is injected into the body to determine the status of a bony injury. If the radioactive substance is taken up by the bone at the injury site, the injury will show as a "hot spot" on the scan image. The bone scan is particularly useful in the diagnosis of stress fractures.

Bruise—The discoloration of the skin due to an extravasation of blood into the underlying tissues.

Bursa—A fluid-filled sac that is located in areas where friction is likely to occur, then minimizes the friction; for example between a tendon and bone.

Calf—Large muscle located at the back of the shin that includes the gastrocnemius and the soleus muscles and is connected to the heel by the Achilles tendon. This is responsible for foot plantar-flexion and is instrumental in jumping.

Capsule—An enclosing structure which surrounds the joint and contains ligaments which stabilize that joint.

Cartilage—Smooth, slippery substance preventing two ends of bones from rubbing together and grating.

CAT Scan—Use of a computer to produce a cross sectional view of the anatomical part being investigated from x-ray data.

Cervical Vertebrae—Group of seven vertebrae located in the neck

Charley Horse—A contusion or bruise to any muscle resulting in intramuscular bleeding. No other injury should be called a charley horse.

Chondral Fracture—Fracture to the chondral (cartilaginous) surfaces of bone.

Chondromalacia—Roughening of the articular cartilage. Best known for the roughening of the underside of the patella, which can occur in any patellofemoral injury.

Clavicle—The collar bone.

Coccyx—The "tail bone"; a group of four vertebrae that are fused together, located at the terminal end of the spine.

Colles' Fracture—A fracture of the distal end of the radium with the lower end being displaced backward.

Computed Tomography (CT)—Method of visualizing the body's soft tissues. Using x-rays with the beam passing repeatedly through the body part, the CT scans while a computer calculates tissue absorption at each point scanned.

Concentric Muscle Contraction—A shortening of the muscle as it develops tension and contracts to move a resistance.

Concussion—Jarring injury of the brain resulting in dysfunction. It can be graded as mild, moderate or severe depending on loss of consciousness, amnesia and loss of equilibrium.

Congenital—Existing before birth; to be born with.

Conjunctivitis—Inflammation of the membrane lining the eyelids and covering the eyeball.

Contractures—Abnormal, usually permanent contraction of a muscle due to atrophy of muscle fibers, extensive scar tissue over a joint, or other factors.

Contusion—an injury to a muscle and tissues caused by a blow from a blunt object.

Costochondral—Cartilage that separates the bones within the rib cage.

Cryotherapy—A treatment with use of cold.

Cyst—Abnormal sac containing liquid or semi-solid matter.

Debridement—Removal of non-healthy tissues and foreign material from a wound or burn to prevent infection and permit healing.

Degenerative Joint Disease—Changes in the joint surfaces as a result of repetitive trauma.

Deltoid Ligament—Ligament that connects the tibia to bones of the medial aspect of the foot and is primarily responsible for stability of the ankle on the medial side. Is sprained less frequently than other ankle ligaments.

6 Deltoid Muscle—Muscles at the top of the arm, just below the shoulder, responsible for shoulder motions to the front, side and back.

Disc, Intervertebral—A flat, rounded plate between each vertebrae of the spine. The disc consists of a thick fiber ring which surrounds a soft gel-like interior. It functions as a cushion and shock absorber for the spinal column.

Dislocation—Complete displacement of joint surfaces.

Eccentric Muscle Contraction—An overall lengthening of the muscle as it develops tension and contracts to control motion performed by an outside force; of times referred to a "negative" contraction in weight training.

Eccymosis—Bleeding into the surface tissue below the skin, resulting in a "black and blue" effect.

Edema—Accumulation of fluid in organs and tissues of the body; swelling.

Effusion—Accumulation of fluid, or the fluid itself, in various spaces in the body. Commonly, the knee has an effusion after an injury.

Electrical Galvanic Stimulation (EGS)—An electrical therapeutic modality that sends a current to the body at select voltages and frequencies in order to stimulate pain receptors, disperse edema, or neutralize muscle spasms among other functional applications.

Electrolyte Drink—Fluid for replacing electrolytes.

Electromyogram (EMG)—Test to determine nerve function.

Ethyl Chloride—"Cold spray" or "freeze", a chemical coolant sprayed onto an injury site to produce a local, mild anesthesia.

Fascia—A connective tissue sheath consisting of fibrous tissue and fat which unites the skin to the underlying tissue.

Fat Percentage—The amount of body weight that is adipose, fat tissue. Fat percentages can be calculated by underwater weighing, measuring select skinfold thickness, or by analyzing electrical impedance.

Femur—Thigh bone; longest bone in the body.

Fibula—Smaller of the two bones in the lower leg; runs from knee to the ankle along the outside of the lower leg.

Gamekeeper's Thumb—Tear of the ulnar collateral ligament of the metacarpophalangeal joint of the thumb.

Glenoid—Cavity of the scapula into which the head of the humerus fits to form the shoulder girdle.

Grade One Injury—A mild injury in which ligament, tendon, or other musculoskeletal tissue may have been stretched or contused, but not torn or otherwise disrupted.

Grade Two Injury—A moderate injury when musculoskeletal tissue has been partially, but not totally torn which causes appreciable limitation in function of the injured tissue.

Grade Three Injury—A severe injury in which tissue has been significantly, and in some cases totally, torn or otherwise disrupted causing a virtual total loss of function.

Groin—Junction of the thigh and abdomen; location of muscles that rotate, flex and adduct the hip.

Hammer Toe—Condition when the first digit of a toe is at a different angle than the remaining digits of the same toe.

9 Hamstring—Category of muscle that runs from the buttocks to the knee along the back of the thigh. It functions to flex the knee, and is oft times injured as a result of improper conditioning or lack of muscle flexibility.

Heat Cramps—Painful muscle spasms of the arms or legs caused by excessive body heat and depletion of fluids and electrolytes.

Heat Exhaustion—Mild form of shock due to dehydration because of excessive sweating when exposed to head and humidity.

Heat Stroke—Condition of rapidly rising internal body temperature that overwhelms the body's mechanisms for release of heat and could result in death if not cared for appropriately.

Hematoma—Tumor-like mass produced by an accumulation of coagulated blood in a cavity.

Hot Pack—Chemical pack that rests in water, approximately 160 degrees, and retains its heat for 15-20 minutes when placed in a towel for general therapeutic application.

Hydrotherapy—Treatment using water.

Hyperextension—Extreme extension of a limb or body part.

Iliotibial Band—A thick, wide fascial layer that runs from the iliac crest to the knee joint and is occasionally inflamed as a result of excessive running.

11 Impingement Syndrome—Pinching together of the supraspinatus muscle and other soft tissue in the shoulder. The most common (Throwing) arm injury, which represents many pathologies and generally involves supraspinatus overuse.

Inflammation—The body's natural response to injury in which the injury site might display various degrees of pain, swelling, heat, redness and/or loss of function.

Intermittent Compression Pump—Therapeutic modality that uses an air pump to send air into a sleeve worn over an injury, on an intermittent basis, in order to disperse edema and break up swelling at the injury.

Internal Rotation—Rotation of a joint or extremity medially, to the inside.

Interosseus Membrane—Uniting membrane between the tibia and fibula that forms a collagenous fibrous tissue. It has two functions: to serve as an origin for many of the muscles of the lower leg, and to transmit stress from the tibia to the fibula.

Isokinetic Exercise—Form of active resistive exercise in which the speed of limb movement is controlled by a pre-set limiting machine, such as Cybex or Biodex.

Isometric Contraction—Muscular contraction in which tension is developed but no mechanical work is done. There is no appreciable joint movement and the overall length of the muscle stays the same.

Isotonic Contraction—A concentric or eccentric muscular contraction that results in movement of a joint or body part, as in lifting a weight.

Labrum (Labrum Glenoidule)—The cartilage of the glenoid cavity in the shoulder. A lip-edge or lip-like structure.

Lateral Collateral Ligament (LCL)—Ligament of the knee along the lateral aspect that connects the femur to the fibula. It provides lateral stability to the joint.

Ligament—Band of fibrous tissue that connects bone to bone to cartilage and supports and strengthens joints.

Lumbar Vertebrae—Five vertebrae of the lower back that articulate with the sacrum to form the lumbosacral joint.

Magnetic Resonance Imaging (MRI)—Imaging procedure in which a radio frequency pulse causes certain electrical elements of the injured tissue to react to this pulse and through this process a computer display and permanent film establish a visual image. MRI does not require radiation and is very useful in the diagnosis of soft tissue, disc and meniscus injuries.

Maximal Aerobic Power (MAX VO 2)—The maximal volume of oxygen consumed per unit of time.

13 Medial Collateral Ligament (MCL)—Ligament of knee along the medial aspect that connects the femur to the joint.

Meniscectomy—An intra-articular surgical procedure of the knee by which all or part of the damaged meniscus is removed.

Meniscus—Crescent shaped cartilage, usually pertaining to the knee joint; also known as "cartilage." There are two menisci in the knee, medial and lateral. These work to absorb weight within the knee and provide stability.

15 Metatarsals—Five long bones of the foot, running from the ankle to the toes.

Morton's Neuroma—Involves the nerves and is usually the result of a trauma to the foot, causing inflammation and sharp pain, usually between the third and fourth toes.

Morton's Toe—A hereditary condition in which the second toe is longer than the first toe. This can cause mechanical imbalances which produce pain with weight bearing.

Myositis—Inflammation of the muscle.

Myositis Ossificans Traumatica—A benign ossification, usually following severe trauma to a large muscle mass.

N.A.T.A.—National Athletic Trainers' Association. The certifying and governing body of the athletic training profession.

16 Olecranon Process—Bony projection of the ulna at the tip of the elbow.

One Repetition Maximum—The maximum amount of weight that can be lifted by the player in a particular exercise at one time. This is used as a strength testing technique.

Orthotic—Any device applied to or around the body in the care of physical impairment or disability, commonly used to control foot mechanics.

Osteochondritis Dessicans—A piece of bone and/or cartilage loosened from its attachment after trauma and a cause of a lesion.

Parasthesia—Sensation of numbness or tingling, indicating nerve irritation.

Patella—The kneecap. The patella functions to protect the distal end of the femur as well as increase the mechanical advantage and force generating capacities of the quadriceps muscle group.

PBATS—Professional Baseball Athletic Trainers Society; the governing body of athletic trainers in professional baseball.

18 Peroneal Muscles—Group of muscles of the lateral lower leg that are responsible for everting the ankle. Tendons of these three muscles are vital to the stability of the ankle and foot.

Phlebitis—Inflammation of a vein.

Plantar Fascia—the tight band of muscle beneath the arch of the foot.

Plantar Fasciaitis—Inflammation of the plantar fascia; associated with overuse of acute foot injury.

Plantarflexion—Ankle motion such that the toes are pointed toward the ground.

Pneumothorax—A collection of air or gas in the pleural space causing the lungs to collapse.

Posterior Cruciate Ligament (PCL)—A primary stabilizing ligament of the knee that provides significant stability and prevents displacement of the tibia backward within the knee joint. A complete tear of this ligament necessitating reconstruction could require up to 12 months of rehabilitation.

Progressive Resistance Exercise (PRE)—An approach to exercise whereby the load or resistance to the muscle is applied by some mechanical means and is quantitatively and progressively increased over time.

Proprioceptive Neuromuscular Facilitation (PNF)—An approach to therapeutic exercise based on the principles of functional human anatomy and neurophysiology.

Radiography—Taking of x-rays.

Radium—Forearm bone on the thumb side.

Referred Pain—Pain felt in an undamaged area of body away from the actual injury.

Rotator Cuff—Comprised of four muscles in the shoulder area that can be irritated by overuse. The muscles are the supraspinatus (most commonly injured), infraspinatus, teres minor and subscapularis.

20 Rotator Cuff Impingement Syndrome—A microtrauma or overuse injury caused by stress. The four stages are: 1)tendentious with temporary thickening of the bursa and rotator cuff, 2)fiber dissociation in the tendon with a permanent thickening of the bursa and scar formation, 3)A partial rotator cuff tear of less than 1 cm, and 4)a complete tear of 1 cm or more.

SC Joint—Sternoclavicular joint; articulation of the collarbone with the sternum.

Sacroiliac—Junction of the sacrum with the hip bone.

Sacrum—Group of five fused vertebrae located just below the lumbar vertebrae of the low back.

Scapula—Shoulder blade.

Sciatica—Irritation of the sciatic nerve resulting in pain or tingling running down the inside of the leg.

Sciatic Nerve—Major nerve that carries impulses for muscular action and sensations between the low back and thigh and lower leg; it is the longest nerve in the body.

Shin Splint—A catch-all syndrome describing pain in the shin that is not a fracture or tumor and cannot be defined otherwise.

Spleen—Large, solid organ responsible for the normal production and destruction of blood cells.

Spondylolisthesis—Forward displacement of one vertebrae over another below it due to a developmental defect in the vertebrae.

Spondylosis—Abnormal vertebral fixation or immobility.

Sprain—Injury resulting from the stretch or twist of the joint and causes various degrees of stretch or tear of a ligament or other soft tissue at the joint.

Sternum—The breast bone.

Strain—Injury resulting from a pull or torsion to the muscle or tendon that causes various degrees of stretch or tear to the muscle or tendon tissue.

Stress Fracture—A hair-line type of break in a bone caused by overuse.

Stress X-Ray—A continual x-ray taken when a portion of the body is stressed to its maximum in order to determine joint stability. This is a test utilized in some ankle injuries.

Stretching—Any therapeutic maneuver designed to elongate shortened soft tissue structures and thereby increase flexibility.

Subluxation—Partial dislocation of a joint. The term usually implies that the joint can return to its normal position without formal reduction.

Synovial Fluid—Lubricating fluid for joints and tendons, produced in synovium, or the inner lining of a joint.

Synovitis—Inflammation of the synovial lining of a joint.

Talus—The ankle bone that articulates with the tibia and fibula to form the ankle joint.

Target Heart Rate—A pre-determined pulse to be obtained during exercise when circulation in working at full efficient capacities.

Tarsals—Group of six bones of the foot consisting of the calnavicular, talus, cuboid and three cuneiform bones.

Tendinitis—Inflammation of the tendon and/or tendon sheath, caused by chronic overuse or sudden injury.

Tendon—Tissue that connects muscle to bone.

Tennis Elbow—General term for lateral elbow pain.

Tenosynovitis—Swelling of a tendon sheath caused by calcium deposits, repeated strain, or trauma.

Thoracic—Group of twelve vertebrae located in the thorax and articulates with the twelve ribs.

Thoracic Outlet Compression Syndrome—A neuro-vascular disorder of the upper extremity common in throwing.

Tibia—Larger of the two bones of the lower leg and is the weight-bearing bone of the shin.

Trachea—The windpipe.

Transcutaneous Electrical Nerve Stimulator (TENS)—An electrical modality that sends a mild current through pads at the injury site which stimulates the brain to release the natural analgesic, endorphin.

Transverse Process—Small lateral projection off the right and left side of each vertebrae that functions as an attachment site for muscles and ligaments of the spine.

Trapezius—Flat, triangular muscle covering the posterior surface of the neck and shoulder.

Ulna—Forearm bone that runs from the tip of the elbow to the little finger side of the wrist.

Ulnar Nerve—Nerve in the elbow commonly irritated from excessive throwing.

Ultrasound—An electrical modality that transmits a sound wave through an applicator into the skin to the soft tissue in order to heat the local area for relaxing the injured tissue and/or disperse edema.

Whirlpool—Water bath in which the water is propelled by air to produce a massaging therapeutic action.

"Wind Knocked Out"—Syndrome describing a contraction of the abdominal nerve trunk, the solar plexus, as a result of an abdominal contusion.

Wrist—The junction between the two forearm bones (radium and ulna) and the eight wrist bones (trapezium, trapezoid, capitate, hamate, pisiform, triquetral, lunate and scaphoid).

Zygoma—The cheekbone.

Covering the Rockies

Coors Field offers one of the best vantage points for the media in all of professional sports.

Rockies on Radio

Wayne Hagin

Radio Broadcaster - KOA

Wayne and Jeff are teamed together for their fourth year behind the microphone for Rockies' baseball. A Denver native, Wayne is in his 14th season of major league baseball broadcasting, dating back to his days in the booth describing play for the Oakland A's. He remained in the bay area, working the games of the San Francisco Giants, then moved to the midwest providing play-by-play for the Chicago White Sox.

A former collegiate baseball player at San Diego State University, Hagin's playing career as a youth also included a trip to the American Legion World Series in 1974.

Following his amateur playing career, Hagin turned to broadcasting, which has included stints with ESPN's college basketball coverage, Big 10 basketball and Pac-10 hoops. He was on the ground floor when ESPN began its operation in 1979, working as one of the original SportsCenter hosts. He also provided play-by-play work for the Prime Network.

Hagin, 40, was raised in San Jose, CA. He and his wife, Valerie, have two sons, Austin and Taylor and make their home in Ken Caryl.

Jeff Kingery

Radio Broadcaster - KOA

The other "original" in the Rockies' booth was no stranger to listeners the first time he called a ball game, as Jeff Kingery jumped into baseball after an 11-year stint as the voice of the Denver Nuggets on 85/KOA. Though a staple on Nuggets' games for those 11 years, it was a lifelong dream achieved when he was named one of the play-by-play voices of the Rockies.

He originally came to Colorado to broadcast baseball, and was behind the mike when the Denver Bears won the league championship in 1981. In 15 years at KOA, Jeff still looks back at the inaugural season for his most memorable sports moments, listing Eric Young's Mile High Stadium opening day and season-ending heroics in 1993 at the top of his memories.

Besides his work in baseball and basketball, Kingery is also an auto racing enthusiast, and has covered events for ESPN and Prime Network.

Away from the booth, he spends his "off" time working with Easter Seals and the Denver Dumb Friends League. He and wife, Meryl, and two dogs and cat, make their home in Englewood.

KCUV ON THE AIR FROM COORS FIELD

Francisco Gamez

Back for a fourth season of broadcasting Rockies' home games in "español," is KCUV Radio (1150 AM), with Francisco Gamez and Carlos Bido describing the action for the Latin community of Denver.

Gamez, 43, is a native of Aragua State, Venezuela and has 18 years of experience in Spanish radio and television. He and wife, Angie, have three sons, Waldo, Jonathan and Freddy.

Carlos Bido

Bido, 30, is from the Dominican Republic, and holds a B.A. in Marketing and Advertising from the university in Santo Domingo, then earned a degree from the University of Southern California. This is Bido's second year in the booth as a partner with Gamez.

Rockies on Television

Dave Armstrong

Television Broadcaster

The "Dave & Dave" show will be the television story for 1996, as Dave Armstrong joins Dave Campbell in the booth for the first time. Prior to joining the Rockies, Armstrong spent the last three seasons mikeside on the Kansas City Royals' television network. Though new to baseball in the Rocky Mountain region, his face and voice are familiar to those who follow the Big Eight Conference, working alongside KOA's Dave Logan on the Big Eight Network during basketball season for nearly a decade.

Armstrong, 41, was raised a Tiger fan growing up in Detroit, but was a 1976 graduate of John Brown University in Siloam Springs, AR. He has also done work on a national basis for ESPN and Prime Network, as well as called the play-by-play for the then-Seattle Seahawks during their exhibition season.

A highly sought after public speaker, Dave has shared his inspirational thoughts and sense of humor in a variety of engagements, from beauty pageants to telethons.

Dave and his wife, Karen, and children, Tiffany and Troy, will make the move from the Kansas City area to Denver this spring.

Dave Campbell

Television Broadcaster

The 1996 campaign marks the third year for Dave in the Rockies' television booth. A former major league infielder, Campbell made the move to Colorado after spending four seasons as an analyst on nationally televised games for ESPN. Aside from his regular weeknight game assignments, he filled in on occasion on the Sunday Night Baseball package, and made the trek to Bristol, CT, on a weekly basis to work on the set of the "Baseball Tonight" studio show. He was also assigned to provide on the scene coverage of both the League Championship Series and the World Series. He continues to work for ESPN, both as a play-by-play man and analyst, and has periodical studio assignments when his Rockies' schedule permits.

His baseball broadcast career began in 1978, when he left the field as a minor league manager, and joined Jerry Coleman in the radio booth with the San Diego Padres. He and Coleman provided the play-by-play call for the Padres for 11 seasons, including the 1984 campaign that culminated in a National League Championship for San Diego. Campbell left the Padres after the '88 season and joined ESPN shortly thereafter.

He had an eight-year major league playing career that started in 1967 with the Detroit Tigers and ended in 1974 with Houston. He also played for four seasons with the Padres and had a brief stint with St. Louis.

An alum of the Univeristy of Michigan, he captained the 1964 team and was a member of the '62 NCAA Championship club. He and wife, Diane, have two married daughters, Courtney and Shelby, and now call Colorado Springs home.

NETWORKING ON RADIO AND TELEVISION

The Rockies on radio has expanded to a 60-station network for the 1996 season, with Newsradio 85/KOA once again serving as the flagship. The network encompasses 10 states, including 15 stations in the homestate of Colorado, and other network stops in Arkansas (2), Idaho (1), Kansas (3), Montana (10), Nebraska (4), New Mexico (3), South Dakota (3), Utah (3), and Wyoming (16).

Newsradio 85/KOA, the 50,000-watt home station for the Rockies, opens each broadcast with a half-hour pre-game show, and concludes with player interviews and a complete summary of other games.

The television network is once again led by KWGN-TV, Denver's 2, as they provide the flagship responsibilities. The TV network includes six states and 13 different stations, including five stations in Colorado.

A complete list of both the radio and television networks is on page 202.

COLORADO ROCKIES
Public Relations Department

DIRECTOR - PUBLIC RELATIONS — Mike Swanson
ASSISTANT DIRECTOR - PUBLIC RELATIONS — Coley Brannon
MEDIA COORDINATOR - PUBLIC RELATIONS — Raili Mood
STAFF ASSISTANT - PUBLIC RELATIONS — John Kehl

It is with great pleasure that the Colorado Rockies welcome you to Coors Field, one of the finest baseball facilities in the world. In three short seasons, the Rockies have enjoyed unprecedented success at the gate and a majority of that support can be attributed to your continued coverage of Rockies' baseball. Following are the Public Relations policies for the 1996 season. If there are any requests or questions, do not hesitate to ask any member of our staff and will make every effort to fulfill your needs.

DAILY CREDENTIALS: These will be issued to those who do not qualify for season credentials. These consist of freelance writers on assignment for a specific publication, weekly and monthly publications for special coverage. Daily credentials will also be issued to area Radio & TV stations when the need arises for extra pregame personnel (i.e. live shots, etc.), and daily newspapers who have had last-minute changes in coverage. These requests may be made via FAX on letterhead, only if that news source is already on file with the P.R. office. All daily requests must be made at least 48 hours in advance of the game to be covered.

PHOTO CREDENTIALS: These will be issued to those photographers on assignment for legitimate newsgathering organizations and those representatives of companies licensed by Major League Baseball. Photographers for licensees will only be granted daily passes. Priority in all photo areas will be granted to news organizations on nightly deadlines. No freelance photographers will be granted credentials. All photographs taken are to be used for news-gathering purposes or officially licensed products. Any other use of photographs taken will be considered a violation of existing trademark and copyright restrictions.

AUTOGRAPH POLICY: Credentialed members of the media are prohibited from requesting autographs or equipment on the playing field, in the dugout or in the clubhouse. Should the need arise for an autograph request, notify the Public Relations Department and we will attempt to accommodate. Any violation of these guidelines will result in immediate revocation of the credential and future access.

CLUBHOUSE ACCESS: All credentials will list specific locations in the stadium where access is permitted. Members of the media must have a specific reason for clubhouse access to gain admittance. All media will be required to check in at the clubhouse entrance. The clubhouse will close 50 minutes prior to first pitch each day, and there may be times where the clubhouse must close earlier for team meetings. Generally, no more than a 10-minute "cooling off" period is applied after games. Manager Don Baylor will be available for a brief period of time between games of any doubleheaders. Access to the visiting clubhouse will be determined by the visiting club's policies.

FIELD ACCESS: All members of the media with field access provided on their credential will be allowed to conduct interviews during specified times prior to game time. The field must be clear of media at the same time the clubhouses are closed, 50 minutes prior to the beginning of the game. At no time is the media permitted in fair territory and must stay behind the first and third base bags. These precautions are for the safety of all involved while batting practice is in progress. Members of the media may enter the field via either dugout tunnel, or behind home plate, but if departing inside the 50-minute time limit, must do so through the home plate door, or the visiting dugout.

LIVE TRANSMISSIONS: Non-rightsholders are permitted to transmit live reports from Coors Field prior to and after every game. Post-game live reports from the clubhouse are permitted on occasion, after a request has been made with the Public Relations staff and after the rightsholder is off the air. Live television reports by non-rightsholders are prohibited while the rightsholder is on the air or the game is in progress. Radio stations and assigned correspondents for out of town reports are allowed to give the score of the game during the half innings, however, at no time can they file reports once an inning is underway. Any violations of these policies will result in revocation of credentials.

ROVING CAMERAS: At no time will local television stations be permitted to use a camera light in the seating area of the stadium. Should a light come on, the game will be stopped by the umpiring crew. Separate credentials will be available for "roving" the stands prior to and during games. Interviews are to be conducted either on the concourse, or between innings, not while the game is in progress.

WORKING PRESS BOX: The two-level press box in Coors Field is directly behind home plate. The lower level seating will be prioritized by daily print media requiring space to cover games, visiting beat writers, and area radio and television staff not on the air during games. The upper level of the press box consists of two television booths and four radio booths for all live broadcasts originating from Coors Field. At no time will guests be permitted in the press box.

PRESS DINING: The press dining room is located behind the main press box. Pregame meals for the media will be available for $5.00 and served from 2 hours prior to game time through the first inning. Media members must be properly credentialed for admittance to the dining room.

PHONES FOR MEDIA: The Colorado Rockies provide a limited number of Charge Call phones in each press box. Should media members feel there are not enough lines available, they should investigate installing their own line for use during the season.

To order your own press box phone for the season or your visit to Coors Field, the US West Representative is Tony VanBeusekom (800) 301-9220 or FAX (800) 705-3308.

Coors Field
Baseball's Newest Diamond

After shattering baseball attendance records for two seasons in Mile High Stadium, the Rockies moved into their permanent residence last year, Coors Field. The first "baseball only" stadium in the National League since Dodger Stadium in 1962, Coors Field was party to 3,390,037 fans over a shortened 72-game schedule, a per game average of 47,084. Rockies' fans boasted 55 sellouts over the course of the inaugural year in the new house, including a regular season ending 51 straight. The Rockies were then fortunate to host the first two National League Division Series Playoff games in history, as the Wild Card champs hosted the Atlanta Braves.

The Coors Field dream began on August 14, 1990, when voters from the six-county district passed a 0.1% sales tax to finance the construction of a new baseball facility if a National League franchise was awarded. On July 5, 1991, 11 months after passage of the tax proposal, the Colorado Rockies came into existence by virtue of unanimous approval of major league owners.

The first shovels of dirt were turned on October 16, 1992, and a scant 29 1/2 months later, Coors Field opened. The 50,249 seat venue was originally voted to be a 43,800 seat ballpark, but due to the tremendous attendance for the first two seasons of Rockies' baseball, club ownership added nearly 7,000 seats at their expense to bring the capacity to its present total. Details of the Rockies new home:

Location

Coors Field is built on the corner of 20th and Blake in the lower downtown district of Denver. It has an immediate "Denver" identity with building materials ranging from a red brick facade that matches the lower downtown warehouses, to the natural sandstone from a Colorado quarry, to the structural steel that reflects the site's rail yard heritage, to the terra cotta columbines (Colorado's state flower). There is also a remarkable view of the Rocky Mountain range from the first base and right field side of the seating bowl.

The Structure

The land Coors Field occupies 76 acres, including three acres for the playing field. There were 181,000 cubic yards of excavation, and an additional 86,000 cubic yards of backfill. The structure required 8,975 tons of steel, including 4,500 tons of rebar, and 558,300 square feet of concrete paving. The construction consists 1,400,000 red bricks, or 177 miles, and an equal 177 miles of concrete masonry blocks, totaling 700,000. There are 10 miles of handrails throughout the ballpark, and the outside of the facility is decorated with 40 terra cotta columbine tiles, representing the Colorado state flower. The upperdeck sunscreen surrounding the ballpark is 95 feet above Blake Street, while the light towers are 140 feet above Blake.

Seating Area

Coors Field has a seating capacity of 50,200, which covers three levels in the main frame of the stadium, and the Rockpile located in centerfield. The seats, green throughout the stadium, measure 19 to 19.5 inches in width on the lower and upper levels, while seats on the club suite level are 22 inches wide. Each row is marked by a Rockies' logo and its row number. The configuration of the stadium allows fans to walk the perimeter of the field level seats without losing sight of the playing field, thanks to the concessions and restrooms located on the outside portion of the level.

Club Level—This is the premium seating area in Coors Field, with padded wider seats (22"), more leg room between rows and individual waitress/waiter service. Its location is directly above the field box seats running from the leftfield corner to the rightfield corner. Behind the seating area is a climate controlled private lounge that will feature luxury furnishings, lounges, television viewing and upscale concessions.

Rockpile—One tradition carried over from Mile High Stadium will be the continuation of Rockpile seating. The isolated upper level seating in straightaway centerfield at Coors Field has been designated as the Rockpile with varying degrees of pricing, but still carrying the original premise of bringing baseball to the fans with a day of game ticket available at a low price. The price policy for the Rockpile is a $1.00 cost for youngsters 12 years of age and under, and the same price for senior fans 55 years of age and older. There will be a two ticket limit on those purchases, with all other ages being charged $4.00 for that seat. Tickets for the Rockpile will go on sale two and a half hours before every game.

Suites—There are 52 luxury suites across the upper portion of the club level, and an additional four party suites that possess the capability to expand to six. All but two of the suites have 12 seats stationed outside to view the game, with the remaining suites with seating for 20 outside. The party suites are sold on a per game basis to various individuals or groups.

Handicap Seating—There are over 500 wheelchair seats available daily, including companion seating, and disabled seating consisting of armless chairs. Handicapped seating is in premier locations around Coors Field, including in the front row directly behind the screen, the front row of the leftfield seating and below the manual scoreboard in rightfield.

Mile High Row—The 21st row of the upper deck in Coors Field are purple seats running from end-to-end signifying 5,280 feet above sea level.

Conveniences—There are 74 restrooms scattered throughout the facility, including 35 womens restrooms, 31 mens and eight family toilets. The stadium has low grade ramps to take fans from the lower to upper levels, in addition to seven escalators and 10 passenger elevators.

Breakdown of Seating Areas

Lower Bowl, Rightfield Box and Pavilion	21,319
Lower Reserved and Rightfield Lower Reserved	4,683
Upper Reserved and Rightfield Upper Reserved	17,772
Club and Rightfield Mezzanine	7,037
Luxury Suites	735
Rockpile	2,283
Wheelchair, Companion, Convertible	1,103
Total Capacity	50,249

Scoreboards

The scoreboard system at Coors Field ranks at the top in professional sports. The boards include a Sony JumboTron video screen in leftfield, four matrix boards supplied by Daktronics and a manually operated out-of-town scoreboard that is in the field of play in rightfield.

Sony JumboTron—The Sony JumboTron System JTS-35 is the latest technology available in the industry. The first such board in Colorado, similar boards are used at Jacobs Field, Camden Yards, Candlestick Park, The Ballpark in Arlington, Anaheim Stadium and Three Rivers Stadium. The board features full color capabilities, provide replays of exciting action and various features and music videos.

Matrix Boards—The main board in leftfield provides fans with all in-game information, including lineups, linescore of the game in progress, and all pertinent statistics of players. There are three side matrix boards attached to the upper deck, with two on the third base side and one above first base. Two of those boards provide fans with a linescore and count, while the other is for out-of-town scores.

Manual Scoreboard—One of the distinguishing features in Coors Field is the Out-of-Town scoreboard in the rightfield fence. In the field of play, this board is manually operated and provides fans with up-to-the-minute updates of all games in major league baseball.

Dimensions

Leftfield line	347 feet
Power alley to left-center	390 feet
Straightaway centerfield	415 feet
Power alley to right-center	375 feet
Rightfield line	350 feet
Height of wall	8 feet (from leftfield corner to right-center) 14 feet (at the manual scoreboard in rightfield)
Distance from front row to home plate	56' 4" (3rd closest in the National League)
Depth of playing field below Blake Street	21 feet

Designers and Builders

Coors Field was designed by HOK Sports of Kansas City, MO, the same designers of Oriole Park at Camden Yards, Jacobs Field in Cleveland, the new home of the Indians, and Hong Kong Stadium, a phenomenal new facility in Japan just to scratch the surface. For the second straight year, HOK Sports has been honored by the American Institute of Architects for their work in stadium design for the above mentioned facilities.

The general contractors for the project were Mortenson/Barton Malow.

Other Features

Mountain Ranch Club—A six tiered structure in the rightfield corner, is available to members for lunch on non-game days, and prior to and during games both day and night. The club features an upscale menu, while fans have the opportunity to watch the game either outdoors, or from the climate controlled indoor dining room, which also has televisions for easier viewing.

Student Movers Building—The only building on the stadium property to remain, the old Student Movers Building has been renovated to house a variety of items, including the kitchen for the Mountain Ranch Club, private dining rooms, and the Sandlot Brewery makes its own brand of Coors Beer.

Brick Paver Program—As many as 5,000 fans jumped at the opportunity to purchase bricks that are placed at the Wynkoop pedestrian plaza. Fans were permitted to have three lines inscribed on their personal brick purchase for a fee of $75.00, with the proceeds from the sales earmarked to help fund the public art and other celebrational elements that will become a permanent part of the ballpark.

Concessions—There are 28 full-service concession stands in Coors Field, and numerous other vending and novelty areas around the ballpark. Included is a concession stand built specifically for children in the leftfield corner of Coors Field, where a play area has been constructed.

Mark Razum

Head Groundskeeper

Mark made an immediate impact with his arrival at Coors Field, assembling one of the top playing surfaces in major league baseball. He joined the Rockies in October, 1994, after a six-year stint as the headman of the Oakland Athletics' grounds crew at Oakland-Alameda County Coliseum. Acclaimed as one of the best fields in baseball, Razum joined the A's and began work at the Coliseum after seven seasons of preparing the spring training complex for the A's in Phoenix, Arizona.

His grounds keeping career began in 1978 with the Cleveland Indians, prior to working for the Oakland franchise. Mark's field at the Oakland Coliseum was voted by the players as the best playing surface in the American League from 1992-94. Coors Field offers him one of the top facilities in baseball for storage of his equipment and dirt mixtures.

A graduate of St. Joseph High School in his native Cleveland, OH, Mark and his wife, Katherine, make their year-round home in Aurora.

Playing Field

Natural Grass—The playing surface at Coors Field consists of 120,000 square feet of sod that was grown at the Graff Turf Farms in Fort Morgan, CO, and is a mixture of four strains of bluegrass and two strains of rye grass. The Graff Turf Farms was selected by RBI (Randall & Blake, Inc.), the contractor chosen to provide the Coors Field playing surface. Known as Gravi-Turf, a natural turf athletic system, the field has 10,000 feet of drainage pipes, 3,000 tons of pea gravel for drainage and 6,000 tons of sand in an organic peat growing mixture. These ingredients provide for a drainage rate of five inches of precipitation per hour, virtually eliminating the cancellation of games unless the rain is ongoing. The first piece of sod was put in place during a ceremony on October 25, 1994, with the field completely in place by mid-November.

Heating System—The playing field houses 45 miles of wire providing Coors Field with the only underground heating system in major league baseball to prevent field freezing or any surprise early and late-season snow storms than could interrupt play.

Dirt and Warning Track—The infield dirt is a combination of Colorado clay and sand, built to over three inches deep. The warning track is 90 percent crushed lava and 10 percent red clay, both materials coming from Colorado.

Sod Farm—In front of the batter's eye in centerfield is a piece of land appropriately called the sod farm. The grass, grown with the actual playing surface at Graff Turf Farms, is maintained in the same manner of the playing surface, and should grass wear out during the season, replacements pieces are just beyond the outfield wall.

Bullpens—The Rockies and visiting team bullpens are back-to-back in right-centerfield. The Rockies' pen is nearest the manually operated scoreboard, with the "dugout" located underneath the board, while the opposition is stationed on the centerfield side, with their "dugout" just beyond the outfield fence.

Working through the winter — Though temperatures are mild at times during a Denver winter, when the snow falls and outdoor work is impossible, players can take advantage of the two underground batting and pitching cages near the Rockies' clubhouse. Steve Reed (left) and Lance Painter (right), each reside in the Denver area during the winter, and take full advantage of the opportunity to prepare for the upcoming season.

June 1 - John Burke, a pitcher from the University of Florida and a native of Englewood, Colo., is selected by the Rockies in the first round of the MLB Free Agent Draft, making him the club's first-ever draft selection. The 6-4, 220-pound righthander, the 27th player selected overall in the draft, signs a contract with the Rockies that day.

June 6 - Rockies conduct a tryout camp at the University of Denver baseball field.

June 16 - The first game in the history of the Rockies organization is played in Bend, Oregon, between the Bend Rockies and Boise Hawks (Class A, Northwest League). With the Rockies trailing 4-1 in the bottom of the eighth inning, Bend catcher Will Scalzitti hits a grand-slam to propel his club to a dramatic 6-4 win.

July 4 - The Rockies unveil their traditional-style 1993 uniforms (home, away, and Sunday alternate) at the Team USA-Team Cuba baseball game at Mile High Stadium before 61,165 fans. Included on the home uniform is purple pinstripes, making the Rockies the first team in major league history to feature purple stripes. The club's road uniform is gray and the Sunday alternate jersey is black. The Rockies also announce that the team's logo has been refined. The arc of the logo is switched from silver to black to emphasize the word "COLORADO".

Sept. 2 - Jerry McMorris, Oren Benton and Charles Monfort acquire 100% of the interests in the Rockies previously owned by non-Coloradoans and assume control.

Oct. 16 - Groundbreaking for Coors Field takes place at 20th & Blake Streets.

Oct. 27 - Don Baylor named the first manager in Rockies history.

Nov. 9 - Colorado Baseball Partnership completes acquisition of franchise by the paying of a $95 million franchise fee. Shortly thereafter, the Rockies acquire pitcher Travis Buckley from the Montreal Expos in exchange for "player to be named" (Matt Connolly) in first trade in club history.

Nov. 16 - The Rockies sign free agent first baseman Andres Galarraga to a contract.

Nov. 17 - The Rockies select David Nied from the Atlanta Braves to open the MLB Expansion Draft in New York City. At the same time, over 20,000 fans fill Currigan Hall in Denver to watch to building of a major league franchise. After the draft, Colorado trades Kevin Reimer and Jody Reed for Dante Bichette and Rudy Seanez, respectively.

Jan. 26 - The Rockies announce a restructuring of the front office, with Jerry McMorris taking over the roles of Chairman, President and C.E.O. of the ballclub, Oren Benton and Charles Monfort are named Vice Chairmen.

Feb. 18 - Pitchers and catchers reported to Tucson, AZ for spring training and worked out the following day. Position players worked out for the first time five days later.

March 6 - The Rockies won their first spring training game, 7-2 over San Francisco. David Nied gets the start and pitches out of a jam in the 1st inning by striking out Barry Bonds. The club's first selection in the Expansion Draft pitched 3.0 innings and earned the win in the Rockies' debut.

April 5 - The first regular season game in Colorado Rockies' history is played at Shea Stadium in New York. The Mets and Dwight Gooden are too much for the Rockies, however, nothing could dampen the excitement of the historic day.

April 9 - Major League Baseball is finally a reality in the Rocky Mountain Region as the Rox host the Montreal Expos in the home opener. Eric Young led off the bottom of the 1st inning with a dramatic home run off Kent Bottenfield, bringing the record setting crowd of 80,227 to their feet. Colorado cruised to an 11-4 victory and 37-year old Bryn Smith records the first win in franchise history, throwing 7.0 innings of shutout ball.

May 9 - Lydia McKee is identified as the 1,000,000th fan through the gates at Mile High Stadium. Ironically, the mother of two is recognized on Mother's Day. The Rockies reach the million mark in attendance in just 17 home dates, breaking the previous best of 21 set by the '92 Toronto Blue Jays.

May 14 - Jay Gainer homers on the first pitch of his first major league at bat, becoming only the 12th player in history and 5th in the National League to do so.

May 27 - Dale Murphy retires from baseball after a 17-year career.The Rockies saluted him with a pre-game ceremony five days later in Denver presenting him with a framed jersey that he wore with the Rockies, a bronzed statue of a boy and his ball glove and a Stetson 30X cowboy hat to always remind him of the time he spent in the Rocky Mountains. His teammates presented him with a Colorado Rockies leather jacket.

June 6 - Andres Galarraga is named National League Player-of-the-Week.

June 13 - The Rockies beat the Houston Astros 9-1 to take all three games of the series, completing the first sweep in franchise history.

June 20 - Given that the 1,000,000 mark in attendance was surpassed on Mother's Day, it is only appropriate that on Father's Day, the 36th home date, the 2,000,000 plateau would be passed. The Rockies also reach this mark faster than any team in history, again breaking the '92 Blue Jays old mark of 41 dates.

July 1 - Andres Galarraga is named National League Player-of-the-Month for June.

July 25 - Andres Galarraga strains his right knee in a collision going after a foul ball. The Rockies lose the game in 11 innings and begin a 13-game losing streak, the longest skid in club history.

July 28 - The Rockies surpass the 3,000,000 mark in attendance in only 53 home dates. Once again, the club is the fastest to reach the milestone, breaking the '92 Blue Jays mark of 61 dates.

Aug. 8 - The Rockies beat the San Diego Padres 5-2, ending the losing skid at 13 games. From this day forward, the Rockies would play the third best baseball in the National League, going 31-21 in the final 52 games.

Aug. 12 - The Rockies complete a four game sweep of the Dodgers in Los Angeles. It marks the 1st time in history that an expansion club has swept a 4-game series at an established club's ballpark.

Aug. 21 - Andres Galarraga returns to the lineup for the first game of a doubleheader after missing 24 games due to injury. The Rockies swept a pair from the Mets, marking the first doubleheader victory in franchise history.

Sept. 13 - Following a 91 degree day for the Broncos on Sunday, a cold front moved in overnight and the Monday night Rockies game with the Houston Astros was officially snowed out.

Sept. 17 - The Rockies surpass the 4,000,000 mark in attendance and break the all-time single season attendance record in 71 home dates. David Nied gets his first win in almost 5 months, 12-3 over the Dodgers.

Sept. 19 - Rockies third baseman Charlie Hayes is named National League Player-of-the-Week.

Sept. 26 - The final attendance tally is 4,483,350, shattering the previous single season attendance record. The Rockies give their fans a going away present, beating the Cincinnati Reds 12-7. Eric Young had not hit a home run since he led off the home opener, but finds away to hit two more in the home finale.

Oct. 1 - Andres Galarraga earns his 2nd National League Player-of-the-Month award, taking top honors for September.

Oct. 3 - The Rockies fall to the Western Division champion Atlanta Braves on the final day of their inaugural year, but finish with the most wins ever by a National League expansion club. Andres Galarraga wins the batting title becoming the first expansion player to accomplish the feat. He is also the first Venezuelan native to claim a league batting title.

Nov. 2 - The Rockies and Denver Stadium District agree to expand Coors Field to seat approximately 50,000.

Dec. 1 - Free agent outfielder Ellis Burks agrees to a three-year contract.

Jan. 7 - Free agent shortstop Walt Weiss agrees to a two-year deal and becomes the first player to appear on the roster of both '93 expansion teams.

Jan. 13 - The Rockies announce a slight change in the uniforms. Responding to fans' wishes, players names are placed on the back of the home jerseys. The road uniform goes to a solid purple "Rockies" across the front of the gray jersey.

Jan. 31 - The Rockies establish a 1.5 million dollar after-school program for Denver's middle schools.

Feb. 25 - The Rockies announce that they will exercise the '95 option on manager Don Baylor's contract.

April 14 - David Nied worked 7.0 scoreless innings, while Darren Holmes and Bruce Ruffin throw an inning each to record the first shutout in club history, 5-0 at Philadelphia.

April 16 - A mysterious egg found at the Coors Field construction site hatches before the game at Mile High into a purple triceratops. The dinosaur is adopted by the Rockies and the children of Denver as the team mascot, named Dinger.

May 4 - Ellis Burks is selected the National League Player-of-the-Month for April, marking the third time in their seven months of baseball that a Rockies' player earned the award.

June 21 - David Nied allows only 4 hits in an 8-0 victory over Houston and collects the first complete game shutout in club history.

June 26 - The Rockies claim one of the few major league attendance records not yet in their possession, with 217,009 fans attending the three-game series vs. SF.

July 4 - The Rockies play the longest day of baseball in their history against the Chicago Cubs. The teams play a doubleheader to make up a previous rainout on April 30. The first game starts at 12:09 p.m. (CDT) and game two ends almost 11 hours later. The second game includes three rain delays and went 15-innings.

July 17 - The Rockies push their major league attendance record for a four-game series even higher with 259,113 on hand for the St. Louis series. The previous record set by Colorado also involved the Cardinals in the inaugural season.

July 18 - Dante Bichette earns the N.L. Player-of-the-Week honors for the four games after the All-Star break, batting .632 (12-for-19) with 2 homers, including a grand slam and 12 RBI.

Aug. 7 - The 3,000,000th fan of the season enters Mile High Stadium in the 52nd date, breaking the major league record of 53 dates originally set by the Rockies in 1993.

Aug. 11 - The final games of the season are played prior to the midnight strike deadline set by the Major League Baseball Players Association.

Sept. 14 - Portland, OR becomes the new home of the Rockies Short-Season A entry in the Northwest League, replacing Bend.

Sept. 15 - A two-year agreement is reached with Class A Salem of the Carolina League. After a name the team contest, the club is named the Salem Avalanche.

Sept. 30 - The Colorado Rockies, City of Denver and the Feed the Children program announce an innovative literacy program called "Hitting Home." The program, which will run through the end of the 1995-96 school year, will distribute two books to 2,300 students for them to take home.

Oct. 5 - Former major league manager Art Howe becomes the third batting coach in as many years for the Colorado Rockies.

Oct. 31 - The Rockies Baseball Operations department is restructured as Dick Balderson is named Vice President/Player Personnel and Tony Siegle is hired to replace Walt Jocketty as Assistant General Manager.

July 7 - National League manager, Felipe Alou, selects both Dante Bichette and Vinny Castilla to the All-Star squad, marking the first time the Rockies have more than one representative in the Mid-Summer Classic. Castilla gets the starting assignment in place of the injured Matt Williams, becoming the first starter in club history.

July 10 - Andres Galarraga is named the National League Player-of-the-Week (July 3-9) for the 5th time in his career and 2nd as a member of the Rockies.

July 17 - The club sadly announces the passing of national cross-checker, Herb Hippauf, who lost his battle with cancer. He was an original member of the scouting staff, joining the organization in 1992.

July 31 - Making a run for the N.L. West title, the Rockies acquire two-time Cy Young winner, Bret Saberhagen, from the New York Mets before the trading deadline.

August 2 - Dante Bichette claims his first national monthly honor, earning the N.L. Player-of-the-Month for July. He followed with the N.L. Player-of-the-Week for July 28-August 3.

August 9 - The Rockies welcome 300 blind or visually impaired athletes to Denver for the 20th annual World Series of Pioneer Beep Baseball. As a sponsor, the club helps provide equipment, umpires, field expenses and other costs associated with the event.

September 14 - "Marvin Freeman Field" in dedicated behind the Union Baptist Church. Marvin, along with the Robert R. McCormick Foundation, donated a total of $33,500 to refurbish the field in northeast Denver.

October 1 - The Rockies defeated the San Francisco Giants, 10-9, to claim the National League Wild Card spot, becoming the first expansion team to reach post-season play prior to its eighth year of competition.

October 12 - The club announces that Frank Funk and Paul Zuvella have been promoted from the minor league system to the major league coaching staff.

November 2 - Dante Bichette and the Rockies agree to terms on a 3-year deal. Later in the month, Bichette would finish 2nd in the N.L. MVP balloting.

November 7 - Don Baylor claims the National League Manager-of-the-Year honor, voted by the BBWAA, for leading his 3rd year club to post-season play.

November 16 - Two-time World Champion and three-time All-Star, Ken Griffey, Sr. becomes the 4th batting coach in as many years for the Rockies. Former big league manager, Jackie Moore, is also named to the coaching staff.

November 20 - Walt Weiss, who became a free agent after the '95 campaign, agrees to a 2-year deal to stay with the Rockies, including a player option for a 3rd season.

November 27 - All-Star third baseman, Vinny Castilla, signs a two-year deal.

Rockies in the Community

The Colorado Rockies organization has never lost sight of the importance of the off-field impact it has on the surrounding community. Throughout the year, both the front-office staff, the players and their families make valuable contributions through donations, benefits and their time.

The 1995 season witnessed the dawning of a new venture for the Rockies and their players, as the field refurbishing program commenced. Players donated large sums of their earnings towards assuring that youth ball fields in the metropolitan area are rebuilt and constructed allowing youngsters to pursue their goal of playing the game of baseball. The funds donated by the players are then enhanced by the Robert R. McCormick Tribune Foundation, giving the project the necessary boost to ensure an excellent playing facility.

In 1995, Andres Galarraga Field and Marvin Freeman Field were each completed and dedicated by their namesakes. Also participating in the program and with fields due for completion in 1996 are Dante Bichette, Ellis Burks, Bill Swift, Larry Walker and Walt Weiss.

Since 1994, the Rockies have also been involved in the Project S.O.A.R. program of the Denver Parks and Recreation Department (Special/social events, educational Opportunity, Arts and Recreation). The Rockies realize that children need positive alternatives to gang membership or after-school idleness. By investing $1.5 million in funding over a five-year period, the Rockies help fill the void for constructive activities during the after school hours.

The donation has enabled the expansion of youth programs at Baker, Cole, Martin Luther King, Smiley and Henry middle schools. The various S.O.A.R. offerings include interpersonal skills development, special events, communications, experiential education activities and computer science.

The Rockies' wives also get into the act during the season, last year totaling over $35,000 in donations from four different functions. The wives held a Canned Food Drive benefiting COMPA on June 3, a Toy Drive for the Denver Santa Claus Shop on July 21, then a Book drive for ZONTA International on September 9. The followed those in-stadium charity drives with a dinner and auction benefiting the Leukemia Society that in itself raised $30,000.

Rockies Charities

Roger Kinney serves the Rockies as Executive Director of Rockies' Charities. The ballclub has two charities, The Colorado Rockies Baseball Club Foundation and the Colorado Rockies Charity Fund, a fund of the Robert R. McCormick Tribune Foundation.

The Foundation was formed in 1991 as a public charitable organization with emphasis toward underprivileged and at-risk youth. Kinney is responsible for fundraising and grantmaking activities in the areas of youth baseball, education and literacy and drug/alcohol awareness.

Within these guidelines, the Foundation formed the School Assembly Program which emphasizes the importance of staying in school and off drugs. Area sports personality, Irv Brown, and former major league pitcher, Mark Knudson, conduct assembly programs throughout the area. It is an instructional and motivational experience for the children.

Another successful program under the guidance of the Foundation was the "Catch-A-Kid" program in 1993. It was designed to allow kids, kindergarten through eighth grade in the six county Denver metro area, to participate in the excitement of major league baseball. Students are encouraged to write essays entitled, "What Major League Baseball Means to Me." The students are then awarded baseball gloves in school assembly programs, where the importance of staying in school and off drugs is stressed by a speaker for the Foundation.

In addition to the focal points of the Foundation, the Charity Fund targets certain limited health and medical programs.

In 1993, the Charity Fund, in conjunction with Children's Hospital, held a celebrity golf tournament. The successful event, with the assistance of the Robert R. McCormick Tribune Foundation, raised more than $73,000 for the Hospital and the Fund. The Rockies continue to hold a golf outing that benefits Children's Hospital on an annual basis.

Andres Galarraga Field

Bob Gebhard and Andres Galarraga are joined by officials of the Boys and Girls Club of Denver at the dedication of Andres Galarraga Field.

The children of the Denver Boys and Girls Club display their gratitude for the Rockies' first baseman and his generous gift.

Dinger

Official Mascot

Ht: 7-2 Wt: One Dyno-ton B/T: S/R
Age: Turns 1 on April 16
Born: April 16, 1994 in Mile High Stadium
Residence: Coors Field
M.L. Service: 2 years

History

On January 22, 1994, construction worker's at the Coors Field construction site unearthed a large purple egg in what is now the Rockpile section of the ballpark. The National Guard was called to recover the egg, which was then incubated at Denver's Museum of Natural History.

On April 16, 1994, in Mile High Stadium, the egg was hatched in centerfield as a crowd of better than 50,000 witnessed the birth of Dinger.

Distinctive Features

Dinger's main color is purple, but he does possess various prehistoric spots about his body, which also consists of three horns and a huge tail that has been known to whip any unsuspecting predators.

Mile High Memories

The opening of Coors Field in 1995 closed the curtain on a brief, but very memorable two-year stint in Mile High Stadium. The use of Mile High afforded the Rockies the opportunity to gain instant respect around major league baseball, as fans poured through the turnstiles in record setting proportions. In 135 dates played at Mile High Stadium, the Rockies totaled 7,701,861 customers, a per game average of 57,051.

After drawing an unprecedented 4,483,350 fans in the inaugural year of 1993, the Rockies were on a pace to shatter that mark in '94, averaging 58,598 through 56 home dates, which would have put the season ending mark at 4,687,840. Despite the abrupt end to the year, in two seasons the Rockies had 52 occasions when better than 60,000 paid to watch baseball, and 21 times the crowd peaked over 70,000.

Though the '94 season ended abruptly, the Rockies still managed to break four attendance marks that had belonged to them at one point during the previous season. Following is the complete list of attendance records set by the Rockies in Mile High Stadium:

Rockies Attendance Records

A DEDICATED SPRING IN MEMORY OF:

"Tucson" Lenny Rubin Otis Layton

The Colorado Rockies and the community of Tucson suffered tragic losses over a one-week span in December with the passing of both "Tucson" Lenny Rubin and Otis Layton. Each man was of incredible value to the Rockies in the club's embryonic stages of development in Tucson.

Lenny had no hours, as he was always at Hi Corbett Field, tending to a variety of needs and chores necessary to the operation of spring training. "Tucson" Lenny was such a fixture that he earned a part in the movie "Major League' filmed in the early '90's in Tucson.

Otis made sure that Rockies' and visiting officials were properly nourished during their visits to Hi Corbett, supervising the dining room.

In honor of each man, the Rockies and City of Tucson have erected two evergreen trees in the area outside the Rockies' offices at Hi Corbett Field to forever thank them for their dedication.

Known for his flamboyant attire and foot-long cigars, "Tucson" Lenny Rubin will be sorely missed, as will Otis Layton, when the Rockies pay their annual visit to Tucson.

TUCSON, ARIZONA...
50th year as a spring training home

The 1996 Colorado Rockies spring camp marks the 50th season for major league spring baseball in Tucson, AZ. This is Colorado's fourth year after a 46-year stint by the Cleveland Indians.

In three springs, the club has drawn 288,847 fans, which included an inaugural camp of '93 that had 113,072, in which the Rockies went 18-14-1. The Rockies posted a 16-18 ledger in 1994, then had a total mark of 24-15-2 in their two visits to Tucson last year.

At the opening of training camp in 1996, the Rockies agreed in principle to a 15-year lease that would keep them in Hi Corbett Field through the 2011 spring. The final details were still on the table, but stipulations included the arrival of two more major league teams in the Tucson area, and the construction of a new stadium for those clubs.

Currently the summer home of the Tucson Toros of the Pacific Coast League, the Rockies were treated to the initial facelift of Hi Corbett Field before they began their initial camp. The renovation included a new press facility, modern major league clubhouse along the first base side, and new administrative offices in the rightfield corner. Prior to the start of spring training in '94, the new minor league clubhouse was expanded to hold another 60 lockers for future big league stars. The original facelift also included the upgrading of restrooms, concession stands and the addition of batting cages and pitching mounds.

The Rockies generally hit the field at 9:00 a.m. daily, with a couple of variations, and workout until the early-afternoon. Workouts are open to the general public. Games for the 1996 exhibition season begin on March 1, with tickets available daily at the Hi Corbett Field box office.

Ellis Burks participates in the sliding drill, one of the many different exercises and drills the players go through in preparation for the regular season.

ON THE AIR FROM THE DESERT

Fans who are unable to make the trek from Colorado and the rest of the region will be able to keep track of the Rockies' progress throughout the spring via Newsradio 85/KOA. Wayne Hagin and Jeff Kingery will be mikeside for 13 exhibition games, including 11 from Arizona and the 2-game series in Coors Field against Minnesota.

The first 3 games of the exhibition schedule will be broadcast on 85/KOA, including March 1 vs. Milwaukee and March 2 vs. San Francisco, both from Hi Corbett Field, and the March 3 contest vs. the Giants in Scottsdale.

Each game will be preceded by a half-hour show. Hagin and Kingery will also be filing reports from Tucson on a daily basis, to keep fans at home apprised of the ball club's progress.

Items of Interest

BATTING CHAMPIONSHIP QUALIFICATIONS: To win a batting title a player must have 502 or more actual plate appearances, the equivalent of 3.1 appearances for each of the 162 scheduled games.

EARNED RUN AVERAGE CHAMPION QUALIFICATIONS: To win the ERA title a pitcher must have at least as many innings pitched as the number of games scheduled for each club in his league that season and have the lowest ERA.

FIELDING CHAMPIONSHIP QUALIFICATIONS: The individual field champions shall be the fielders with the highest fielding average at each position, provided:

(1) A catcher must have participated as a catcher in at least one-half the number of games scheduled for each club in his league that season.

(2) An infielder or outfielder must have participated at his position in at least two-thirds of the number of games scheduled for each club in his league that season.

(3) A pitcher must have pitched at least as many innings as the number of games scheduled for each club in his league that season. EXCEPTION—If another pitcher has a fielding average as high or higher, and has handled more total chances in a lesser number of innings, he shall be the fielding champion.

(NOTE—These figures DO NOT determine the Gold Glove winners at the end of the season. Those are selected by a vote of managers and coaches.)

PINCH HITTING: A player shall be considered a pinch-hitter only if he enters the game as a substitute batter and then only on his first time at bat, which must be before he becomes a fielder. If the team bats around in the inning and a pinch hitter comes up a second time, he will not be considered a pinch hitter the second time.

ROOKIE QUALIFICATIONS: A player shall be considered a rookie unless, during a previous season or seasons, he has:

(1) Exceeded 130 at bats or 50 innings pitched in the major leagues, or

(2) Accumulated more than 45 days on the active roster of a major league club or clubs during the period of the 25-man roster (excluding time in military service).

SAVE RULE: A pitcher shall be credited with a save when he meets all three of the following conditions:

(1) He is the finishing pitcher in a game won by his club, and

(2) He is not the winning pitcher, and

(3) He qualifies under one of the following conditions:

(a) He enters the game with a lead of no more than three runs and pitches at least one inning, or

(b) He enters the game regardless of the count, with the potential tying run either on base, at bat, or on deck (that is, the potential tying run is either already on base or is one of the first two batsmen he faces), or

(c) He pitches effectively for at least three innings.

SUSPENDED GAMES: For the purpose of this rule, all performances in the completion of a suspended game shall be considered as occurring on original date of this game.

How to Figure

BATTING AVERAGE: Divide the number of at bats into the number of hits.

EARNED RUN AVERAGE: Multiply the number of earned runs by nine, take that number and divide it by the total innings pitched.

FIELDING PERCENTAGE: Divide the total number of putouts and assists by total chances (putouts, assists and errors).

MAGIC NUMBERS: Determine the number of games yet to be played, add one, then subtract the number of games ahead in the loss column of the standings from the closest opponent.

ON-BASE PERCENTAGE: Add the total of hits, walks and hit by pitches and divide by the total of at bats, walks, hit by pitches and sacrifice flies.

SLUGGING PERCENTAGE: Divide total bases by the total times at bat. (At bats do not include walks, sacrifices, hit by pitcher, or times awarded first base by interference or obstruction).

WINNING PERCENTAGE: Divide the number of games won by the total games won and lost.
